BRILLIANT FESTIVITIES.

Events of National Interest at Omaha in October—Excursions Are All Westbound.

To the Citizens of Pennsylvania:—The Trans-Mississippi and International Exposition at Omaha has set apart the 5th day of October, 1898, as Pennsylvania Day.

The citizens of Nebraska who claim Pennsylvania as their native state have organized a Pennsylvania Club in the city of Omaha. This club has at the present time about one thousand members, and there are over ten thousand native Pennsylvanians residing in Nebraska.

The Pennsylvania Club members send greeting to their fellows in the Keystone State, and ask them to attend the Exposition on the 5th of October; the day following, the Club will hold in the city park a grand basket picnic for all Pennsylvanians who may wish to participate. Many prominent citizens have signified their intention to attend, and orators of national reputation will deliver addresses. We are assured that Governor Hastings and his staff will be present at that time.

The Exposition is well worthy of a visit. It surpasses all other Expositions except the World's Fair, and in some of its features is even more beautiful. It is filled with wonderful exhibits of the plains and mountains and the Trans-Mississippi country. During the week of October 5th, in addition to the other attractions, there will be a show of live stock, gathered from all parts of the United States, which in variety and importance cannot be excelled. There will be an assemblage of over one thousand Indians gathered from the tribes of the west, who will participate in war dances, sham battles, sports and contests of physicial endurance. Their native villages have been transplanted upon the Exposition ground.

During that week, the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben will hold their Grand Mardi-Gras festival. On Tuesday night they will give their annual parade of over forty floats, said to surpass anything of the kind ever attempted. Thursday night, the wonderful electric street procession can be seen, and Friday night the ball presided over by the King and Queen of the Ak-Sar-Bens will be patronized by the society people of western cities.

The railroads have granted a rate of one fare for the round trip. Good accommodations can be had in the city at from $1 to $2.50 per day. Information can be had on application to the Pennsylvania Headquarters as to hotels and boarding house rates.

The club will do all in its power to make your stay in the city comfortable and pleasant, and extends to you a hearty invitation to be present, and promises you a warm welcome.

Neitz for change of air and scenery went to Columbia via Canal.....Miss Clara and Lena Bingaman, and Maud Charles enjoyed a drived to McKees Sunday P. M.....Monday of last week, A. W. Aucker took ill quiet suddenly, suffered intense pain all night and Tuesday morning our people were startled by a report that Mr. Aucker was poisoned. He was in a critical condition for a few days, but under the treatment of Old Reliable Dr. J. O. Nipple, Aucker recovered .....Henry Stepp, Williamsport, Stewart Hall Mahontongo, Dr. Bogar, and wife, and Mrs. Jacob Bogar Herndon, Chas. Boger and wife Shamokin, Dave Went and E. E. Kelly, Sunbury, Jerome Moyer, Dundore Sundayed in town..... Wm. Charles, son of our constable, is spending a few days in Sunbury .....W. I. Neitz, after a few months in the mountains of Potter County as a timber skidder, return- to his home, Saturday.....Willie Flanders is the third person bitten by Klock's dog. The dog is a vicious animal and although Mr. Klock has been frequently warned the dog is still at large. Sunday morning young Flanders went to Klock's home to buy milk when the dog attacked him and bit him several times about the face and body .....Mr. Thomas of near Freeburg visited his sister Mrs. Schnee, during the week.....Howard Shambach and daughter, Isaiah Bowersox, wife and son of Paxtonville enjoyed the hospitality of our well known and artistic blacksmith, N. F. Shambach and family.....Park Shambach and Carrie Keller, with Jennie Schrawder as an alternate, are delegates to represent the Olive U. E. S. S. and K. L. C. Shambach, Tom Bogar, Bert Neitz and Dr. Sheets Kelly drove to Sunbury Monday of last week to see the return of the soldier boys ... Park Shambach was the possessor of a good nature, and also of a good fish-spear, and we are sorry that last Saturday night he lost both. Not being able to catch a fish he was after, in a moment of anger, Park jumped into the river. He missed the fish, broke the spear, but was successful in catching a heavy cold.....Corn husking and coal hauling were the cause of a great disappointment to many of our folks last Saturday. They formed themselves into two large parties, and anticipated a big time in Mahantongo, fishing, but J. D. Bogar, Jr., and James Lenig, Sr., said, "Business before pleasure".... Considering the warm arguments, our late school board meetings were quite breezy....A certain woman being seen last week in one of our back streets, said she was going to the cornfield for an apron full of corn. On her return, however, an accident happened. The strings of her apron tore, and lo! instead of corn falling to the ground, a lot of fine large quinces appeared. We have often seen two or more different kinds of fruit on one tree, but, never knew that quinces grew on corn stalks. Lookout, woman.....Jno. Hoover is in Berwick working for the Wooden Jackson Company.

With one bloody war over we now face another one—the football season is here.

Additional Locals.

Miss Belle Bibighaus of Mifflinburg is visiting Mrs. Catherine Bower.

William Swartz, who had been employed at the Jacobs House, Mifflintown, returned home last week.

John Napp was brought to jail Saturday night on a charge of having been one of the parties to steal Reuben Weirick's meat. There will be two "stolen meat" cases at court next week.

Nick Walter, whose corret name is Mathias Fisch, a native of Prussia, Germany, says he proposes to make his home in Middleburg. He is gettimg an inheritance from his father and his uncle aggregating $6000.

Schoch and Stahlnecker have been in business less than a year but they have learned the value of advertising. They have their entire building full of stoves and they want the people to know they are in business. See their ad. on last page.

Waynesboro, Franklin county, is threatened with a water famine. The continued drought of the past month has lowered the water in the mountain streams by which the town is supplied, to such an extent that the creek water had to be relied upon.

The Bailey boys, near Pallas, have erected their Sorghum mill and have made half a barrel of the finest grade of molasses from a small patch of cane. Having succeeded so well they expect to do a large business in this line next season as their evaporator has the capacity of fifty gallens of molasses per day.

David M. Mills, a veteran of the Mexican and civil wars, was instantly killed near Rodman, Blair Co., Friday morning. He was aged about 77 years, and had left his home near Rodman and was walking down the track, when he was overtaken by a draft of cars with fatal results. He is survived by an aged wife.

The Grand Oratorio of the "Creation" will be rendered in the Selin's Grove Opera House on the evenings of September 29 and 30, by the Hadyn Choral Society of Selin's Grove and Freeburg, assisted by eminent vocal soloists from Boston, New York and Scranton. A great Musical time is expected in Selin's Grove on this occasion.

Corporal Herbert Harris, son of President Harris of Bucknell University, was in town last week visiting in company with Sergeant H. Harris Bower, Co. L., 5th Regt. Pennsylvania Volunteers. Corporal Harris had been seriously ill with typhoid fever at Camp Alger, but is now fully recovered. Sergeant Bower is home on a 30 days' furlough and gives evidence of having endured camp life very well. We were pleased to have a chat with these military heroes and Uncle Sam can well be proud of these non-commissioned officers.

Ulsh's Corn Roaster.

The Franklin Milling Company have erected a corn roaster near the mill which is propelled by the machinery in the mill. The roaster consists of a circular tank revolving upon open pipes at each end for axes. The tank is surrounded on all sides and covered over the top with brick, etc., leaving only the front open to put in the corn and remove it and to regulate the fire. The device is the result of Mr. Ulsh's own ingenuity and is entirely home-constructed.

FREEBURG.

The Selinsgrove and Freeburg Choral Society had a fine practice at the home of Mrs. Wiest Monday evening.

H. J. Boyer and wife and Mrs. B. F. Wagenseller were the guests of D. S. Boyer and P. B. Moyer on Tuesday.

Rev. G. D. Druckenmiller, accompanied by Daniel Stuck as delegate of St. John's Church, Fremont, are attending conference at Numidia, Columbia county.

An Educational Meeting and Teacher's Institute was held in the High School Room. J. H. Hendricks, president of school board, presided. Prof. Walborn, principal or our schools, outlined the duties of the teachers for the term Prof. Boyer also made an address followed by some of the teachers.

Our schools commenced on Monday with a large attendance.

We copy the following from the Millersburg Herald: Henry J. Boyer and wife of Chicago Prof. Daniel S. Boyer and wife, Mrs. Judge Brown, Mrs. S. G. Hilbish and Mrs F. E. Hilbish, of Freeburg, were the guests of H. L. Lark Esq., and family. They also visited Mrs. Sarah Lark at Berrysburg and W. S. Boyer, Esq., of Gratz. The party constituted a family reunion of Boyers all born at Freeburg. Mrs. Brown and the Mrs. Hilbish are the daughters of Prof. F. C. and Mary Ann Moyer, nee Boyer, founder of the Musical College at Freeburg. Henry J., William S. and D. S. Boyer and Mrs. Sarah Lark are the direct living descendants of John Boyer of Freeburg. It was an occasion of unusual interest to all concerned, and the visitors were very cordially received and entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lark, also at Berrysburg by Mrs. Lark, and at Gratz by William Boyer and family. H. L. Lark Attorney at Millersburg, awaited the arrival of the party at Millersburg Station and conveyed them to his hospitable home where an excellent dinner was served. After dinner Mr. Lark had the visitors conveyed to Berrysburg to his mother, Mrs. Sarah Lark, who had supper in readiness. They remained during the night and then went to Gratz, where a special dinner had been prepared at the house of Wm. S. Boyer, Esq. Late in the afternoon they returned to Millersburg and were entertained by H. L. Lark, Esq. and amily, returning home Wednesday evening.

CENTREVILLE.

Postmaster Stine was the guest of his father-in-law Jos. Valentine of New Berlin on Sunday.

Ashley Barber and Dan. Moss of Mifflinburg were in town on Monday

Morris Erdley of Vicksburg was seen in our town on Sunday.

Mrs Lizzie Miller and children are visiting friends at Haurelton at this writing.

Clay Spangler will move into his new house to-day (Thursday).

Mrs. Amelia Showers of Williamsport is visiting friends here.

Our schools will open on Monday. The teachers selected for town are A. B. Sheary for Grammar; A. A. Bingaman for Intermediate and Miss Kathyrn Miller for Primary.

On Saturday there was a quiet wedding at the residence of H. H. Herbster, the contracting parties being Augustus Bateman of Shamokin and Mrs. Rebecca Rearich, mother of Mr. H. of Beaver Springs. Rev W. H. Schoch of New Berlin performed the ceremony. We extend our well wishes.

Rev. Snable will have comunion at Salem on next Sunday.

Huntingdon County Telephone Company, which proposes to operate and maintain a telephone system in the counties of Huntingdon, Bedford, Blair, Centre, Fulton, Mifflin, Juniata and Perry, and to connect with other lines, was chartered in Harrisburg. The capital stock is $2,500. The controversy regarding the county line between this and Union counties, is nearly settled, both counties agreeing that the line shall terminate at the centre of the west abutment of the Northumberland bridge. This is a very satisfactory settlement. That line-running was all a farce. Too many witnesses and surveyors became interested in the case for pecuniary benefit, and the Snyder county board got on to the game and promptly wound up the proceedings. —Selinsgrove Times.
