LETTER FROM KANSAS.

HALSTEAD, KAN., Jan. 23, 1886.

As I can not do anything but attend to my stock, I thought I would sit down for a short chat with my old Snyder county friends through the medium of the pen.

I think "Sunny Kansas" has left us entirely. About every other day we have snow storms which are accompanied by cold northern winds that cut through anything in their way. The poor cattle are having a terrible time of it between the howling blasts and snow-covered ground, which means starvation and death to thousands of them—especially the range cattle. The wire fences which enclose the vast pastures, and which were to save the expenses of the employment of numerous herders, is proving a source of immeasurable loss. The cattle, driven before the storm are brought to a halt at these fences where nothing remains for them but to huddle together and freeze to death, and the result is these cruel barbed-wire fences are a perfect highway lined by the bodies of the dead and dying cattle.

Eastern people have no idea how terrible these storms are. The great disasters of last winter, followed by this experience, will compel a radical cange in the cattle industry. The fact is the ranges are overstocked and the grass is giving out. The Buffalo grass which cured on the ground and furnished nutricious pasture all winter, is fast disappearing, and its place is being taken by the blue-stem which for winter feed on the ground is altogether worthless. The Kansas cattle men will have to do something—prepare feed or else quit the business.

I think the future will be largely under the control of farmers, who prepare themselves for raising cattle in small numbers and take care of them. It will be a healthy change, as it will give us a prosperous farming community all over the west, instead of struggling farmers and bloated cattle kings, who monopolize one of the most profitable industries in the west. These vast pasture fields, while they were covered with nutricious grasses, enabled the range men to distance competators and they have driven thousands of farmers and small raisers out of the fields of production.

My cattle are in good shape, I have only 66 head, 34 of these I am feeding for the spring market.

We are enjoying good health. So much from "Charming Kansas."

JOHN D. DREESE.

ASWERS TO TAXPAYERS.

HARRISBURG, PA., Jan. 26.—The Board of Revenue Commissioners to-day issued the following circular:

The Board of Revenue Commissioners, at a meeting held on January 21, 1886, considered the many questions submitted to them growing out of the enforcement of the Revenue act of June 30, 1885, and call your attention to the answers to the following questions, and their interpotation of the law:

Are bank deposits not bearing interest but subject to check on sight and money in hand not invested, included in item, "All other moneyed capital?" No.

Is a dower on real estate taxable? No.

Are deposits bearing interest in national banks, savings banks taxable? Yes.

Are musical instruments, pictures, books, etc., to be regarded as household furniture? No.

Are mortgages owned by beneficial associations taxable? Yes.

Are mortgages, judgments, bonds, notes, etc., not bearing interest, taxable? Yes.

Are bonds issued by school districts taxable in the hands of the owners? Yes.

Is the stock of corporations paying tax on capital stock to the State through the companies taxable in the hands of the owners? Yes.

Is the stock of the New York Central Railroad and other foreign corporations owned in this State taxable in the hands of the owners? Yes.

Can a taxable person deduct debt from the amount of his moneyed investments, and only pay tax on the net sum thus shown? No.

If A borrows money from B on a note and lends it to C on a note, are both notes taxable? Yes.

The answers are signed by W. S. Stenger, Secretary of the Commonwealth, W. Livsey, State Treasurer, and Jerome B. Niles, Auditor General.

The U. S. Senate has passed the bill to admit Dakota. Good.

Hon. L. E. Atkinson has been placed by Speaker Carlisle on the following Committees: Railways and Canals and Patents.

The work of rescuing the Nanticoke victims has been permantly stopped. Further efforts would only lead to a further loss of life.

Like His Father.

He Was Afflicted With Stone in the Bladder.

Mr. S. W. Hicks, of Pleasant Valley, Duchess County, New York, the son of Mr. E. S. Hicks, whose name may have appeared in this journal in connection with an article similar to this, was like his father, afflicted with Stone in the Bladder, only that his case was more serious than his father's. The father advised the son to write to Dr. David Kennedy, of Rondout, N. Y., who, he said, would tell him what to do. Dr. Kennedy replied, suggesting the use of KENNEDY'S FAVORITE REMEDY, which had worked so successfully in the father's case. Mr. Hicks, who had been assured by the local physicians that they could do nothing more for him, tried favorite remedies. After two weeks he passed a stone ¾ of an inch long and of the thickness of a pipe stem. Since then he has had no symptoms of a return of the trouble. He is a sick man healed. What better results could have been expected? What greater benefits could medical science confer? The end was gained; that is surely enough. Dr. Kennedy assures the public, by a reputation which he cannot afford to imperil, that the FAVORITE REMEDY does invigorate the blood, cures liver, kidney and bladder complaints, as well as all those diseases and weaknesses peculiar to females.

Thousands of Grateful People voluntarily testify in letters to Dr Kennedy, with a warmth and fullness of words which mere business documents and certificates never possess, what Favorite Remedy, the great specific for blood, liver and kidney disorders, has done for them and their friends.

THE

Philadelphia Weekly Times

Attractive: Entertaining: Instructive: The Family Journal of America.

STORIES OF THE WAR

ILLUSTRATED IN EVERY ISSUE.

A Paper for the House of the Land—Sparkling and Original in Every Feature.

On the First of January next, a new departure in every feature of the Weekly TIMES will be made. Every number will be liberally illustrated in its War contributions, which so long been a specialty in its column, and in its Stories which will be greatly enlarged from the pens of the best writers, and in current History, Biography, Politics, Art, Science and the leading events of the day.

The time has passed for the weekly journal of the city to fill the place of a newspaper. The daily newspaper from the great centres of news now reaches into every section of the land. Every inland city and every town of importance have their daily newspapers, and the local weekly, with the wonderful progress in provincial journalism, meets every want that the daily newspaper fails to supply. The metropolitan weekly of to-day must be much more than a newspaper; it must be a magazine of family reading; it must lead the magazine in popular literature; it must lead it in popular illustration, and it must meet every requirement of the intelligent reader of every class.

Stories of the War

Will be published in each number from the ablest writers who participated in the bloody drama of civil strife, and each will be profusely illustrated. The most entertaining and instructive Stories from the best writers of fiction will appear in each issue, with illustrations.

TERMS:

Sold by all news agents at five cents per copy. By mail, $2 per year, or $1 for six months. Clubs of ten, $18, and an extra copy to the getter up of the club. Address,

THE TIMES,
Times Building, Philadelphia.
