Nearly all the indebtedness incurred by the Middleburgh charge of the Evangelical Church in the erection of their new edefice are liquidated. This speaks well for the Church in general and the untiring efferts of the pastor, Rev. Aurand, in particular who has a remarkable record in this city. This is the tenth church he has built—making himself personally responsible for the payment of nearly every one of them.

Preston, a 16 year-old son of James Kelley, is suffering terribly with a knee. Several months ago the young man fell and sprained his left at the knee. Though he suffered for some time after from the effects of the fall, the pain gradually left him and he suffered no inconvenience from it until a few weeks ago when it began to swell and finally broke. He is now confined to his bed and rendered almost helpless.

The one hundred million dollars mortgage just filed in the Recorder's office, this county, by Messrs [illegible] & [illegible], attorneys for the Reading Railroad Company is a ponderous document. It contains between five and seven hundred thousand words, [illegible] 1680 pages in print, and will take [illegible] months of solid work for one man to record. Recorder Duck will be found at his desk from sun to sun during hot summer days fanning himself with a goose-quill. Go in, Henny.

Messrs Spitler & Schambach, manufacturers of rustic chairs will ship a carload of their ware to Danville and Bloomsburg this week where there appears to be a great demand for the article. They undoubtedly manufacture the most durable and dollar for dollar the most durable chair made. Why? Because they manufactured in a small way and the demand for the article is so much increasing that it is taxing their utmost ability to supply the demand. Enterprise deserves success and these young men have it in so large a degree that success is certain to follow their efforts.

MUSICAL COLLEGE.—The 33d Session of the Musical School at Freeburg will open on Monday, April 30. An eminent lady from Philadelphia has been engaged as principal. Address,

F. C. MOYER,

A. K. Gift, Esq., met with an accident on Saturday that might have cost him his life. He had been driving along the public road west of town in a truck wagon when his horse began to frisk and caper and suddenly started off like an arrow, striking a post with the front wheel and breaking the shafts. The jar was forcible enough to throw Mr. Gift out and he landed on his neck and right shoulder—brusing him considerable, from which he is confined to his house. The horse ran a short distance and then came walking into town looking as sedate as though he were at the head of a funeral.

NEW PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY.—The undersigned, having opened a photograph gallery in Franklin, (Middleburgh depot) desires to inform the public that he will be prepared to furnish cabinets at $1.75 per dozen, four tin types for 50 cents, two cabinet size tin types for 50 cents, and all other work according. Family groupes 11x14 inches $8.00 per dozen. All sizes and styles of frames constantly on hand. Pictures enlarged to all sizes; views of residences a specialty. My work will speak for itself—Call and see it.

April 12, '88. 2w.

The entertainment of the Middleburgh public schools in Seebold's Hall on Friday evening of last week was a most successful affair, and not only reflected much credit on Mr. Henry Stettler and Miss Carrie Walker, the teachers, but on the pupils themselves. Every performance evidenced thorough instruction and almost perfect drill. Some of the performances were extraordinary, but all so clever that to discriminate between any would be doing injustice to all. The entertainment closed a most successful term of school. Miss Walker returned to her home at Shippensburg, on Saturday, accompanied by the well wishes of a hosts of friends here, who have learned to know and love her. Mr. Stetler as will be seen by a notice elswhere, will remain with us and open a spring term, April 30.

TO THE TEACHERS OF SNYDER CO. AND PUPILS OF OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—At the last session of the Snyder county Teachers Institute, the undersigned were appointed a committee to arrange with our teachers and educators to attend the unveiling of the monument to be erected to the memory of Prof. W. H. Dill, May 1. in the Evergreen Cemetery at Freeburg. In Consultation with the Monument Committee we have learned that all the arrangements are completed. We respectfully request you to devote this day to the memory of our illustrious and departed fellow teacher. All those who have at any time been engaged in teaching are urged to attend. Eminent Speakers have been engaged for the occasion. You are requested to meet in the Freeburg Academy at 9½ o'clock, A. M., where we will meet you and complete the arrangements to join the procession.

PIANOS, ORGANS AND SEWING MACHINES.—C. C. Seebold, the popular Sewing Machine dealer is adding to his line of goods, organs and pianos, and has now on exhibition at his room on Main Street undoubtedly the finest organ ever brought to this county. It is manufactured by Story & Clark, Chicago, Ill., whose makes they are introducing. The organ is not only exceedingly rich and beautiful in style and finish but in tone as well, exquisitely carved with genuine French veneer panels. Under the canopy is a heavy bevel plate mirror 18x20 inches, which adds great value and beauty to the case. It has seven sets of reeds—four sets of 2½ octaves each, two sets of 3 octaves each, and one set of very powerful double Sub Bass reeds. It has fifteen nickle-stops and is an all-round beauty. It will pay you to stop in and see it. He is also handling the W. W. Kimbell, organ, and all other grades of popular makes from $40 upward. In pianos he handles none but the most stylish and reliable makes, surpassing in sweetness and melody the cheaper grades flooded around by snide dealers—and discounting them at their own prices. It is wonderful what reductions have taken place in the price of musical instruments during the last few years, and the place to get the full benefit of this is at Mr. Seebold's show room. He is also general agent for the White Sewing Machine, which hardly needs any recommodation from us—as no family outfit, in this section of the state is considered complete without a White Sewing Machine. It is more than holding its own with other machines—adding new victories to its record at every contest, and discounting all competitors in utility style and wear. Armed with its agency the dealer fears no oposition, can safely invite all competition and conscienciously denounce cruel imposition. Every instrument and machine is guaranteed for from five to eight years. Mr. Seebold has secured Mr. Frank Lahr an experienced dealer and skilled musician, who will assist in supplying the trade which opens very promisingly before them.

TO THE MEMBERS of The G. A. R. Sons of Veterans, P. O. S. A. and Citizens of Snyder and adjoining Counties.—The Major Dill Monument Association are happy to announce that the monument to be erected to the memory of Maj. W. H. Dill will be ready for the unveiling ceremonies May 1, the second anniversary of his death. We have examined the medallion which will be placed in the monument and consider it an excellent likeness of the man. We have secured Dr. E. E. Higbee, Sup't of Public Instruction to deliver the educational address, and Adjutant General Hastings, a member of General Beaver's Cabinet, to deliver the Military address. The names of the gentlemen who will speak of the deceased as an attorney, citizen and orator will be announced in due time. Governor Beaver has consented to be present if his official duties will permit him to do so. We urge you to have your contributions for the monument ready at the day of unvailing, or send them to Rev. J. F. Wampole, acting treasurer of the association. Prompt action is desirable as the time is near at hand.

ENTERTAINMENT.—Mr. A. L. Spangler Principal of the Centreville Grammar School, has closed his school with a grand entertainment, entiled, "The Lily of the Valley."

The room had been beatifully decorated, and an ample stage in a theatrical manner had been erected, to suit the occasion. The exercises for the entertainment were of such a manner that was instructive, humorous and highly enjoyable. Mr. Winegardner the boss scholar, recited several recitations which brought the house down every time. He is now styled the "humorous orator." Infact every part was performed in the most skillful manner, the excercises lasted fully three hours. The parents can feel proud of their children, who were instructed by the able and competent teacher, whose instructions are of the most practical character. His management for such an occasion, and his work in the school room are very complimentary.

Music was rendered by the orchestra with Prof. Sollie Steininger, "The nightengale of music" from Middlecreek, as manager. Sollie can handle the violin to perfection, and are always glad to see him among us.

We are sorry to see Ammon leave us as he is a firstrate fellow and always ready and willing to get up something new.

MIDDLECREEK.—Oats will be a late crop in our section, as only a little is plowed yet.

Aumiller Bros. have finished the job of sawing Chas. Maurers' timber and have again removed the saw-mill to its old place on there property.

Oscar Shultz was very unlucky last week while bolting out some lathe wood he got his hand into the circular saw and the two middle fingers cut off. Dr. Smith dressed the hand and at this writing he is doing as well as can be expected.

Communion services held by Rev. Pileuger at the St. John's church, were well attended last Sunday.

John Riegle, of whome mention was made several weeks ago as having left for Bellevue, Ohio, is back again. John says: "ken west fur mich."

Aaron Manbeck, who had been teaching near Three Rivers, Mich., this past winter, is at home again to work on his fathers farm this summer.

As flitings are about over I will give a list where some may be found: James Snook in Geo. Goss' house, vacated by Emanuel Peters. Abe Keister in Mrs. Lydia Weader's house. Reuben Steininger in Abe Weader's house. Andrew Romig on Dan. Stuck's property. Wm. Knepp in his old place near Benfer's saw-mill. Lewis Manbeck in his new house. Wash Hackenburg on Mrs. Anna Manbeck's property. Henry Maurer on Michael Lepley's property.

CENTREVILLE.—Our public schools have closed. The town schools had an entertainment on Friday evening, April 6th. The exercises consisted of Dialogues, Resitations, Tableaux, Music &c. The admission fee was 5 and 10 cents. The house was crowded. The small boy has now stored his books in the garret and is looking for fish bait.

W. A. Mohn was out in the coal regions last week selling Electic Medicine.

How do you like your new home.

Quite a number of new houses will be erected in town during the coming summer.

House cleaning and garden making will now be in order.

Miss Sue Reichly spent a week in Winfield recently.

Spring fever will soon be prevalent.

R. B. Fessler went to the state of Ohio last week.

John Mohn was in Winfield on business on the 4th.

The white washing brigade is getting things in shape for an onslaught on fences and outhouses.

Prof. C. E. Spangler will leave this week for the state of Ohio.

S. F. Sheary spent several days this week in Lewisburg and vicinity.

C. Walter, Gen. agent of the Electic Medicine, registered in Williamsport several days this week.

Misses Amanda & Emma Walter did Middleburgh a visit on Saturday.

Recently in town: T. N. Reber, Lewisburg; J. M. Miller, Winfield; Oscar Alexander, Bloomsburg; Dr. D. H. Coover, Harrisburg; D. F. Bingman, Vicksburg, Mrs. Ex-Sheriff Reichly, Middleburgh; R. Straub, Vicksburg; David Snyder, Dry Valley X Roads; Mrs. S. W. Hartman and son, Selinsgrove; Harry Hartley, Bloomsburg; S. Steininger, Middlecreek; Simon Mader and W. H. Heddings, Mifflinburg.

Troxelville news too late for this week.

Mrs. John S. Hassinger attended the Tennis—Hassenplug wedding at Philadelphia on 3d inst.

Charles Kiechner, 411 Applegate St. Phila., Pa., writes us that the second annual reunion of the 184th Regiment P. V. will be held at Altoona, Pa., on May 10th. Sdyder county boys belonging to the regiment will take notice.

Capt G. W. Ryan Post, G. A. R. of Middleburgh will have a Lunch festival in Seebold's Hall on Saturday evening, April 21st, which will be conducted as follows: All ladies who are friendly disposed toward the G. A. R. married or single, old or young, are requested to prepare a lunch for two persons, and enclose it in a neat package; with her name inside the package, and bring the same to the Hall on Saturday afternoon the 21st no later than six o'clock. These lunches will then be sold at auction to the gentlemen present, and after the sale has closed, each purchaser will open the package and eat the lunch with the lady whose name is enclosed. There will also be a camp-fire, and other entertaining exercises. All are cordially invited to attend and enjoy the fun.

Admittance free. Doors opened at 7 o'clock.
