The Middleburgh Post.

Published every Thursday.

Our friends throughout the county will oblige by sending us the news in their respective towns, villages and neighborhoods. Send us the plain facts, and we will dress them up, if need be. Our columns will always be open to those who wish to speak through them on general or local questions of public interest; but we will not hold ourself responsible for the opinions they may express.

In 1865 the National debt was $78.25 per head. Now it is less than $19.84.

S. B. Spitler, of Franklin, was reported as being seriously ill on Monday.

John P. Smith, of this place, is slowly recovering from his recent illness.

The first rain in this section for six weeks fell on Sunday and continued several days.

The lyric which cost Tennyson the most trouble was "Come into the Garden, Maud."

Edgar Poe's father was a law student, and his mother an actress named Elizabeth Arnold.

Trade dollars can now be used only for their value in silver, which is about 75 cents.

S. Weis of the Central Dry Goods store this week opened his fall stock of new goods.

Miss Emma Stuck of Selinsgrove, has been visiting her friend Miss V. Erdle of this place, the past few days.

John Francis and son George, the champion hunters of this section, on Thursday killed eight wild ducks in a few hours.

We are informed that J. W. Orwig has purchased the Kreamer property, at present occupied by W. H. Snyder. Consideration $1,200.

Mrs. E. C. Aurand has received a nice lot of hats and fancy goods and will receive another lot this week. Please call and see her stock.

Dr. S. L. VanValzah, of Watsontown, spent several days in this county last week in quest of squirrels, and on Friday was the guest of Dr. Barber.

J. W. Runkle, of the firm of Seebold & Runkle, was on Tuesday called to Spring Mills, by a telegram announcing the sudden death of his mother.

The fare for the round trip from Harrisburg to St. Louis to delegates and others who propose to attend the national encampment, G. A. R., is $20.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stetler of St. Joe county, Mich., are visiting Middleburgh relatives. Mr. Stetler is a brother of our townsman, Aaron Stetler.

The surviving members of the Twenty-Second Pennsylvania Volunteer Cavalry intend holding a reunion in Huntingdon on the 21st of the present month.

The Florida papers tell of a banana leaf two feet wide by eight feet long, and of corn-stalks twenty-seven feet in length taken from a field of eighty acres, of which they were only average specimens.

The 34th annual convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Synod of Central Pennsylvania will convene in Mifflinburg on Wednesday, September 28. The 8th annual convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the same synod will meet in New Berlin on September 27.

Some person or persons, on Sunday night stole about 600 "Stonies" belong to Daniel Bolender, sunk in the run at the east end of town. It is our opinion that a person who would steal "fish bait" would be mean, low and debased enough to steal anything. He would be niggardly enough to pawn his grandmother's bible for whisky.

J. Wes. Cornelius, of Lewisburg, who had a photograph gallery in our town the past month, took it away on Monday. Mr. C. requests us to return thanks to the citizens of Middleburg and vicinity for their liberal patronage extended to his gallery. He also informed us that he would again plant his gallery in our midst some time during next summer.

The following named Middleburghers are taking in the sights at the Constitutional Centennial, Philadelphia, this week: H. H. Grimm, A. J. Crosgrove, Wm. C. Snyder, H. S. Stetler, Frank Grimm, P. Swineford Geo. Hassinger, D. K. Haas, Herm. Hassinger, G. Alfred Schoch, W. W. Wittenmyer, and Clel. Rauch.

Chaplain—Ner B. Middleswarth.
F. & L. L.—T. H. Harter.

The School Directors, at a special meeting, on Saturday evening selected Henry S. Stetler as teacher for the High school. The directors cold not concienciously have done otherwise, as Mr. S's. record as an instructor in our High school during the past 2 terms has not only won for him the esteem of the pupils but the approbation of parents and citizens generally.

On Saturday last, the Pennsylvania Railroad's new round house, machine shops, five locomotives, one of which was a new one, and six tanks at the junction were destroyed by fire, supposed to have been of incendiary origin. Favorable winds and applications of salt saved Boyed Stickney's extensive stock of coal and shutes. The loss is estimated at $65,000.

IN LUCK.—On Monday, the 5th inst., Samuel H. Stroub received the single nomination on the Democratic ticket for County Commissioner, and the following day his attorney, F. E. Bower, received notice from the Pension Department that his pension had been increased from $2 to $24 per month. We tender our congratulations.

PROMPT PAYMENT.—By some cause unknown to me on the first of Sept. my house with neary all its contents was distroyed by fire. It had been insured in the Beavertown Mutual Fire Insurance Company. I notified the company and in a few days an adjuster was on the ground by whom the loss was adjusted to my entire satisfaction and to-day received the amount of my loss. I would very highly recommend the company to all persons who have country property to insure.

CATHARINE SEIBER.

Miserville, Sept. 7 '87.

On this (Thursday) evening, Moung Thahoo, a native of British Burmah, will lecture in the Court House, subject: "Burmah and Her People." Moung Thahoo has been in this country 6 years preparing for the work of the Master in his native land. He is now endeavoring to secure funds to return. The following is from Rev. John Harris, P. H. D., principal of Keystone Academy: Moung Thahoo has been a student with us four years. His lecture is entertaining and instructive, his delivery excellent. I know him to be a worthy man and cordially commend him to the confidence of the public." Admission 10 cents.

PATRONS, TAKE NOTICE.—All who wish to get their pictures taken had better attend to it now, for it will not be long until I will move my gallery to some other town. Please do not neglect these golden opportunities while you have them, but come at once—rain or shine. I will make you good pictures on cloudy days. Two pictures, album size, for 25cts. and a nice family group picture; in a gilt frame, ready for your parlor, for only $1.35. I have an assortment of frames to select from, some at 50cts.

Please heed this notice for delays are dangerous and you may never again get another such a chance here.

The Lewisburg Fair people have fixed Friday, September 23 as Centre county day at the fair and have made special arrangements for that day. A special train runs up as far as rising springs, leaving the Fair grounds at 5.45 p. m. of that day, and to Laurelton on Thursday. Saturday the afternoon train will be held at the Fair grounds till 2.10 p. m. Excursion rates on all trains. Round trip from Millmount, 59 cents; Laurelton, 72 cents; Coburn, $1.40. Sober shoots on Friday. $350 for trotting on Friday; $475 on Saturday and $175 on Thursday. This fair is going to be the event of this fall in this section and all should see it who can. "Jump into the wagon and we'll all take a ride" to the Fair.

The editor and wife returned from their western trip on Tuesday of this week. During our visit we hunted up all the Snyder county people, residing in Ohio, that we could conveniently reach. B. H. Edmonds, formerly of this county but now of Golden Corners, Ohio, was hauling lumber for a new house and he is now one of the young, industrious and enterprising farmers of northwestern Ohio. At Akron we came across the Moatz boys who are doing an immense insurance and real estate business and are quite well fixed. Hon. L. N. Myers is still in the washing machine business, has greatly improved the "Peerless" and is having quite a demand for them. He has, however, not yet entirely recovered from a terrible fall down an elevator shaft last winter. Charles Manbeck and wife nee Amelia Eisenhower, are living in a pleasant part of the city of Akron. Mr. Manbeck and Charles Frain are proprietors of a large grocery and provision store and are making money. Mr. Frain and wife are in Middleburgh now visiting friends. Howard Frain, also a Middleburgh boy, was at the case in the Akron daily Beacon office, where he has charge of the advertising department. His wife and child are traveling in Colorado. We found Theodore Walter in O'Neil & Dyse's dry goods store, where forty clerks are employed and he occupies one of the principal counters. He recently purchased a splendid residence in the most beautiful part of Akron. Mrs. Walter, daughter of ex-Sheriff Bolender expected to start for Pennsylvania this week on a visit. W. F. Walter, who is in the same store with his brother Theodore, is steadily working himself into the good graces of his employers and if industry, pluck, and the obedience of an iron clad code of christian morals count, the "Colonel" will get there.

BEAVERTOWN—The Reformed harvest service on Thursday were well attended. Rev. W. G. Engle, of Uniontown, preached an appropriate discours at 10 o'clock a. m. He was followed in an address by Rev. L. D. Steckel, of Mifflinburg. In the afternoon addresses were made by Prof. William Moyer, of Freeburg, Rev. Steckel and Dr. Vanvalzah, of Watsontown. On account of high (?) official duties the writer was not present.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stetler and Mrs. Henry Wagner and her daughter, all of St. Joe county, Michigan are visiting in town. The women are sisters of our townsmen Reuben and Abner Aigler and natives of Beavertown. They have not been here for about twenty years.

Dr. J. T. Strohecker has repainted his residence.

Aaron Hassinger has raised about 400 bushels of potatoes this summer.

The new Lutheran congregation will hold harvest services next Sunday instead of last Sunday as stated in last week's report.

James Wetzel has raised his new house.

Farmers in this community have been delayed in sowing their wheat by the drouth. They will doubtless be very busy when the weather again becomes favorable.

Peter Aigler is dangerously sick with bilious fever.

The singing class of the new Lutheran congregation sang at Paxtonville on Saturday evening. It is led by A. M. Carpenter.

A number of our citizens will view the sights at the State Fair and Constitutional Centenial this week.

The officers of the different congregations composing Rev. Pflueger's charge met in council in the Beavertown church on Saturday to complete measures previously inaugurated to purchase a parsonage for the charge. Of the several houses offered them, they decided to purchase Samuel Welk's, which he offers for $1100.

Mrs. William Beaver fell down stairs this (Tuesday) morning and badly sprained her arm.

Aaron Bickel moved to West Beaver. CITIZENS.

CENTREVILLE.—The school directors had a meeting on Saturday and employed the following teachers: Town school A. L. Spangler and H. A. Walter. Ocker's, S. G. Ocker, Hartman's Chas. E. Spangler. Berge's A. B. Sheary. Hartman's to be supplied. The schools will open Oct. 10th. Salary $22,00 per month.

Artist A. L. Bowersox of Dayton, O., visited parents and friends here. He looks well and harty.

Daniel Herman did Lewisburg a business visit last week.

The nights are cool here, consequently the windows are lower than usual.

Calvin F. Berger shed the brightness of his countenance on his priends in Port Trevorton recently.

Merchants C. M. Showers, Dr. Sampsel and J. H. Hartman, the former accompanied by his better half, are in Philadelphia taking in the Constitutional Centenial, at the same time laying in their stock of fall and winter goods. Squire Hartman will also visit New York.

In town during the past week. W. P. Thomas, Lewisburg. Mrs. E. C. Aurand, Mrs. M. Z. Steininger, Mrs. J. W. Runkel, Miss Minnie Reichly, Middleburgh. Y. H. Wagner, Esq., Kratzerville. Paul Benfer, Beaver Springs. H. H. Schoch, Selinsgrove. D. F. Bingman, J. T. Beckhat, Winfield. John Houtz, Freeburg. Serenus Bowersox, Mifflinburg. J. C. Swineford, Millmont. E. K. Troutman, Spring Creek.

Positively the largest and best selected stock of clothing in Snyder county will be found at Dreifuss Bros Selinsgrove, Pa.

Unlaundried shirts at Dreifuss Bros. for 35 cents. Good working panis at 75 cents.

MIDDLECREEK.—Most all the farmers are through sowing, and quite a number have began cutting corn.

Swartz & Shultz are back again at their old stand with their planing machines.

A very agreeable surprise party was given to W. A. T. Ulsh in which most of the members of the St. Paul's congregation participated.

Harry Krebs of Centre county was visiting friends in this vicinity during last week.

A. H. Ulsh has put new machinery into his mill with which he is able to make flour containing both the good qualities of roller and stone flour.

Mr. Bademan was the guest of H. H. Herbster on Wednesday and Thursday.

On Saturday a Sunday School pic nic will be held at the Reformed church, about two miles north of McClure.

Chestnuts will be scarce this fall.

Philip Manbeck, the boss potato raiser, will have not less than six hundred bushels this fall.

ADAMSBURG.—The long looked and wished for rain has come at last.

Last week the steam saw mill of Samuel Werner was entirely destroyed by fire. No insurance. The loss falls heavily on Mr. W.

Rev. J. E. Honecoet returned from his trip to Gold Hill, North Carolina. His nephew, B. Eisenhower, came with him and will remain here till spring.

Thus far the School Directors could not agree on teachers for second and third grade of the town school. The High school will be taught by Prof. I. N. Johns.

S. A. Wetzel of Beavertown, last week, put the slate roof on the Reformed parsonage.

The plasterers are at work on J. C. Schambach's new house.

Art. Beaver and Prof. Dawson spent a few hours in this place on Sunday.

J. D. R. Beaver is spending a week with friends at this place. Mr. B. is employed by Wm. Boyer at Beech Creek, Clinton county.

Helfrich & Smith have received a car load of salt.

Isaac Wetzel spent a day at Harrisburg last week.

Squirrels are scarce in this part of the country.

WANTED.—10,000 pounds of wool at Dreifuss Bros., Selinsgrove, Pa.

Another car-load of 18 inch No. 1, pine shingles. Price $5.00. Call at this office.

Positively the only reliable, one-price Clothing House in Snyder county will be found at Dreifuss Bros.

We can furnish you with a better fitting suit for less money than any tailor can afford to make.

Dreifuss Bros.

To any person buying $5.00 worth of goods of us we will pay half his railroad fare to Selinsgrove from any part of the county, and if you buy a bill of $10 from us we will pay your entire fare from any part of the county to Selinsgrove and return.

Dreifuss Bros.

I had kidney disorder and say for the good of others that Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me. Rev. S.C. Chandler, Lebanon Springs, N. Y. I had Stone in the Bladder and Gravel in the Kidneys. I used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and am now well. E. D. Parsons, Rochester, N. Y. Price $1. Send 2 cent stamp to Dr. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Y., for a book on Kidney, Liver and Blood disorders. Mention this paper.

IN BRIEF, AND TO THE POINT.—Dyspepsia is dreadful. Disordered liver is misery. Indigestion is a foe to good nature.

The human digestive apparatus is one of the most complicated and wonderful things in existence. It is easily put out of order.

Greasy food, tough food, sloppy food. bad cookery, mental worry, late hours, irregular habits, and many other things which ought not to be, have made the American people a nation of dyspeptics.

But Green's August Flower has done a wonderful work in reforming this sad business and making the American people so healthy that they can enjoy their meals and be happy.

Remember:—No happiness without health. But Green's August Flower brings health and happiness to the dyspeptic. Ask your druggist for a bottle. Seventy-five cents.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

MARRIED.
