LUCID LOCAL LACONICS

Start the New Year right by subscribing to the POST.

A happy New Year to all our readers, the message the POST sends forth.

The marriage license court has had the biggest holiday rush ever known. Prosperity tells the tale.

An unadvertised business is like an ax without a handle or a gun without a barrel.—The Advertiser.

An infant child of Benj. Steffen residing on D. K. Haas' farm died one day last week.

The primary and intermediate schools are not in session this week on account of so many of the pupils having the measles.

All the churches of town had appropriate Christmas services and the children were made happy with the usual treat of candy.

An infant child of Prof. Edwin Charles died Sunday morning at the age of a few months. The cause of death was internal convulsions.

We regret to record the death from diphtheria-a child of Geo. D. Maneval. On account of the contagious character of the disease, no funeral services were held.

Our "Special Sales" Day comes six times a week, and continues every week for 1902. Value makes the bargains, and our low prices make new and keep the old customers.

Lt. Daniel T. Rhoads.

Daniel T. Rhoads of this place was born at Newport, Pa., Dec. 3, 1839, the oldest of four children, son of Jacob and Catharine (Troup) Rhoads, married, Nov. 23, 1865, Mary Swineford and died in the German Hospital, Philadelphia Dec. 22, 1901, aged 63 years and 19 days.

Mr. Rhoads was a faithful soldier in the War of Rebellion, after which, July 1865, he came to Middleburg and followed the trade and business of tinsmith for many years. He served frequently as school director and member of the town council, a position he held when he died. He also served as Chief Burgess of the borough. He is the last of the family to die, his brother, Peter Rhoads, having died in Harrisburg several years ago. He is survived by a widow, never having had any children. He was a faithful member of the Lutheran church and a devoted member of the Union Veteran Legion of Selinsgrove and the G. A. R. Post of this place.

The funeral took place Dec. 26, Rev. W. H. Diehl officiating. Nearly all the Grand Army Posts in the county, the Union Veteran Legion of Selinsgrove, the young lady cadets, whom he himself drilled, and the Stetler Band of this place honored his remains with their presence at the funeral, the services of which took place in the court house.

MILITARY RECORD.

His military record is one of unusual merit and is as follows:

Enlisted at Harrisburg, age 22, Sept. 7, 1861, as 6th Corporal of Old Company E. 49th Regt. P. V. I.; promoted to Orderly Sergent Aug. 28, 1862. He was transferred to new Company H, Feb. 28, 1864, commissioned as Second Lieutenant and transferred to new Company I, a Snyder county company, June 8, 1864. He was wounded in the breast at Winchester, Va., Sept. 14, 1864, and was discharged Feb. 1, 1865, having served 3 years, 4 months and 24 days.

The town has lost a valuable citizen, the community an examplary man and the wife a faithful husband.
