Candidate Cards.

CONGRESS.

I am a candidate for re-election to Congress. ust respectfully submit my candidacy to the publicans of Snyder county and request their pport. THAD M. MAHON.

EDITOR WAGENSELLER:—I have decided to seek e suffrage of the people of Snyder county in candidacy for election to the 55th Congress. er mature deliberation. I have arrived at this termination. I will add that I am entirely cere, am no man's candidate, will compromise on no terms whatsoever and propose to use honorable means to obtain the endorsement my friends in the county and afterward to secure the nomination in the district. My years experience and observation in Washington ve familiarized me with the various duties of congressman that will enable me to be of immediate service to my constituents. The next ngress will be one of vast importance and in ter that Snyder county might be fully represented a man from the county conversant with representative's duties should be selected. yder county is entitled to the nomination and respectfully solicit her favor.
EDWIN S ARNOLD.
ashington, D. C.

STATE SENATOR.

TO MY FELLOW REPUBLICANS:—

I herewith most spectfully submit myself as a candidate for ate Senator, subject to the rules and usages the Republican Party. In this connection I sire to state, that if nominated and elected to e honorable position, I pledge myself to represent my constituents to the best of my ability. shall be my highest ambition to represent em honestly and faithfully. My party loyalty s never been brought into question; the regar nominees of the party have always received y ardent and unqualified support, in no politi- campaign have I ever deserted the standard Republicanism, and when it suffered defeat it as through no agency of mine, and as I have ood in the past I pledge myself for the future. have served my country on the tented field hen with hundreds of thousands of brave and atriotic American citizens, we offered our ong manhood upon the country's altar and any of them sealed their devotion to the cause liberty and union with their heart's best blood. Without egotism I can say my war record is a ood one, and I am proud to say that I was a oldier in the war for the Union. I have twice een the Senitorial standard bearer and although I polled many more votes than the state icket the Democratic majority was too strong o overcome, I was nominated as a forlorn hope. recepted the trust and now that the majority is Republican in the district, I feel that my claims or the nomination at this time should be considered by all, and my years are such that if I am ever to represent the district in the Senate, this will be the time.—Earnestly soliciting the support of my fellow citizens. I have the honor to remain.

Yours, very truly,
B. F. WAGENSELLER.

ED POST:—Having been Honored by the Republicans of Snyder county with the nomination for State Senator in 1892, for which I am very greatful, and having used every honorable means at the district conferences, lasting five weeks, and being the longest and hardest fought contest ever known in our Senatorial district. At last conceeding to the claims of Northumberland county, which were first Northumberland county, never had a nomination in the district. Second, That Northumberland county polled more Republican votes than Union and Snyder together. And realizing the fact, that a nomination must be made soon, or the chances of the whole district would be jeopardized and by the advice of friends and representative Republicans of Snyder county, who attended the Conferences and also from Republicans from all parts of the county, who knew the situation. I instructed my Conferees to vote for our present Senator, the Hon. Wm. H. Hackenburg, which would bring our county in line for the district nomination in 1896. The time is approaching when the Republicans of Snyder county will be called on to make another nomination, and knowing the fact that Union and Northumberland counties have each been honored, and each by the conferees of Snyder county. It is quite natural to suppose Snyder county's choice should get the district nomination, never having heard of any disaproval of my course in 1892, but on the other hand having been commended. I would respectfully ask the Republicans of Snyder Co. to give me a second nomination, subject to the rules of our party, and if elected, will use every endeavor to serve my constituents to the best of my ability. Respectfully Submitted.
ED. M. HUMMEL.

I respectfully announce myself as a candidate for State Senator at the next Republican Primary Election. I have heretofore had the honor of representing Snyder county in the State Legislature, and the record of my course there fully shows that in all my actions, I have invariably consulted the interest of my people, as is shown in all the legislation that passed while I was a member. On all school laws, road laws, fish laws, and in short I was the main counselor and true supporter who brought about the law that gave the children of our Commonwealth free text books in our common schools. I was a faithful supporter of the law that gave relief to the farmer by increasing the school appropriation from two millions to five millions—he appropriation that the people are to pay the tax. I have been a warm friend of the soldier and served by word, but also to the extent of my power. If through your aid as voters I succeeded this the nomination and election as Senator for this district, I promise you a faithful discharge of the duties devolving upon me with special reference to the interests of Snyder county—Trusting that you will feel [illegible] in casting your ballot for me, as well as rendering me such other support as you may [illegible] in command, I remain

Your obedient [illegible]

TELL-TALE FACES.

PINCHED AND CAREWORN,

As Worn by Many American Women.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.]

The "tell-tale face" is worn by many American women, and is a symptom of symptoms, a signal of distress.

While women do all in their power to hide their condition, the practised eye soon detects the trouble.

When pains and aches are felt in every part of the body, when faintness, dizziness, and that bearing-down feeling prevail, when loss of sleep and appetite are reducing flesh daily, when the society of friends is irksome, and the hopeless "blues" predominate, then the face is pinched, haggard, and careworn, and prompt relief is necessary, or a beautiful life will be sacrificed.

An American woman, Lydia E. Pinkham, a student of women and their diseases, twenty years ago succeeded in producing an absolute cure for all diseases of women. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound stands to-day as it did then, pre-eminent.

Mrs. H. Wampler, of Barabo, Wis., whose letter we were permitted to publish last year, writes that she hopes Mrs. Pinkham will continue to use her name, as the publication in newspapers of the account of her own wonderful cure and relief from years of misery has been the means of induducing many suffering women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and become well like herself. Mrs. Wampler feels, and rightly, too, that in this way she is doing a great good.
