Derstine's photograph gallery, Lewistown, has grown in popularity until his fame as an artist is known all over the Commonwealth. The positions of his subjects are always easy, the outlines distinct and the finish excellent. No more desirable gift than a good photograph to a friend for Christmas can be procured, and the equal of Derstine's work cannot be secured this side of Philadelphia and at no less than double the price.

F. G. Franciscus' Choir from Lewistown furnished the music for the dedication of the Lutheran Church at McClure last Sunday. Their music is very highly spoken of. Mr. Franciscus, like in matters of business, never does things by halves, and in order to have a full chorus he sent a special train to Middleburgh on Sunday morning to convey Miss Carrie Walker, one of the singers, to McClure.

I give honor to whom it is due. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy cured me of Bright's disease and Gravel. Four of the best physician had failed to relieve me. I have recommended it to scores of people with like success, and know it will cure all who try it.—Mrs. E. P. Misner, Burg Hill, O. Send 2-c stamp to Dr. Kennedy, Rondout, N. Next Monday commences the regular term of December Court. Those owing us on subscription and advertising will confer us a special favor by leaving us at least a portion of their indebetdness and thereby avoiding the necesity of our collector calling on them on his annual rounds. We are getting too much on our books and too little in our pocket for comfort and safety and we shall continue to insist on the settlement of accounts until we can look our ledger in the face without getting scared.

Last week the farm hands of Henry Aurand in Middlecreek township, while bedding the horses found a glove in the straw. A search was instigated which soon resulted in the finding of several pair of gloves, three balls of ribbon and two horse blankets. Word was sent to Seebold & Runkle who went down and recognized the goods as articles stolen from their store several months ago. The two blankets belonged to treasurer Charles Bolender, and were stolen from his barn the same night the burglary was committed. It is evident that the burglars had made a halt at Mr. Aurand's barn and either repacked or stored their boodle.

Brockway, Coots & Gill's Boston Company produced the Temperance Drama "Ten Nights in a Bar-room" in Seebold's Hall on Thursday night of last week. The company is decidedly above the average and their rendition of this famous drama was the finest we ever saw. Had our people known this troupe, nothing would have prevented an enormous crowd, but they have been fooled so often with snyde troupes that they are begining to suspicion even genuine articles as being spurious. This troupe will hereafter need no further advertisement than the simple announcement of their appearance among us to secure for them a full house.

Lewis King who has been spending several weeks in our town, has been manifesting a very turbulent temper of late—insulting people and inviting quarrels on every hand. There was a time, it is said, when Louie's rants would terrorize the whole town, but that was years ago. On Saturday he started on one of his old-time rampages, evidently intending to paint the town in the Dutchman's favorite hue. He got as far as the depot where he knocked down a wool-peddler, and then took it into his head to whip Samuel Bowen. Here is where Louie ran amuck. Sam soon had his Westinghouse air-break at work and shut off the "terror's" wind. Louie made up his mind that the time of his departure was at hand, and shaking the dust from his feet, was soon seen counting ties in the direction of Penns township where he is a public charge.

CHURCH DEDICATION.—In the early part of the present year it occurred to Rev. S. Aurand, Pastor of Middleburgh charge, that a new church should be erected in the county seat for the Evangelical people. This branch of the church has been operating in the county for many years, but never built a church in Middleburgh. About seven month ago a lot was purchased, and on the 6th of this month the chapel was so far completed as to be dedicated. The building is a frame structure 38x28 feet, a neat comfortable room with a seating capacity of a about 225. The total cost, so far compleded, including the lot, is about $900. It is the purpose of the congregation to erect a main building fronting the street as soon as practicable. Bish. Dubs of Cleveland, Ohio preached on Monday evening to an overflowing audience in the Court House, and the dedicatory sermon on Tuesday forenoon in the chapel. An effert was made to liquidate the remaining debt, but there still remains a balance of about $250. The chapel was dedicated as "Trinity chapel" of the Evangelical Association of Middleburgh, Pa. The small membership here feel themselves under obligations to their friends and the community for their timely aid.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

"Christ's" Evangelical Lutheran church of McClure, Snyder county was on Sunday dedicated to the Triune God in the presence of a large concourse of people. The programme as formerly announced was carried out in full. On Thursday evening prior to the dedication Rev. J. C. Mumma of Adamsburg preached an able sermon. On Friday Rev. M. L. Deitzler of Aaronsburg preached to attentive audience also Rev. N. Young of the Evangelical church of Beavertown in the evening of the same day. On Saturday at 2 P. M. Rev J. M. Landis of the Reformed church of Adamsburg and on Saturday evening Rev. L. E. Furst of New Berlin, President of the Central Synod preached fine sermons to crowded houses. On Sunday Dr. Born, of the Messionary Institute, Selinsgrove, preached in the new church and Rev. Deitzler of Aaronsburg filled the pulpit in the Evangelical church. The dedicatory services were performed by Rev. Furst on Sunday forenoon. The cost of the new church was about $2000 in round numbers, and the entire debt was liquidated when the dedication took place. Mr. F. G. Franciscus' choir of Lewistown furnished the music for the occasion and their effort was highly commented upon. X.

SNYDER COUNTY AWAKE!—No doubt you are thinking of Holiday presents, if so, go early to Lewistown, and sit far a picture, at Derstin's popular gallery, you can't please your friends better, than to present them with a well finished picture. If you have already had a negative taken send for duplicates. Write for prices.

WHAT AM I TO DO? The symptoms of Biliousness are unhappily but too well known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A Bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, alas, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and diarrhea or Constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often Hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure ry Green's August Flower, it cost but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.

We take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of J. R. Smith & Co., Milton, in this issue. They claim to be the proprietors of the largest Furniture and Carpet Store in Central Pennsylvania, and a visit to their establishment will at once expell any skeptical ideas you may entertain in regard to the enormity of their stock and the extent of their business. It is a little world of its own—comprising everything that is required to "fit up" the humblest cabin or the costliest palace. The grandure and magnificence of their stock is simply bewildering and the whole is as good as a museum. Their stock of carpets is unsurpassed in the taste of its selection and hardly in extent in the largest cities, while the enormous building is perfectly crammed with furniture from cellar to garret. They sell at extraordinary low figures, and this fact, coupled with the advantages offered in their advertisement will afford our people extraordinary opportunities.

BEAVERTOWN.—Bold Stricker has been confined to a sick room for several months. He has fallen a victim to consumption. His condition at this writing is not at all favorable.

Miss Laura Riegle, who has been living with her uncle at Bernadotte, Illinois for over a year, returned home last week.

William Fall has succeeded in raising the two heaviest porkers in this community for this fall's butchering season. They weighed respectively 439 and 409 pounds. William's head is now worthy of a crown.

Henry Kern has built a new house and barn along the road leading from the plaining mill to his residence during the summer. His son Frank occupied the premises last week.

The writer is in receipt of a comely copy of "Smull's Legislative Hand Book," for which he returns sincere thenks to the donor, Hon. A. S. Helfrich.

Mrs. Wilson Gilbert is very low with comsumption.

John Hetrick has sold a building lot to Daniel and Grant Middleswarth in the west suburb of town. They have already hauled the stones for a new house, which they intend to erect next summer.

Wilson Aigler has completed the cellar wall for a new house and Charles Wetzel has excavated the cellar for one.

Vertie, a daughter of Nathan Freed is on the sick list.

John W. Bingaman has opened a store in his residence.

Are the interesting news of this township all reported in my communications? If not, why don't you inform the writer?

Mrs. William H. Specht has been very seriously sick. She has nearly recovered.
