Dreifuss Bros.

F. P. Drinker of Bloomsburg and Dr. Smith of Adamsburg took a social gla—glance at our office last week and sm—smoked with us at the Washington. They are enjoying life—innocently—and evidently believe that when we die we'll be a long time dead.

Bro. Wilvert of the Sunbury American has sold his paper to Thos. J. Silvise and Hudson Withington both young men of intelligence and energy. Brother Wilvert has been an able editor, rendering the American one of the most original as well as the most crisp exchanges that came to our table.

In another column we publish an article on "pension crookedness," which shows to what advantage perjury can be used. We heard and experienced pension agent say not long ago, "Let a man do the swearing and I'll get him a pension, and I don't care much who he is." Is it possible that it has come to this?

J. P. Kearns of the Beavertown carriage works has full control of the artisian well drill and Machinery formerly operated by Weike & Strohecker which he will sell at a bargain on account of not having time to attend to it. Big money in it if proper attention is given. Call and examine it.

On Monday morning on opening our mail we found a lean, lank, hungry-looking bed-bug slowly wending its way over our copy of the New York Daily Star. It was evidently one of the rascals turned out, and had every appearance of a mugwamp. Coming from a Bourbon paper, and carried through the United States mail, convinces us that this Democratic administration is getting lousy.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.—Agents in every town and township in Snyder, Northumberland, Union, Mifflin, Juniata, and Perry counties, for the Standard life of Beecher, by Thos. W. Knox. Outfit free and exclusive teritory given to those who mean business Address. L. G. EARLY.
Freeburg Pa.

List of letters uncalled for in the Post-office at Middleburgh, May 5th 1887.

Samuel Musselman, Wilson Walter, John A Snyder, Harris Sholl, John R. Snyder, B. F. Mocarl, E. C. Keyes, Mrs Sallie A. Moyer, Miss Agnes Reich, Miss Mary Real, Miss Agnes Reigle.

I. GRIER BARBER, P. M.

Bro. Fosnot of the Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel paid Middleburgh a visit on Monday and favored the POST with a friendly call. Mr. Fosnot edits one of the best county weeklies in the State of Pennsylvania, is a quiet, unassuming gentleman and an excellent companion. He has probably only one fault and for that he may not be responsible. He is a Bourbon Democrat from way back.

Rumor has it that the head quarters of the S. & L. Railroad will shortly be changed from Lewistown to Sunbury, and extend the line to Scranton and there connect with roads from the east—making this a section of a through line from the New England States to the West. This would be a terrible blow on Lewistown as we are informed that the company's money paid out from Lewistown in wages and other expensis amount to over one hundred thousand dollars annually.

As the time for camp-meetings is now at hand, we would suggest the following lines from the poet Cowper to be printed in large letters and hung in the centre of the speakers' stands:

But whether went his soul, let such relate
Who search the secrets of a future state.
Strong proofs they have but not demonstrative—
For were all plain, then all sides must agree,
And faith itself be lost in certainty.
To live uprightly then, is sure the best
To save ourselves and not condemn the rest.

A venerable looking chap styling himself Elder Eusabius Hershey invaded the town last week, and preached, exhorted, or went through the motions on Al. Hackenberger's corner, a couple of evenings. During the daytime he peddled a very neatly printed little volume, entitled "The Living Poem," price ten cents, and sold quite a number. While we set him down as a harmless lunatic, yet he has his eyes open for the main chance and is not as much of a lunatic as he or she would be who would wade through the miserable rot contained in the book and then swear by it instead of at it.—Juniata Herald.

Al. Arbogast, who has been paving his way to the penitentiary for the last few years, was brought before 'Squire Rishel, last Thursday morning, for a hearing. He had been doing business in and about this place, for some time, in a very reckless manner; buying farming implements and having some party bail him for the amount, then selling them for whatever sum he could get, just to raise a little cash. When he knew of a man that had any money, he would offer him a bond of from ten to thirty per cent. in order to get it. Notwithstanding, all warning, he kept up this style of business, until it has ended seriously, and his friends are made to suffer thereby. After the hearing, Arbogast was put under $6,000 bail for appearance at the coming court. Not being able to secure any bail, he was placed in the hands of Constable Gemberling, to be taken to the county jail. He requested the constable to take him by way of Freeburg to see his friends, who would furnish the required amount of bail. Upon their arrival there, the constable allowed the prisoner to have his own way, thinking that he would do as stated. Later, to his surprise, he learned that Al. had hired a rig and driver to take him to McKees, thus making good his way of escape.—Selinsgrove Times.

WANTED.—10,000 pounds of wool at Dreifuss Bros., Selinsgrove, Pa.

Sol Oppenheimer wants ten thousand pounds of wool for which he will pay the highest cash prices.

It quite often happens that both of the passengers trains on the Sunbury and Lewistown railroad make fast time. On last Friday the mail train going west was detained at Sunbury and Selinsgrove, and when it left the latter place it was just thirty minutes late. However, when it pulled into McClure it was one minute ahead of time, making the run between Selinsgrove and McClure, a distance of 26 miles, in just 46 minutes, stopping for water and at all stations except Pawling and Meiser. The run between Benfer and Beavertown, six miles, was made in 6½ minutes. It must be conceded that in making up lost time and understanding the handling of an engine Engineer Ricketts has few equals and no superior. Lewistown Free Press.

We came down on the express last night from Beavertown to Paxtonville six miles in exactly six minutes, and are now ready to pit engineer Kauffman against the devil for fast runing.

OLD PAPERS.—Last week Emanuel Sassaman of near Centreville brought to our office two old papers that are certainly interesting. They are copies of the Union Telegraph, published in New Berlin, in 1828. Its editor was Joseph Miller, evidently a red-hot Anti-Mason, as the sheet is perfectly crammed with curses loud and long against the Masonic fraternity. On its editorial page with no little flush and and flurry is the announcement of its choice for President as follows:

ELECTION FRIDAY, 31ST OF OCT. 1828.
THE PEOPLES TICKET.
Gratitude! Glory!! Patriotism!!!
Freemen, cheer the Hickory Tree,*
In storms its bows have sheltered thee
O'er Freedom's land its branches wave
'Twas planted on the Lions's Grave.
For President,
ANDREW JACKSON.
For Vice President,
JOHN C. CALHOUN.

Then follows the electoral and county tickets in which Hon. Ner Middleswarth is named for Assembly. Then comes an appeal for old Hickory as follows: "Will you join the Federalists to put down our Republican administration, which has governed in peace with wisdom and in war with the Republican Jackson, he that taimed the roaring of the British Lion." Below it came a very suggestive advertisement with a picture of two escaping negroes and a large black coffin which reads: An elegant assortment of coffins and Negro Handbills, just received at corner of Market and Plumb Streets, New Berlin. The last resort for an infamous coalition." The issue from which we take these extracts was published on the 8th of October, the result of the election which took place on the 28 of October is reported in the issue of the same paper of November 8th, 1828, which is also in our possession and from which we will publish some very interesting extracts next week.

ADAMSBURG.—According to the announcement in last week's paper, the S. S. Anniversary took place on the 30th. The procession formed at the Lutheran church and was headed by the A. C. Cornet Band, and marched to seats in the grove where Rev. Honeycutt offered prayer and read a passage of Scripture. Addresses were delivered by Rev. Stover of Middlecreek Rev. C. Aurand of Maryland, and Rev. Mumma. The report of the school which was read was in short as follows: Organized July 28, 1878, with 70 pupils who were part of the Union School. Number of scholars enrolled since organized 577, of this number 12 have died, 247 have moved away and are members of other schools, 68 were received into the Church. Present enrollment 318. The following are the Seperintendants since its organization: J. C. Specht 6 months, Adam Smith 1 year and H. I. Romig in his 8th year.

The Prohibitionists of this county will meet in convention to organize the county and elect delegates to the State Convention, Friday, Aug. 12.

Ammon Smith is learning telegraphing with D. W. Garman.

We noticed J. O. Keeler of Shamokin on our streets recently. He was here to see his little boy who had his leg broken.

CENTREVILLE.—The weather has not been very cold for several weeks, the universal cry is "awful hot" and rain every day for about a week.

Huckleberries are reported very plenty along Jack's mountain.

The oats crop has suffered considerable damage during the wet weather, especially such as had been cut, some of it so much that the quality of the grain will not be of the best.

Corn, potatoes &c., are growing nicely, and the prospect is for a large crop.

Festivals are profitable as they are well attended. Sanders' woods was alive with people last Saturday night in attendance at the festival held for the benefit of the Union Sunday School. People of all ages down to babyhood, were present. The Centreville Cornet Band rendered some very good music. The ladies in general wore white dresses, befitting the summer season. And of course the gentlemen attended dressed in the handsomest manner. No drunkeness or bad behavior was noticed which speaks well for the morality of those who attend such gatherings.

In town recently, Jas. K. Reish, W. H. Smith, Cowan; Newton Hartman, Shamokin Dam; Dr. G. C. Mohn & wife, J. S. Raudenbush, Laurelton; Mrs. Cora Smith, Ed. Hendricks and wife, New Berlin; D. Bolender, W. H. Hartman, Middleburgh; Jacob Swarm, A. Sheary, H. H. Baker, H. P. Stuck and wife, Millinburg.

BEAVERTOWN.—One of John P. Kearns's horses week before last kicked his (Kearns's) cow with such violence as to fracture her leg. The cow has been nursed carefully and her recovery is probable. To vent his unbounded (?) wrath on the horse for the rash act, Kearns sold both of his horses on the day following the occurrence. John will yet repent of his sin—selling the innocent horse with the guilty.

Ausban Rager cut his foot badly week before last.

Judge Middleswarth was thrown out of a wagon by a runaway horse last week sustaining bad bruises about his hip and elbow. He was confined to his bed a number of days and is still unable to leave the house.

Mrs. Jacob G. Snyder has been sick for a number of weeks.

Friedman & Getz's Bill horse died on Saturday.

The Lutheran Sunday School will hold a pic-nic on Saturday of this week.

Charles Gilbert has been sick with bilious feaver for the last two weeks.

Mrs. Byron Edmonds, nee Annie Royer, of Golden Corner, Ohio, is visiting her mother and sister here at present.

Rev. O. Leopold, of Fogelsville, Pa., preached in the Union church on Sunday morning a week, and, at a suitable time during the service, installed his son-in-law, Rev. Pflueger.

Frank Kern had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse by death on Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Dr. J. J. Greenhoe, of Williamstown, visited friends here last week.

Miss Annie Boyer, of Lock Haven, is staying with her sister Mrs. J. P. Freed at present.

Hattie, a daughter of John Aigler has been afflicted with sore eyes and for about a week had to be confined to a dark room. She is better now.

John P. Kearns has repainted his residence and the front of his carriage bazaar.

Mrs. William Gilbert has been confined to her bed for nearly three months. She is quite low at present.

Our cemetery is far from what it should be in appearance; why not clean it?

Arthur Specht lost a good colt by death on Saturday.

GIVE THEM A CHANCE!—That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonja, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon this for certain.
