No Rest---No Peace

There's no peace and little rest for the one who suffers from a bad back, and distressing urinary disorders. McConnellsburg people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Be guided by their experience.

Riley Peck, shoemaker, McConnellsburg, says "I was troubled with my kidneys and had soreness in my back. I was dizzy at times and it affected my eyes. I had to get up often at night on account of the kidney secretions and I was tired out in the morning. The doctor gave me only a little relief. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Trout's Drug store, gave me great relief."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Peck had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Dyson Fraker has been the happy hostess of many visiting friends and relatives this summer. Sometime ago she was called upon by Elmer Fraker, Miss Anna Buckley, Miss Frank Fields, Miss Brubaker, Mrs. Kate Fraker and Mrs. Charley Fields—all of Ft. Littleton. They all had a grand time and geatly enjoyed their visit. Mr. Fraker lost his buggy whip but the ladies told him not to worry as they were standing all expenses, and would buy him a new one.

A few days ago Mrs. Fraker's son Zalda A. Keith, with his wife Isabelle and daughter Margaret, and a friend, Mr. Miligan—all of Pittsburgh, visited at Mrs. Fraker's. Zalda and Mrs. Miligan came and went, on a motor cycle, and Zalda's wife and daughter on the train. They stayed with Mrs Fraker for a week or so, and when they returned to Pittsburgh, Mrs Fraker went with them, and spent a week with them and with her daughter Aditha Montgomery.

A few days after Mrs Fraker's return, she was visited by her son Eli Kieth and wife and three children, who are with her at the present time. They are from Wheeling, W. Va., and they came through in their Regal car. They are having a glorious time in the country. When not riding or fishing they spend much time playing "Hide and Seek" with their children. When they play "Hide and Seek" Mrs Fraker, Mrs Baith and Mrs Lane turn in and help along with the game

While Mrs. Fraker, Mrs Baith and Mrs Lane are all up in years and their hair is getting gray yet it makes them think of their schaol girl days to play that game once more
