The Convention of the Pennsylvania Central Musical Association at Freeburg this week is unusually well attended. The splendid sleighing and beautiful moonlight nights will induce the large attendance at the concerts which the superior nature of the concerts merit.

A Musical Convention, under the direction of A. W. Potter, Esq., will commence at Selinsgrove on Monday evening, January 31. This convention promises to be a grand affair and everybody should avail themselves of this opportunity to gain musical knowledge.

To cure a felon, fill a tumbler with equal parts of fine salt and ice; mix well. Send the finger to the centre, allow it to remain until it is nearly frozen and numb; then withdraw it, and when sensation is restored renew the operation four or five times, when it will be found that the disease is destroyed. This must be done until pus is formed.

We are glad to learn that our friend and neighbor, Joseph G. Lesher, of the Times has received the appointment of Postal Clerk, to run between New York City and Pittsburgh. A merchant of Allegan, Mich., keeps what he calls his "thief account." In it he records everything missed, and the first person discovered stealing goods is required to pay the entire bill to escape prosecution. Recently a woman was caught stealing a fifty-cent pair of leggings, and she was called on to square the account, which amounted to $5.

A hot lemonade is one of the best remedies in the world for a cold. It acts promptly and effectively, and has no unpleasant effects. One lemon properly squeezed, cut in slices, put with sugar, and covered with a half pint of boiling water. Drink just before going to bed and do not expose yourself on the following day. This will often ward off an attack of chills and fever if taken properly.

With all our smartness in this age of ingenuity we have invented nothing that can take the slipperiness out of ice. Heels fly up now as they flew up in Adam's day, and a hurt hurts just as much now as it did then. So, kind reader, sprinkle with ashes the pavement near your house, and don't stop sprinkling until the last scuttle ful shall have been used. In the scriptural days ashes were indicative of lamentation; now they mark out a pleasant path. Therefore sprinkle over as much of the icy sidewalk as you can.

The Musical Convention of the Philharmonic Society, Freeburg, closed on Saturday evening last with a reproduction of the "Old Folks' Concert." It was the most successful convention, financially and otherwise, that was ever held by the Society. The "Old Folks' Concert on Wednesday and Saturday evenings were especially well received, and the house was crowded on both evenings. It was a new move in Musical conventions and took immensely. They will hold their next convention in Holiday week, commencing Dec. 26, and close Dec. 31.

The public Installation services of the Capt. G. W. Ryan Post, G. A. R. of Middleburgh in the Court House, last Friday evening were witnessed by a large and appreciative audience. The "Initiation of a Candidate," a side-splitting burlesque, followed the regular order of exercises, and the loud applause which followed one after another was sufficient evidence that the play had not failed in its mirth-creating effect. A few more rehersels on the part of some of the performers might be an improvement, which they expect to accomplish in a few weeks when they intend producing it in some of our sister towns. The stage costumes are very appropriate and enchanting in the extreme, as the [illegible]

$100,000 FIRE.—Bellefonte had a big fire on Saturday morning. The magnificent Bush Arcade building was discovered to be on fire in the basement room, occupied by Valentine Company's store, and owing to the intense cold it was impossible for the fire companies to gain control of the flames, and the building with nearly all its contents was completely destroyed. In the building were a number of stores, the Keystone Gazette printing office, the Armory of Co. B, Fifth Regt., and the Masonic Lodge Rooms, which had recently been fitted out at an expense of $5,000. Nothing was saved and the loss is estimated at from $75,000 to $100,000.

TO THE PUBLIC.—This is to certify that my barn and contents in Centre township, were insured in the Beavertown Mutual Fire Insurance Co. and were entirely destroyed by fire on Nov. 5th, 1886. The loss was promptly reported by David Wetzel, the agent, to the company, and within a few days thereafter the loss was adjusted, and the loss of my tenant, Mr. Walter, immediately paid to the amount of $306. And it now affords me a great deal of pleasure to state that the company's Treasurer, came and paid me the amount of my loss, $1200, to my entire satisfaction in the manner in which the claim has been adjusted and paid. I am free to say that I regard it reliable and one of the safest and best mutual companies. I believe it to be managed with great care and prudence, and fully in the interest of its patrons. Feeling that I am in safe hands I shall improve every occasion to advance the Company's interests.

Very Respectfully Yours,
URIAH BERGER.

THREE GIRL MURDERERS.—Della Corbett, Ella Kountzman and Jennie Quay are in the Mifflin county jail at Lewistown, charged with the most horrible murder that has ever been committed in Pennsylvania. Neither of the girls is over twenty-one years of age, and all have been educated in one of the soldiers' orphan schools of the State. On Christmas they were invited to take a sleigh ride by a pudler named John Akley. The man was intoxicated and had a bottle of whisky in the sleigh, and the girls drank of the liquor freely, The entire party become shamefully intoxicated, and the girls began to abuse their male companion. Finnally the unfortunate fellow was thrown from the sleigh. He was carried into a house and died the next day. A post-mortem examination of the body proved that the head was terribly bruised, the bladder ruptured and other organs badly displaced, indicating extraordinary violence. Della Corbett told a neighbor that they had a—— of a time on Christmas and "fixed" John Akley, "We threw him out of the sleigh," she said, "and I beat him over the head with the butt end of a whip. If he dies I guess I'll buy a black dress and go to the funeral."

The girls tell the story of the crime with wonderful callousness, and there is no sympathy for them. Akley was a married man with six children, but had been separated from his wife. The trial takes place this week, and the girls will undoubtedly be found guilty.

CENTREVILLE.—The new church at this place will be dedicated on Sunday, Jan. 30th. Services preparatory to the occasion will begin a week prior. Ministers from a distance will assist in the ceremonies. All are cordially invited to attend.

Gen Logan's Sudden Death

Is a great shock to the nation. Few knew that he was even indisposed when the news of his death flashed over the wires and thousands of people stood aghast at the sudden change from health and vigor to cold and silent death. For the past twenty five years there has been no man more constantly before the public than Generald John A Logan. Through all his career he has been noted for his fearlessness and purity of character both in public and private life. Loved by friends and respected by enemies he will be mourned by all.

His death adds another to the long list of victims to sudden and acute rheumatism. Probable no disease is so common as rheutism, none is more sudden or dangerous, and there is certainly none which so completely baffles medical skill.

Only one remedy has yet been discovered which is a sure and safe cure for rheumatism and its twin disease, neuralgia, and that is Athlophoros. In thousands of cases Athlophoros has proved a quick and certain cure for these diseases. In connection with Atlophoros Pills it has never yet failed to speedily effect a cure.

In all probability many deaths attributed to heart disease are caused by these terrible diseases, which are far more dangerous than is generally considered.

Rheumatism, even though in a very milk form, is extremely dangerous, for it is liable at any moment to go to the heart and cause instant death. Why trifle with a disease so fatal when a certain cure can be obtained of any druggist?

Every druggist should keep Athlophoros and Athlophoros Pills, but where they cannot be bought of the druggist the Athlophoros Co., 112 Wall St., New York, will send either (carriage paid) on receipt of regular price, which is $1.00 per bottle for Athlophoros and 50c. for Pills.

For liver and kidney diseases, dyspepsia, indigestion, weakness, nervous, debility, diseases of women, constipation, headache, impure blood, etc., Athlophoros Pills are unepualed.
