HE MAINTAINS HIS POSITION.

Declares That "So Long as We Are Without Alliances It Will Be Impossible to Preserve the Independence of China Against Inroads."

London, June 10.—Sir Charles Dilke, in the house of commons yesterday, moved a resolution in the foreign office vote and attacked the Marquis of Salisbury's foreign policy of concession. Referring to the United States he said:

"Our better relations with the United States are mainly due to the good influence of her majesty's ambassador at Washington (Sir Julian Pauncefote), for the government policy has been rash and feeble. Everyone will welcome an alliance of hearts with America, but no alliance could be a war alliance."

Continuing Sir Charles said he did not believe in the possibility, mooted by the secretary of state for the colonies (Mr. Chamberlain), of an alliance with Germany.

The parliamentary secretary for the foreign office, Mr. George N. Curzon, gave credit to the good influence of the British ambassador at Washington. But he asserted that credit was not due merely to the ambassador or to the exigencies of the moment, but to "Lord Salisbury's friendly, calm and dispassionate attitude during the discussion of difficult matters with America two years ago. An arbitration treaty will some day be accepted."

This statement was greeted with cheering.

Answering a question Mr. Curzon said the subjects to be referred to an arbitration commission all relate to questions betwen Canada and the United States, but, he added, some of them are of imperial interest.

Mr. Chamberlain declared that the object of his Birmingham speech was "not to lay down a policy, but to state facts to this country as to what I conceive to be the conditions and great problems we are called to face." The speech, he continued, had been made, and there was not one word of it that he intended to withdraw. Great Britain could stand alone, but in that case she could not exercise the controlling influence she had hitherto exercised in China. "So long as we are without alliances," he said, emphatically, "it will be impossible to preserve the independence of China against inroads."

Repeating the leading features of his Birmingham speech, Mr. Chamberlain declared:

"If it became known that we were willing to consider alliances it is not unlikely that advances would be made to us. A mutual understanding with one of the great powers would save a very large addition to the navy."

In concluding he referred to the "importance of a close understanding with America," adding:

"In my opinion, on such a matter, the United States would not listen to the Irish vote." But whether England or America were menaced, he said, he hoped it would be found that blood is thicker than water, and without desiring to force either nation to enter into an alliance with which a majority of both peoples did not thoroughly sympathize, he would repeat his conviction that the closer, the more defined and the clearer the alliance between the United States and England, the better it would be for both nations and for civilization.

C. Ayer, Lowell, Mass. The book will interest you if you are sick or weak, because it tells not what it is claimed the remedy will do, but what your neighbors and fellows testify that it has done. Will it cure you? It has cured thousands like you. Why not you?

POLITICAL POINTS.

William Wilhelm Esq., of Pottsville, has announced himself as a candidate for Congress, upon a free silver platform. Quite a number of Democrats are urging Mr. Wilhelm's nomination by the Democratic convention. This is in line with the program of the free silverite inaugurated several days ago.

James F. Minnigan, of Ashland, has announced himself as a candidate for Controller, subject to Democratic rules.

John G. Unruh, Esq., of Tamaqua, is making an active canvass for the Senatorial nomination on the 16 to 1 platform.

Brennan is unfortunate in his newspaper supporters. These he has come mighty high, but he must have them.

The contest for delegates to the Democratic county convention is waxing warm in this town between the opposing elements. Each side appears to be confident of success.

David Graham, of the Mahanoy City American, is spoken of as a candidate for Senator on the Republican ticket.

Malichia C. Watson, of Shenandoah, who is an aspirant for the nomination of state senator on the Democratic ticket, can have the Ashland delegates without a doubt, even if they have already been promised to Higgins by a certain contingent of our curbstone politicians, whose avoirdupois exceeds by far their political influence.—Ashland News.

Alvan Markle, who for recently resigned from the State Committee, is now a strong anti-Quay adherent, and it is hinted that if a fight is to be made for Congress from that side, he may consent to become their candidate.

Constable Assaulted.

When Constable Tosh went to execute a landlord's warrant at a house on South Pear alley this morning the Polish woman on guard at the place showed him a hot time. She got in a couple of upper cuts on the officer's neck and face, drummed upon his shins with a stove poker, and went through evolutions with a broom. Tosh disarmed the woman as she successively picked up and used the weapons, but when the Amazon tried to crack his skull with a stove raker he concluded to beat a retreat and swore out a warrant for her arrest before Justice Shoemaker.

SUED THE COUNTY.

An Arbitration Bearing on the Missing Ten Thousand Dollars.

The arbitration in the case of the Safe Deposit Bank vs. the County of Schuylkill, suit brought to recover $20,000, a loan, was commenced yesterday. S. H. Kaercher and E. D. Smith represented the bank and County Solicitor H. O. Bechtel was for the county. The bank claims to have loaned the county $20,000 on a note dated June 30th, 1897, for three months at 4½ per cent. interest.

The full face of the note was paid by the bank on a treasurer's check, dated July 1st, 1897, made payable to the treasurer of the county. The note fell due September 30th, 1897, when it was renewed to November 29th, 1897. The original note was surrendered to the Commissioners. Mr. Hazzard, the witness, who gave the above information, said the bank held no receipt from the county treasurer, and never asked for one, as the check bore the treasurer's signature.

A number of witnesses were called, among them Deputy Treasurer Deibert, Commissioners' Clerk H. F. Reber and Deputy Controller Payne. On behalf of the defense it is claimed that the county does not owe the amount claimed; that the county has already overpaid the bank for money which the county never received, and that $10,000 charged against the county by the bank had never been received by the county.

The arbitrators are Mahlon R. Nichols, Harry Hause and William M. Faussett.

Geraniums, fuchsias, pansies, daises, roses, etc., for spring planting at Payne's nurseries, Girardville. Tuberose and gladiolus bulbs.

The Rough Riders of the World.

The grand review of the rough riders of the world, with which the afternoon and evening performances of Buffalo Bill's Wild West will be inaugurated here on Tuesday, June 21st, deserves much more than a passing notice, and as it always begins at 2 and 8 o'clock, sharp, all should be seated by that time in order to see, enjoy and appreciate the whole of it. It is opened with a magnetic rush, and this spirit is splendidly kept up throughout. The band begins to play, and away off at the other end of the arena the Indians are seen coming mounted, at a dead run. This is but one of the many tribes that are with Buffalo Bill. They ride as fast as their ponies will carry them half way around the ring, and then draw up before the spectators. The chief of this particular tribe then comes forth with the same break-neck speed as did his warriors, and this continues until the representatives of all tribes have taken their places before their white brothers. The Mexicans, the Cowboys, the South American Gauchos, the cavalry of the different nations, and all the riders come in, one organization at a time, all riding at a dead run. After all are drawn up in line "Buffalo Bill" rides forth, and is, of course, greeted with immense applause. It is a superb and indescribable picture.
