FLOOR GAVE AWAY.

Four Men Injured at the Schuylkill Colliery Breaker.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

MAHANOY CITY, Jan. 5.—The floor of the counter in the Schuylkill colliery breaker gave away at noon to-day and dropped fourteen feet to the top of a screen. Four men named John Knox, Andrew Evans, John Demonski and William Yarnell were injured, but not dangerously. They suffered from bruises and cuts, but no fractures. At the dinner hour the counter gathered about the steam heater, which weighs about 700 pounds. The weight was increased by a crowd of breaker boys joining the crowd and the floor sank.

Soothing, and not irritating, strengthening, and not weakening, small but effective—such are the qualities of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. C. H. Rauschenbach.

Attempted Suicide.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

MAHANOY CITY, Jan. 5.—Robert Davis, an aged miner residing on East Maple street, attempted to commit suicide this morning by gashing his throat with a table knife. He only injured himself slightly and will recover. Davis has been ailing since about a year ago, when he was overcome by gas while assisting in putting out a fire in the Mahanoy City colliery.

Hadn't Earned the Reward.

A fat man carrying a gun and leading a dog made a dash down Market street for the Oakland ferryboat. He could have caught it if he had walked quietly along, but he became excited, and old Time commenced having fun with him. The dog would run on the wrong side of telegraph poles and hydrants, and tangle up his chain in the legs of pedestrians. By the time spent in apologizing and untangling the dog he was delayed till the little gate closed in his face. Then he ran around to the big gate, dodged around a mail wagon, and made a run for the boat. The deck hands raised the apron and the boat moved slowly out, but he was determined to catch it, and, gripping his gun and dog chain a little tighter, made a run and sprang into the air. The boat was only six feet away, but the dog balked at the apron. The hunter stopped in the middle of his leap, his feet flew out toward the steamer, and he dropped into the bay like a bale of hay. A small boy who was fishing from the wharf dropped his pole, splashed into the water, and towed the fat man to a pile where he clung till a boatman pulled him out.

"My boy, you saved my life," he exclaimed enthusiastically, as he kicked the dog and tried to wring the water out of his shotgun. "Let me reward you."

He thrust his hand into his clammy pocket and fished out a wet 10 cent piece. "There, my boy; take that, but don't spend it foolishly."

"No, sir; I can't take it, sir." The boy pushed the generous hand aside. "I didn't earn it."

"Why, you saved my life, boy."

"Yes, I know it, sir; but it ain't worth 10 cents!"—San Francisco Post.

Ohio Miners Resist Reduction.

MASSILLON, O., Jan. 5.—Notices have been posted at all the mines in the Massillon district announcing a reduction in the price of pick mining from 56 to 51 cents a ton. The notice promises that if the coming convention at Columbus shall fix a higher rate than 51 cents the operators will pay it from Jan. 1. The posting of the notice had the immediate effect of causing a cessation of work at all the mines in the district, and by this time nearly 2,000 men are believed to be idle. A convention has been called to meet on the 7th inst. to consider the situation.

Child Scalded.

Clara, the ten-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Ritler, met with a painful accident yesterday afternoon by having the right side of her face scalded by hot soup. The little girl was in the act of lifting the kettle off the stove, when her father jostled against her. Remedies were applied promptly, which eased the little girl of pain.

Thrown From a Horse.

While exercising a young horse at Mahanoy Plane on Saturday, William P. Seward, of West Line street, met with an accident which will confine him to his home for several days. The horse became unmanageable and threw the rider to the ground. He was dragged for several yards and considerably bruised about both legs.

Citizens Committee Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the Citizens Standing Committee will meet in the office of T. E. Beddall, Esq., in the Beddall building, corner of Main and Centre streets, on Wednesday, January 6, 1897, at 7 p. m. sharp. All candidates for nomination on the Citizens ticket are requested to attend the meeting. By order of

WILKINSON'S

Time for Cloak Selling

Our holiday trade was a great success; we sold more goods by far than any year in our business; and our facilities for handling large crowds of buyers were better and you appreciated our excellent system and quick attention.

This Great Day Light Store

of ours has won its way into your confidence. We thought Shenandoah people would give our big modern Dry Goods House a fair welcome. YOU DID MORE.

The great throngs of pleased buyers who have visited our store were quick to appreciate the money-saving prices made possible by our being able to purchase large stocks of goods at lower prices. We share this advantage with you.

To our thousands of patrons we extend our best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

PITBY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Perusal.

The Pottsville saving fund No. 2 will issue a new series of stock on January 25th.

The new brewery at Fountain Springs is expected to be in operation in a few weeks.

J. B. Daniels of Ashland left yesterday for Honduras. He will be accompanied by some Luzerne capitalists.

A large gray fox was shot near Middleport Sunday by a law-abiding sportsman who does not hunt on Sunday.

On Sunday evening Father McGovern of Pottsville was presented with a purse containing $355 by his parishioners.

'Squire Devine of Blythe township is in more trouble. He is now charged with attempting to bribe a grand juror.

Ashland is trying to find out where all the water, which experts claim should be in it, gets to before coming to the surface.

A musical and dramatic entertainment for the benefit of St. Stephen's parochial school, Port Carbon, will be held on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

The Methodist Ministerial Association of Hazleton district convened at Delano yesterday.

Miss Elizabeth Johnson died at Pottsville yesterday from the effects of burns received at her stove on Saturday.

August Moeller, foreman of the Sunbury Brewery, committed suicide last evening by shooting himself in the head.

Placing alcohol in cider and selling it has resulted in Lewis Adam, a farmer near Allentown, being placed under bail for trial for violating the license law.

Although York County's retiring Commissioners reduced the county debt to $6000 they left a big bridge unfinished, with $40,000 owing on it, and a $25,000 monument unprovided for.

Typhoid fever is becoming prevalent throughout the town. New cases are being reported daily.

Shake off Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

Rub well with Red Flag Oil, 25c. At Grubler Bros., drug store.

Kasper Markovich and Klementyna Brotanis, both of Kaskawilliam.

Edward J. O'Donnell and Catharine F. Keuna, both of Butler township.

Never Saw Anything Like It.

It is always safe to profit by the experience of others, and especially when it concerns life and health. Maud Johnson, Brookside, Pa., writes: "I had diphtheria and catarrh very bad and used a bottle of Thompson's Diphtheria Cure. Never saw anything like it; it took nearly all the membrane out of my throat in one day, and also cured my catarrh." Sold at Kirlin's drug store at 50 cents a bottle. Never failed in a single instance when used according to directions.

Poor Districts.

Director Middleton retains his old district where last year he saved over $1,100 over the relief of 1895. This district includes all above the mountain, excepting Mahanoy City. Ahrensfield takes Dietrich's old district, including the western and southern part of the county and Dietrich takes Day's district, which includes Pale Alto, up the valley including Tamaqua, St. Clair, Mahanoy City, Frackville, the Norwegians, New Castle, Rush, Kline and Ralm townships.

Licenses Transferred.

The retail liquor license of Helter & Dinger, in the Fifth ward of Pottsville, was transferred to John S. Steudt.

The license of John J. Delaney, in Cass township, was transferred to Patrick M. Brennan.

The license of Patrick Flannigan, in Blythe township, was transferred to the widow, Ann Flannigan.

MAHANOY CITY.

The School Board to Sue For the Balance of Appropriation.

MAHANOY CITY, Jan. 5.—When the state appropriation was received this year by the School Board it was found to be $1,350 short of last year, said to be due to a mistake of the County Commissioners, who have notified the Board that it will receive no more of that appropriation. It is understood the state refuses to rectify the mistake of the Commissioners. The finance committee and Solicitor have been instructed to collect the deficiency by suit at law.

George R., son of Thomas Woolcock, of East Centre street, died this morning of acute consumption. He was ill about three months and when taken sick was employed as bookkeeper in the office of the Mahanoy Sentinel.

There is some talk of organizing a minstrel company here to compete with the 400 Minstrels of Pottsville for burnt cork honors.

The School Board is about to invest $1,350 in instruments for the class in chemistry in the High school.

Lizzie, daughter of Michael Hartnett, of West Railroad street, died at four o'clock this morning after an illness of about a year. The deceased was 23 years of age.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Billiousness, Indigestion, Headache. A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

Old Fissures Reopen.

The moderating weather has caused the fissures in the surface at the corner of Gilbert and Line streets to reopen and Superintendent Betteridge has been obliged to put a gang of men at work to prevent the water pipes from sinking and bursting. The fissures were caused some months ago by the workings in the Kohinoor colliery. The foundations under the houses occupied by the Kohlmeyers and a Polish family show signs of breaking.

It's an Old Saw, and true, that there's nothing like leather; by the same token, there's no leather like calfskin, and no calfskin like Kangaroo calf.

The process of Kangaroo tanning applied to calfskin makes of leather soft, pliable, easy-fitting and tough—the very qualities needed in school shoes.

We've a big lot made of such leather. Children's at $1.00; Misses' $1.25. Ordinray stores would charge from 25c. to 50c. more, and wouldn't charge a cent too much, either.

We could do it, too, but that isn't our way of doing business. We give you the biggest values. Our rushing business is proof of it.
