Don't tie a cough or a cold up in your system by taking a remedy that binds the bowels. Take Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar. It is different from all other cough syrups. It is better. It opens the bowels—expels all cold from the system, relieves coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. An ideal remedy for young and old. Children like it. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Birthday Party.

On Friday of last week, April 6th, the home of Ahimaaz Clevenger, living on the Thomas Sloan farm, was the scene of special joy, occasioned by the celebration of his 48th birthday.

A short time in advance of the event, Mrs. Clevenger conceived the idea of giving her companion a surprise. Preparations were immediately started for the approaching day. Friends and neighbors were invited to participate in the festivities. Those who were present can testify, both to the fact that the farm offers to the hungry mouth the fat of the land, and that Mrs. Clevenger knows how to prepare the same tastefully and generously for her guests.

Mr. Clevenger received a nice lot of useful gifts, to remind him of the happy event, as the years go by.

The following named persons participated in the joys of the family: First in honor, and worthy of thought is the one whose name is ever dear to every heart, viz: Mother—the mother of Mr. Clevenger. The occasion was enlivened by the presence of a bride and groom, in the persons of Jas. Keifer and wife, of Lancaster, Pa; Amos Palmer and wife, Clarence Palmer, of McKibbin; Jno. Spade, wife and children, Guy, Earl and Sarah, of Gem; Mrs. Levi Keefer and children, Cora, Edward, George, Jessie, and Sadie, of Webster Mills; David Nelson, wife and daughter Louisa; Miss Ella Johnston, Miss Bess Patterson, Mr. Lin Patterson, Mrs. Aaron Richards, Mrs. Andrew Rotz, Mrs. Ralph Reed, Hon. and Mrs Peter Morton and son Earl; Mrs. Thomas Sloan, Walter, Alex and Miss Mary; Mrs. Frank Mason, Mrs. George Mellott, Rev. and Mrs. A. G. Wolf, and children, Ruth and John.

A GUEST.

Living indoors so much during the winter months creates a sort of a stuffy, want-of-ozone condition in the blood and system generally. Clean up and get ready for spring. Take a few Early Risers. These famous little pills cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels and give the blood a chance to purify itself. They relieve headache, sallow complexion, etc. Sold by Stouteagle & Bro.

Some Fulton County People.

A number of Fulton county people spent last Tuesday evening, April 3d, very pleasantly at the hospitable home of Miss Nettie Mellott, at 1326 N. Frazier St., Philadelphia. Those present were: Miss Nettie Mellott, her mother and sister Edith: Misses Maude Spencer, Rhoda Lake, Olhe Hess, Ella Mellott and Blanche Barton; Messrs Ambler, D. C Hart, Boyd Lake, and Fred Pyle. After an evening of chatting and music they all returned to their homes feeling it was good to be there.

Society Event.

On Thursday evening last, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Sloan entertained McConnellsburg's "four hundred." Nothing daunted by the drizzling rainfall of the evening a great multitude of their town and country friends assembled in the spacious parlors and gave themselves over to a delightful evening of pleasant intercourse and reminiscence. It is said that the "greatest ornament of a house is its guests," paraphrase, and claim for the Sloan home that distinction for the host and hostess, for none can preside more gracefully than they. The refreshments were abundant and delicious. The proof of their excellence was in the eating of them.

After dinner in response to a call for literary entertainment, Mrs. S. M. Cook gave a comical sketch from real life. "Taking the Rags to the store." Which was highly appreciated. At a late hour the company dispersed after having enjoyed a very merry evening.

A Birthday Incident.

The senior Bible class studying the Normal lessons under direction of Mrs. S. M. Cook, met at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Stevens on Monday night. This class has passed their second examination with most creditable rating and will after a third examination in the near future be the recipients of State Diplomas granted to them for excellence in the study and knowledge of the Bible.

A very pleasant incident of the meeting was the presentation to Mr. George W. Hays, on the occasion of his forty-ninth birthday, of a handsomely bound M. E. Hymnal, a gift from the class, who are under obligations to Mr. Hays for repeated courtesies during the past winter. In the absence of the class president the presentation speech was made by the teacher, to which Mr. Hays made grateful response

AN OLD HORSE THIEF LAW.

It Was Enacted Nearly A Century Ago, And Never Was Repealed.

Through the application of Frank Moles, of Norristown, the Philadelphia County Commissioners have been directed to pay to him a reward of $20 under an old law enacted by the Legislature in 1821, applying to every county in Pennsylvania.

Early in January a horse belonging to Charles K. Smith, of Chestnut Hill, was stolen by Joseph Hasson. Moles captured Hasson in Norristown, and handed him over to the authorities of Philadephia county. On January 23d, he was convicted and sentenced to six months imprisonment.

Moles in some manner learned of the existence of the law, and made application for payment of the $20 reward by law, together with the additional amount of 6 cents for every mile necessarily traveled. When the matter was brought to the attention of the Commissioners, they were amazed, but after an investigation, the fact that the law made such provision was discovered.

The act reads: "Whosoever after the passage of this Act shall pursue and apprehend any person who shall have stolen any mare, horse or gelding within any county of this Commonwealth, on the conviction of the person so apprehended, shall be entitled to a reward of $20 and 6 cents for every mile necessarily traveled.

A Birthday Surprise.

Tuesday of last week was a vertible Spring day, a day favorable for the gathering of children and grand children and friends at Mr. William Rivens'—tenant farmer for Mr. James Kendall. They came to surprise his mother, Mrs. Susan Bivens, who makes her home with him, it being her sixty-third birthday anniversary. They brought with them boxes and baskets filled with those things which satisfy the inner man. After greetings had been extended and a little social conversation indulged in, one and all sat down to a bountiful repast. The Divine blessing was invoked upon the daily bread, and the prayer breathed that the life of the one in whose honor the guests had assembled might be spared to see many more anniversaries of her birth. Mrs. Bivens received many birthday remembrances.

Among those present were her daughters, Minnie, wife of Daniel Clevenger together with her children: Carrie, wife of Lewis Clevenger and her children; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Truax and son Elmer; Mrs. Jacob Pott, Mrs. Jack Peck, Mrs. Annie Graham, Rev. and Mrs C. M. Smith and their little son Lawrence. Mrs. William Ott, another daughter of Mrs. Bivens, was detained at home on account of sickness.

Wire Fence! Wire Fence!

Much Cheaper Than Any Style of Wood Fence

Let us figure together. A stick of timber that will square 6 inches and is 16½ feet in length, will make 49½ feet of lumber, which at $1.50 a hundred, is worth 75 cents. Now, I can sell you a good wire fence for 32c a rod, which is less than half the cost of a board fence.

The style I sell at 32c is a "bunkem" fence. A witness in court was once asked what kind of fence he had, when he made the reply, "I have a "bunkem" fence" "What kind of fence is that, thundered the court." "A "bunkem" fence," answered the witness, "is a fence that is horse-high, bull-strong, and pig-tight." That is just the kind of fence I sell. The price ranges from 23c to 60c., a rod depending on the style and height.

I also sell the

DEERING HARVESTING MACHINERY

—the best on earth. I have just bought my twine and will guarantee the price now. Machine Oil from 18c., to 40c., a gallon. Linseed oil, harness oil, cylinder oil, turpentine, white lead, and ready-mixed paints—all at rock-bottom prices.

I am closing out a lot of good horse blankets at cost. Collars, collar pads, trace chains, halter chains, &c., at very close prices. I have the best assortment of axes to be found anywhere in town. Axe handles, pick handles, sledge handles, Simon cross-cut saws, Diston cross-cut saws, handsaws, a complete line of strap and heavy barndoor hinges. Plumber's supplies—such as pipe, fittings, spigots, &c. I have on hand all the time a stock of Lane's patent baradoor hangers and tracks—the best hanger on the market—can't get off the track. Proved cable chain from ¼ to ⅝ on hand all the time, price ranging from 4½ to 7 cents a pound.
