BOROUGH SUP'T NOT ELECTED

The borough school directors met in triennial convention Tuesday eve for the purpose of electing a borough superintendent. The session was a lengthy one, but the board failed to come to an agreement and there was no election.

But one candidate was nominated—D. N. Dieffenbacher, the present incumbent, who has filled the position for the last seven months, since U. L. Gordy's resignation.

It soon became apparent that the directors were not a unit as related to the candidate. After a lengthy discussion, on motion of Mr. Fischer, it was ordered that the board proceed to vote on the candidacy of Mr. Dieffenbacher.

A vote was taken with the following result:

Yeas—Orth, Fish, Fischer, Foulk, Heiss, Cole.

Nays—Pursel, Swarts, Burns, Sechler, Barber.

Not voting—Redding.

There were six yeas and five nays. Seven, the majority of the twelve members of the board, were required to elect and the motion, therefore, was declared lost

The board adjourned after arranging to meet in adjourned session at 9 o'clock on next Monday night for the purpose of electing a borough superintendent.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

LUMBERMEN TRACK A BEAR

R. N. Lyons, Elmer Lyons and Charles Keefer, lumberman in the employ of the Catawissa Paper Mill company, are firmly convinced that the ridge between Dutch and Frosty valleys, only a few miles from Danville, is the habitat of a bear, one of the biggest of its kind.

Bruin was tracked in the soft ground Friday forenoon and he was only a short distance ahead of the men. Each of the party is a woodsman of life-long experience and it is safe to affirm that he knows bear's tracks when he sees them.

The three men were walking down an old road used for hauling lumber on the north side of the ridge on the Dewald tract, when they encountered the bears' tracks. The latter seemed to come down from the bushes and followed the old road for some distance.

The bear at one place walked through a mud puddle leaving in the soft ground his well-defined footprints. He was a monster, if his tracks be any criterion. Bruin had stepped out of the mud and water unto a big stone, which was still wet where the bear's foot had left its imprint, showing that the animal had passed that way less than five minutes before the men came.

The lumbermen state that there is a large tract of woodland in that locality, which together with the old ore mines, affords an excellent home for bears.

CURE YOUR KIDNEYS.

Names for Farmers' Homes.

The Grange News says: A new grange ritual for use in the ceremoinal dedicaton of grange farmers' homes has been written by Mortimer Whitehead, of New Jersey. It is not yet promulgated for general use but at the next meeting of the national grange it is expected that the ritual will be approved and its use authorized. The idea is that grange farm houses should be named or the farm should be designated by approrpiate title, as Riverview Farm, Brookside Home, Ferncliff Farm, or any appropriate descriptive appellation. Brother Whitehead's idea is to make this formal dedication a noteworthy occasion. He assembles the local grange on the lawn in the summer time, each officer occupying his allotted position. Surrounding them are the grange members and visitors. On the porch the name of the house to be dedicated is concealed until the moment for unveiling arrives, when it is revealed to the assemblage with due ceremony. The ritual is beautifully written and compares more than favorably with anything now in use by the grange.

Reports Are Exaggerated.

Adverting to the reported destruction of this year's fruit crop, by the recent freezing weather and the snow in some sections of this State, which as usual is an exaggeration of actual conditions, the Pittsburg Dispatch says: "It is the presumption of those unfamiliar with fruit growing that every frost is fatal that gives currency to the stale joke about the frequent destruction of the peach crop. Peach trees bloomed in unusual abundance this year.. They were subjected to light touches of frost while in full bloom and suffered no injury, at least on high ground. In some sections they showed no sign of harm yesterday. Yet the tiny fruit may have been so weakened that all will fall from the branches. Then, again, many peaches may go to maturity. It is so with other fruits. The ordinarily hardy apple was caught in open blossom—its most tender stage—but a few days will be required to determine whether there will be no apples. A so-called "black frost" in May, 1891, preceded an autumn famed for its abundance of fruit of all kinds."

GIVES CUP FOR RELAY RACE

The plans for the amateur athletic meet to be held at DeWitt's park on May 23rd, by the Y. M. C. A. and high school are developing rapidly and the promoters are meeting with a degree of success which surpasses their expectations.

A public spirited citizen has agreed to furnish the silver cup to be used as the trophy for the relay race. It is also expected the high school athletic association will assist financially.

Physical Director Ainsworth yesterday received a sample of the medals that are to be offered as prizes for the different events. The medal is mounted as a watch fob and is the regulation Y. M. C. A. prize medal. This medal can not be purchased and can only be secured by being won at a Y. M. C. A. meet. Three of these medal—gold, silver and bronze—will be given as prizes in each event.

Up to Friday two schools from this vicinity had indicated their intention of sending teams to the meet.

Yielded to Tuberculin Test.

A. O. Cawley, State meat inspector, on Saturday performed an autopsy on three valuable cows belonging to the herd of W. W. Gulick, Gearhart township, which had been condemned by Veterinarian J. O. Reed as infected with tuberculosis. The result of the autopsy was to sustain Dr. Reed's inspection.

Dr. Reed acting for the State examined Mr. Gulick's herd of nine cattle on April 10th, applying the tuberculin test. Three out of the nine head yielded, by which it is understood that they exhibited symptoms of tuberculosis. The test was made by the veterinarian at the expense of the owner with the understanding that the live stock sanitary board was to assist him in disposing of the cattle, should any of them show symptoms of tuberculosis.

The three head of condemned cattle were quarantined from the date of the inspection until last Saturday, when the autopsy was performed by Mr. Cawley. The result of the dissection made it clear that each of the three catlte condemned by Veterinarian Reed, was diseased to such an extent that the carcass could not be used for meat. The three head were accordingly appraised and Mr. Gulick will be reimbursed by the State.

MANY CASES OF PNEUMONIA

The effects of the sudden and marked changes of weather that characterize the present season are apparent in the increased number of pneumonia cases shown by the report of the local registrar to the bureau of vital statistics for April. There are eleven cases of pneumonia on the list, which exceed the number reported in any one month before. Four of the eleven cases proved fatal.

The local registrar is of the opinion that in not a few instances the pneumonia has resulted from exposure and the habit of laying aside winter underclothing with the advent of the first warm days, which experience has shown is sure to be followed by cold weather before spring finally comes.

Beyond pneumonia there were few cases of disease during April. The most serious was diphtheria, of which there were five cases. There was only one case of typhoid fever. There was one case of chicken pox, two cases of mumps, and two cases of whooping cough.

There were twenty-nine deaths during the month, ten of which occurred at the hospital for the insane.

The births for April are not as yet all reported to the local registrar. For March the number was twenty-nine, which by a coincidence balances the deaths reported for April.

A MODERN COAL POCKET

The machinery is being installed in the modern coal pocket, which is being erected by Robert J. Pegg between the D. L. & W. railroad and Northumberland street near Mahoning creek.

L. H. Pierce, of Chicago, the erecting engineer, is on the ground and expects to remain until the pocket is in operation, which, he states, will be in the course of ten days.

The modern coal pocket differs from anything of its kind in this section. The plant is being furnished by the Howe Scale company of Illinois. Among the advantages claimed for the system is that it not only facilitates the handling of coal and leads to a remarkable saving of labor but it also prevents breakage, which by any other method of handling coal, is a factor worth taking into account, detracting as it does considerably from the value of coal. Breakage in this type of pocket, Mr. Pierce states, is from three to five per cent less than when coal is shoveled off the car.

In the case of a modern coal pocket the coal is dumped from the car into a hopper under the track and elevated from there into the pocket with an inclined Harrison conveyor operated by a Howe gasolene engine.

Distinguishing features of the modern coal pocket are the Sackett screen wagon spout and the screen and bagger with which it is equipped. By the process employed not a pound of coal can leave the pockets without being thoroughly screened. It is here that the labor saving occurs quite as much as in unloading the cars and filling the pockets.

By means of the screen and bagger a ton of coal can be bagged in one minute. By means of the screen wagon spout a wagon box can be filled with loose—thoroughly screened—coal in a few seconds of time. In either case one man is all that is needed and about all that remains for him to do is to manipulate the levers opening and closing the pockets. There are twelve spouts in all. The modern coal pocket is a massive wooden structure and is quite a conspicuous object among the buildings in the lower part of town.

Mr. John Riha of Vining, Ia., says, "I have been selling DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills for about a year and they give better satisfaction than any pill I ever sold." Sold by Paules & Co.

Bricklayers Are at Work.

The hundred and odd men employed on the new buildings at the hospital for the insane were obliged to quit work about 10:30 o'clock yesterday forenoon owing to the rain. The men were loath to throw down their tools, hoping rather that the rain would prove to be only a shower; but at the hour above named there was no sign of abatement and the clothes of the workingmen were becoming uncomfortably wet. A decision to quit was accordingly arrived at.

Work on the buildings has been hindered very much by rainy weather and the contractors naturally desire to put in as full time as possible. That an immense amount of work has been accomplished in spite of obstacles during the month that the buildings have been under way all must admit.

The brick layers are now at work on the female infirmary. The fifteen courses of buff brick, laid on the wall of the kitchen wing harmonizes very nicely with the cut brown stone and no one can doubt that the effect of the combination will be most pleasing when the structure is completed.

There are at present sixteen brick layers and twenty stone masons employed. A number of these men have been with Mosier and Sommers for many years. Work is now under way on all three of the buildings. The most of the stone masons are employed on the building for the acute insane on the female side, while at the building for the acute insane male patients, the excavation for which is completed, the workmen are laying the concrete foundation, on which the walls will be built.

Along with the array of workmen seven teams are employed, the latter mostly hauling material from the cars to the site of the buildings. One can not help but admire the system and the discipline that characterizes the whole operation and it does not seem at all improbable that the contractors will realize their expectations and have the buildings under roof before winter.

James Lake Painfully Injured.

James Lake, who conducts a repair shop on North Mill street, met with a serious accident Saturday afternoon while operating a lathe.

He was in the act of throwing off the belt when his sleeve caught in the machinery, which drew his right arm under the clutch of the lathe. The man's forearm was shockingly mangled, an artery being severed.

Mr. Lake received treatment at the office of Dr. P. C. Newbaker, who ligatured the severed artery.

While the family of R. M. Allen, postmaster of Brimstone, Washington county, sat on the front porch a few nights ago, a thief entered the chicken house and stole forty-seven thorough-bred game chickens, worth over one hundred dollars.

Although corn planting time is at hand, several farmers in Lehigh county were on Monday engaged at husking some of their last year's crop, an unusual sight at this season.

NUMBERING BOXES ON R. F. D. ROUTES

By a recent ruling of the post office department the boxes on the thousands of rural routes in the United States are ordered to be numbered. The number is to be assigned by the post master to the box owners and this number must at once be legibly and durably inscribed by the owner in a conspicuous place on the outside of the box.

Notice to the above effect has been sent out from the local post office to box owners on the several r. f. d. routes leading from Danville. Accompanying the notice is the number assigned by the postmaster to be placed upon the box. The order is to be carried out at the box owners earliest convenience.

An arrangement is made whereby new boxes may be installed between those numbered consecutively without leading to confusion or inconvenience. In case it should become necessary to place boxes between two others, numbered say, 4 and 5 the new boxes would be "4 a," "4 b," and 4 c" in succession.

No one seems to have any clear idea as to why the boxes are to be numbered—what purpose is to be served.

The June Bride.

She is, by immense odds, the happiest human being in the limitable cosmos. As the first notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march strike her enchanted ears and she turns from the altar to march in triumph down the Aisle of Sighs—her snared and frightened Clarence on her arm and the nervous glances of her friends focused upon her—she is as proud as thrice 10,000 conquerers. Her smile is ecstatic; her eyes glitter with gorgeous joy. Otherwhere and in otherwise human happiness never scales such stupendous pinnacles. Compared to a June bride the man who has just drawn four aces in a poker game seems like a melancholiac on the verge of self destruction.

CRAYON ARTIST AND CHALK TALKER

The late Edwin Barret Smith, one of the board of managers of the Young Men's Christian Association, of Chicago, speaks of the work of Mr. Little, who will appear in the Y. M. C. A. hall Saturday evening, as follows:

"Geo. Little, of Washington, presented one of his popular lectures in the regular lecture course of the Chicago Young Men's Christian Association.

"The entertainment was a delightful one, and a large audience present (about two thousand) greatly enjoyed the evening. The rapidity and variety of his work keeps the audience constantly on the alert for the many good points in which it abounds. Mr. Little is a man of high character, pleasing address and extraordinary skill with the crayon. He has also recently appeared in the Armour Mission where he amused and instructed a large audience (over one thousand) containing many children and youth. His work seems to be equally well appreciated by old and young. Every lecture course should include one of his lectures."

General admission to this lecture will be 25c. Children fourteen and under 10 cents. Tickets now on sale at the Y. M. C. A. and by members of the "Anchor Club."

Church Doors Barred to Pastor.

With the doors of the Lutheran church at Trevorton barred against him the Rev Mr. Heyer, who remained the unwelcome pastor for over a year awaiting the "divine call," will in all probability cease to look for heavenly manifestations and take himself to other fields.

After waiting in vain for the pastor to vacate, the trustees Sunday adopted drastic measures and when Mr. Heyer arrived at the sacred edifice to hold the regular service he found the doors locked and the trustees standing on the steps. An exchange of greetings followed and after becoming satisfied that he could not gain entrance into the church the pastor departed.

This church war is one of the most interesting in the history of Northumberland county. Ordered out by the parishioners, told to vacate by the elders of his church and commanded to leave by the conference, Rev. Heyer persisted in his determination to await the coming of the "divine call." At first a fairly large sized congregation attended the services but for the past six months the number steadily diminished, until it dwindled down to three or four loyal parishioners.

The pastor's salary was reduced to a mere pittance, but still he remained. Now that he can no longer have the church at his disposal it is thought that Rev. Heyer will leave the town. The next pastor will face a difficult task in the reorganization of the disrupted congregation.

Arranging for Memorial Day.

The G. A. R. memorial service will be held at Pine Street Lutheran church on Sunday, May 24th, at 10:30 o'clock. The sermon will be preached by the pastor, the Rev. Lloyd W. Walter.

The comrades will meet at G. A. R. hall at 9:30 a. m. on the day of the service. An invitation is extended to the Sons of Veterans or any other organization that may desire to attend.

Goodrich Post has appointed committees and is otherwise preparing for Memorial day.

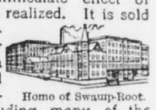
The man who knows more than is good for him is a sad case of over-development.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.



Home of Swamp-Root.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the addres Binghamton, N.Y., on every bottles.

NORTH AMERICAN'S BASEBALL EDITION A TREAT TO FANS

Exceptional as were the special base ball editions that marked the opening of the baseball seasons of 1906 and 1907 the twelve-page supplement in colors, which will be a feature of The North American of Sunday, May 10, will eclipse them both.

Never before has there been such baseball activity as this year. In addition to the organizations of last year, the American, National, Atlantic, Tristate and Intercounty leagues, a host of new leagues are in the field, including the Union, Pennsylvania and New Jersey, North Penn, Main Line, Lebanon, Susquehanna, etc.

Followers of any of these clubs will find their interests well cared for in the big special edition. The batting and fielding figures of the American, National and Tristate for 1907 are given in full, a reference to settle future arguments.

The chase for the pennant, that trophy which is the most sought of all rewards for athletic effort, forms the subject of a first-page story and a striking illustration in colors.

George M. Graham, The North American's sporting editor, has an article on the managers of the Tristate teams.

School news, a specialty of The North American, is taken care of with a full page. Colleges, especially those of Pennsylvania are correspondingly taken care of.

The back page, in colors, is given up to two striking groups, profile studies of every member of the Phillies and Athletics, something that every fan will want to keep.

Throughout Pennsylvania there are hundreds of independent clubs, who draw big crowds and have the backing of the entire town. These are all cared for in this supplement.

Altogether, the names of 10,000 players figure in this edition.

Thousands were unable to get copies of previous baseball editions. Order from your newsdealer now.

TO PROMOTE GOOD SANITATION

A new and probably an effective measure has been adopted in the Twelfth regiment to promote good sanitation and habits of cleanliness among the members of the National guard while at encampment.

The new idea seems to have originated with Major F. E. Drumheller of Sunbury, surgeon of the Twelfth regiment, who offers one hundred dollars, to be divided into three prizes of $50, $30 and $20, to the three organizations of the regiment mantaining the best camp in the point of hygienic and sanitary conditions.

The judges who have been appointed to award the prizes are: Captain W. C. Gretzinger of Lewisburg, quartermaster; Captain Clarence Foresman, of Williamsport, commissary; Dr. C. Shultz, of Danville, assistant surgeon.

When a Mayor Is Undertaker.

Mayor Kniffen, of Wilkes-Barre, the only undertaker mayor in the State, has ordered Chief of Police Long to enforce a long-neglected ordinance which forbids street cars or other vehicles to interfere with funeral processions.
