INTERESTING PARAGRAPHS

Of Local and General Interest, Gathered at Home or Clipped from our Exchanges.

George Bradnick of Knobsville was one of our callers on Monday.

George W. Locke was at the County Seat on Friday of last week.

G. J. Mellott of Big Cove Tannery was seen on our streets on Monday.

Sam McLucas of Big Cove Tannery visited the County Capital on Friday.

E. Mowery Gelvin and wife were at the City Hotel on Thursday last.

W. H. James of Fort Littleton was a business visitor to town on Friday last.

Found—a good No. 9½ overshoe Owner can have it, by calling at this office.

Mr. and Mrs. AhimaazRunyan, of Needmore, are visiting in the home of their son John B. who has been confined to his home in this place nearly two weeks on account of illness.

J. W. Copeland, of Dayton, Ohio, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for his boy who had a cold, and before the bottle was all used the boy's cold was gone. Is that not better than to pay a five dollar doctor's bill? For sale by all dealers.

McConnellsburg Lutheran:—Sunday school, 9:15; Holy Communion 10:30, Oct. 29, 1911; Y. P. S. E. 6:00. The regular preparatory service will be held 2:30, Oct 28th. Big Cove Tannery Lutheran:—Sunday school 1:30, Holy Communion, 2:30, Oct. 29, 1911.

Here is a woman who speaks from personal knowledge and long experience, viz., Mrs. P. H. Brogan, of Wilson, Pa., who says, "I know from experience that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is far superior to any other. For croup there is nothing that excels it." For sale by all dealers.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Bonner, of Wilson, Pa., are spending their annual outing among their Fulton county friends. Mr. Bonner is Yardmaster in the railroad yards at DuQuesne, Pa., and is one of the Company's most trusted employes.

If you have young children you have perhaps noticed that disorders of the stomach are their most common ailment. To correct this you will find Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets excellent. They are easy and pleasant to take, and mild and gentle in effect. For sale by all dealers.

Surprise Party.

On Sunday October the 22nd quite a pleasant surprise was given in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bradnick near Knobsville in honor of their son Daniel Paul, when he went to the door, to his surprise, he saw friends and neighbors coming in to celebrate his third birthday. He received 44 beautiful cards and many other useful presents. Those present were: Lydia Aller Emma Bradnick, Brice Aller, Frank Bradnick, Ada Cutchall, Mary Pedden, Oscar Aller, Ella Bradnick, John Pedden, Irene Bessie Aller, Bertha Pedden, Velma Bliss Aller, Irvin Bradnick, Daniel and Elnora Green, David and Annie Cooper, Alvin, Virgie, Lottie, M. M., John Orville, and George Bradnick and wife.

ONE WHO WAS THERE.

AS CHEAP AS THE CHEAPEST

Poor oil cannot give good light. There is no flicker, no odor, no soot where is used. This triple-refined lamp oil costs no more than the inferior kinds—and saves you no end of trouble. Get it from your dealer's—it is therein barrels shipped direct from our refineries.

FAMILY FAVORITE OIL

Waverly Oil Works Co.
Independent Refiners
PITTSBURG, PA.
Also makers of Waverly Special Auto Oil and Waverly Gasolines.

CLEAR RIDGE.

Minnie Carothers spent the week end with Minnie Gladfelter.

W. L. Fields was during the past week doing some repair work for Auctioneer J. M. Chesnut.

E S. Nead and wife talk of moving to New Jersey.

Bert Winegardner has just finished remodeling his house.

Ward Berkstresser teacher of school No. 6, is boarding in the home of J. W. Mower and wife.

R. J. Fleming of the County Seat spent the week end at his home here.

Mrs Viola Hahr and three children of Somerset county, are visiting Horace Grove and wife, her parents; she is also accompanied by her sister in-law, Mary Hahr who is visiting in the Grove home.

The pupils who came from the school in Taylor to the Dublin school have been sent back to their own school.

Last Saturday night there was auction at the Winegardner store, as will also be in two weeks in the afternoon. Mr. Winegardner expects to go out of the mercantile business.

Jesse Carberry a former boy of this place was here Saturday evening after an absence of several years. He and Mrs. Carberry are visiting her father Jamison Hess.

It recently dawned on our friend John W. Mower that his vacation must be about due, so he started and after visiting relatives in Path Valley, Mowersville his two sons in Chambersburg, he attended the Hagerstown Fair went over the Battlefield at Gettysburg, where he had been present the day of the Great Battle, and visited his daughter in New Jersey and on his return he says he had the "time of his life."

Mrs. Frank Keith and three little sons of Saltillo spent the past week with her home folks, and on last Thursday she, accompanied by her mother Mrs. N. B. Henry drove down to McConnellsburg to consult the dentist and returned on Friday both toothless wanderers.

Little Julia Baker spent Saturday night with her uncle and aunt Calvin Baker and wife at Hotel Baker.

C. R Shore and L. H. Grove expect to get a gasoline engine and saw the wood of the community.

Our Band is progressing nicely.

L. P. Morton and Mertie Stevens spent Sunday with B. S. Winegardner and wife.

We learn Mrs. Aaron Beamer of Waynesboro, who was formerly Bessie Swisher of this place, is in very delicate health. Her many friends here hope for her speedy restoration.

Frank Keith and nephew Fern Barber of Saltillo spent Saturday night and Sunday with N. B. Henry and wife.

We are informed there are seven cases of diphtheria in Saltillo, and another new case in Maddensville one of the twin boys of Robert Locke and wife.

Mrs. Barton was visiting here recently.

William Mellott, wife and sons Lester and Robbie spent Saturday evening, with A. J. Fraker and wife.

Frank Madden wife and little son Richard spent Sunday with her parents Calvin Baker and wife at Hotel Baker.

It's Equal Don't Exist.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Boils, Ulcers, Eczema, Salt Rheum. For Sore Eyes, Cold Sores, Chaped Hands or Sprains its supreme. Unrivaled Piles. Try it. Only 25c at Trout's drug store.

School Reports.

Report of Locust Grove school for first month ending October 17, 1911. Number of pupils enrolled during month; male 7; female, 6. Per cent of attendance male, 94; female, 94. Number who attended every day during month; Carl Mills, Ellis Plessinger, Harper Diehl, Irene Layton, Mary Plessinger and Rintha Diehl.—C. A. Spade, teacher.

T. H. Truax of Plum Run dropped in to see us on Monday morning last for a few minutes.

WHY HESITATE?

An Offer That Involves no Money Risk if You Accept It.

We are so positive our remedy will completely relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish it free of all cost if it fails.

Constipation is commonly caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our guarantee. They are eaten like candy, and are particularly good for children. They seem to act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on the other organs. They do not purge or cause other inconvenience. We will refund your money if they do not overcome chronic or habitual constipation and thus aid to relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments. Try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Three sizes, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. Leslie W. Seylar.

Dutch Supper.

Sauerkraut and Wienerwurst, hard cider and pretzels are only a hint of the quaint bill of fare to be served by the ladies composing the Women Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church at this place. Supper will be served from 5 to 8 o'clock, p. m., at the residence of Mrs. B. W. Peck, Saturday evening, October 28th. Yes, everybody come. Only 25 cent.

P. S.—Since the above was put in type the ladies have instructed us to correct the statement about the hard cider. They will, however, have cider just the same.

ENID.

Mrs. Levi Truax and granddaughter, Flo are visiting relatives in Juniata and Bedford.

Ora Coke is spending some time, with relatives in Mt. Union, Mapleton, and Altoona.

A. S. Edwards and wife spent Friday night with the family of E. W McClain at Robertsdale.

Laura Edwards attended institute at Defiance.

Custer Smith has moved his family to Everett.

Joan Morton spent from Friday until Sunday at the home of her parents in McConnellsburg.

Charles Early and family visited Cocke Foster at Round Knob last Sunday.

BANNER SALVE
the most healing salve in the world.

Local Institute.

Following is report of the second educational meeting of Brush Creek district, held in Emmaville school Saturday evening October 21, 1911. Meeting called to order by the teacher, Miss Grace Lodge, after which she appointed Henry Bard, president and Chester Spade, secretary. The following questions were taken up and discussed by the teachers present: 1. What course do you pursue to secure home study? 2. The ideal teacher. 3. Schoolroom freedom. The following are names of teachers who were present at the meeting: S. E Walters, Amy Lodge, Grace Lodge, Sadie Barton, Ella Barton and Chester Spade, also ex-teacher Henry Bard who delivered an excellent talk on the Ideal Teacher. We were glad to have at our meeting one of our ex-worthy district superintendents, Mr. Harkness. The next educational meeting will be at Orbisonia school Friday evening November 10, 1911.—Chester A. Spade, Secy.

Is The World Growing Better?

Many things go to prove that it is. The way thousands are trying to help others is proof. Among those is Mrs. W. F. Gould, of Philadelphia, N. B. Finding good health by taking Electric Bitters, she now advises other sufferers, everywhere, to try them. "For years I suffered with stomach and kidney trouble," she writes. "Every medicine I used failed till I took Electric Bitters. But this great remedy helped me wonderfully." They help any woman. They're the best tonic and blood, liver and kidney remedy that's made. Try them. You'll see. 50c at Trout's drug store.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania on Tuesday the 31st day of October 1911, by Charles R. Spangler, Aaron U. Nace, Isaac A. Nelson, Geo. A. Harris, Geo. Mellott, Samuel R. Crouse, David Washabaugh, Jno. A. Irvin, Wm. H. Samuel Mellott, M. G. Kurtz, and Noah L. Nace, in pursuance the provisions of the Act of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "An Act for the incorporation and regulation of Banks of discount and deposit, approved the 15th day of May A. D. 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the purpose of an intended corporation to be called the FULTON COUNTY BANK" to be located in McConnellsburg, in the County of Fulton, State of Pennsylvania. Said corporation is intended for doing a general banking business under the Act above named and its supplements.

The capital stock of the proposed corporation is fixed at Fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) and is to consist of the rights, privileges and benefits of the said Act of assembly and its supplements.

J. NELSON FIELDS
Solicitor.

8-3. '11.

Our Business Is Banking

The sign "BANK" does not make a bank, and is often misleading. It requires close energy, close attention to business and the experience in banking to make a bank.

WE CLAIM

all the essentials necessary to make our business that of banking, and tender our patronage a service thoroughly seasoned by experience, backed up by a substantial capital and a large SURPLUS, EVERY CENT OF WHICH HAS BEEN EARNED.

The Bank that made it possible for you to receive interest on your savings.

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK of McConnellsburg, Penn'a.

TWO CARLOADS.

Two Carloads of Buggies at one time, seems pretty strong for a Fulton county dealer, but that is just what has just received. In this lot are 5 different grades and styles, of Buggies and Runabouts including the Millersburg. He has on hand a large stock of Hand Made Buggy Harness.

W. R EVANS, Hustontown, Pa.,

The Prices? Don't mention it. If the prices were not below the lowest, he would not be selling by the carload.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION SUBMITTED TO THE CITIZENS OF THE COMMONWEALTH FOR THEIR APPROBATION OR REJECTION BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA, AND PUBLISHED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH, IN PURSUANCE OF ARTICLE XVIII OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Number One.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, so as to consolidate the courts of common pleas of Allegheny County.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendment to the Constitution of Pennsylvania be, and the same is hereby proposed, in accordance with the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment Six of article five be amended, by striking out the said section, and inserting in place thereof the following:

Section 6. In the county of Philadelphia all the jurisdiction and powers now vested in the district courts and courts of common pleas, subject to such changes as may be made by this Constitution or by law, shall be in one court, to be called the Municipal Court of Philadelphia, composed of judges, commissioned as aforesaid, which shall be designated, respectively, as judges of the said court of common pleas, and shall succeed to the jurisdiction and powers of the said courts, and shall be assigned to such chambers and districts as may be provided by law. The president judge of said court shall be designated as provided by law. The number of judges in said court may be by law increased from time to time. This Amendment shall take effect on the first Monday of January succeeding the adoption hereof.

A true copy of Resolution No. 1.
ROBERT McAFEE,
Secretary of the Commonwealth.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section 1. Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amendment to Article Nine, Section Eight.

Section 2. Amend section eight, article nine, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:—

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any indebtedness or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law. In computing the debt of any city, the debt of the sinking fund at a fair value, except such as may be held in trust for the payment of interest or principal of the debt of such city, shall be deducted. In ascertaining the debt of any county, there shall be deducted the value of the assets of the county, except such as may be held in trust for the payment of interest or principal of the county debt, and except such as may be held in the sinking fund at a fair valuation, and except such as may be held for the payment of liabilities of the county, except those for which the taxes are not yet levied, and except those for which the taxes are levied but not yet due, and except those for which there is a sinking fund or other provision for the payment thereof, and except those for which there is a right of reimbursement to the county from any other municipality or district, and except those for which there is a right of reimbursement to the county from any other municipality or district, and except those for which there is a right of reimbursement to the county from any other municipality or district