AUTUMN OPENING

—OF—

MILLINERY AND SUITS

—ON—

Thursday, Sept. 28
....1899....

To continue the balance of the week. The entire store reaches out to you with tempting offerings, but this time its the third floor that Specially invites you. The third floor—that big roomy store full of Millinery, Suits, Wraps, Waists and Skirts—the dressy part of D., P. & S.'s whole establishment—a store where Pottsville's gentle women have found it both pleasant and profitable to come. Competent, experienced people are in charge of these departments, and their knowledge and taste and skill are at your disposal free of charge.

Just now the whole floor is resplendent with an unusual assortment of Fall and Winter Headwear and Suits.

Our Annual Fall Millinery opening we are led to believe is an event looked forward to by very many of Pottsville's fashion-loving women. To adequately describe the new and beautiful hats, trimmings, feathers, flowers, and ribbons is a task beyond the power of mere words. It is an interesting exhibit of the world's most glorious productions in the milliner's art, gathered from foreign and domestic market. A day worth remembering, whether you buy or simply look.

SUITS—Our aim in making our purchases of Fall and Winter Suits this year was to give the greatest value at the least price. We've made a specialty this season of pretty, stylish, serviceable suits at prices considerably less than are quoted elsewhere for equal values. There's something immensely "catchy" about the fashionable Capes and Jackets made for this Fall and Winter wear. You'll find that the assortment that we have to offer gives you the full benefit of every artistic element of the season's styles.

N. B. We will have a lot of Palms, Rubber Plants, &c., on display during opening days that will be for sale cheap.

JUNIOR MECHANICS TANGLE

Councils Will Work as Before and Await Charter Restoration.

The recent rupture in the Junior Order United American Mechanics, at its State Council meeting in Scranton, has left its status somewhat unsettled. For the guidance of the membership State Councilor Bowers, of Altoona, has issued the following circular:

"You will continue to transact business the same as before, receiving dues, paying benefits, receiving members, etc. If the matter is not fully determined before the current password expires, which will not be for thirty days after the 1st of October, you will receive further instructions from me. In the meantime, an effort will be made to have the charter restored to the loyal Councils of the state, and such as will affirm their allegiance to the supreme law, if, after trial and conviction, the charter is forfeited. Should the charter be restored it will be necessary to hold another session of the State Council at some central place to receive the same, and proceed with and complete the work of the late session. POLITICAL POINTS.

How doth the busy candidate,
Improve each shining hour;
He's on the go from morn 'till late,
At home or on a tour.

Candidate McLaughlin is recognized as the joker in this campaign. And the people will take the trick in November.

Are the people going to allow the Butler township "statesmen" to conduct the county's affairs? Well, hardly!

A Tamaqua paper publishes the state ticket as the tail to the county ticket. That editor is twisted.

Now let us get down to the real work of the campaign, and every Republican do his duty.

It would make interesting reading for several of the Democratic candidates to give their views on the currency question.

The Republicans of Shenandoah will present a solid front this year. Unlike their opponents, party dissension is not apparent and there are no sores to heal.

There is already a family quarrel on in the Democratic ranks. It is a contest between the two candidates for Commissioner as to which shall be the minority member of the next Board. As the campaign progresses the bitterness will be intensified.

John T. Schooner is a name known, and spoken of favorably in every home in Schuylkill county. His hearty supporters are not confined to the Republican ranks, and his popularity was fully attested when he received unanimous nomination for Clerk of the Courts. With all he is one of the most obliging officials on the hill.

Buy Royal Patent Flour. It is the best in the market.

Married.

At three o'clock this afternoon the holy bonds of matrimony were performed on Miss Margaret Wade and Patrick F. Reddy, both of West Cherry street. The happy couple was attended by Miss Mary Wade, a sister of the bride, and John Conville. Many spectators were present at the ceremony. A wedding feast followed at the residence of the bride's mother, which was attended by the families and relatives of the bride and groom. Both young people are favorably known about town. They have taken up their residence at 410 West Cherry street.

Charles Goyne, of Ashland, and Miss Alita McSurdy, of Philadelphia, were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs D. W. McSurdy, in that city, yesterday afternoon. The bride was a former resident of Ashland.

Miss Jennie Conrad, of Pottsville, and Ambrose C Messerschmidt, of Philadelphia, were married last evening at the home of the bride's parents.

Deeds Recorded.

The Street Paving.

Contractor Britt resumed work on the street paving this morning, and this afternoon the concreting of the intersection of Main and Centre streets was completed. If the weather continues favorable, he will push the work to completion. The Traction Company has completed the laying of their tracks, and are now ballasting the same.

Ready For Play.

The Star foot ball team has been organized for the season and is now ready to accept challenges from any team in the county. All communications should be sent to Harvey Stettler, North West street, who is manager.

School Children's Day

To-day was school children's day at the California on Wheels exhibition. The management of the cars distributed 2,600 tickets among the pupils of the different schools.

One of nature's remedies; cannot harm the weakest constitution; never fails to cure summer complaints of young or old. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Election of Lieutenant.

The election of First Lieutenant of Co E. 8th Regt., N. G. P., of Mahanoy City, will be held in Armory hall at 7 o'clock this evening. There are three candidates for the honor: Dr. H. R. Bricker, Thompson Medlar and Corporal Lugan.

Letter From Manila.

Assistant District Attorney Moran received a letter from his brother, Wm. H. Moran, of Girardville, now a member of Co. M, 19th Regiment U. S. Infantry, stationed at Manila. He is enjoying good health.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Daniel F. Malone left town this morning for Philadelphia, to resume his medical studies at the University of Pennsylvania.

Proprietor W. H. Seeds, of the Hotel Ferguson, was a business visitor to Lewisburg to-day.

R. A. Davenport was in attendance at the wedding of a relative at Pottsville to day.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Owen Daley, whose death was announced yesterday, will take place from his late home in Centralia to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, interment in the parish cemetery at that place. He leaves a widow and six children.

All that was mortal of Mrs. Robert Green was interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery at Girardville this afternoon, and a large concourse of people were in attendance.

Mrs. Thomas Holland, an aged and respected lady of Middle Creek, died on Sunday morning, aged about 70 years. She is survived by three sons. The funeral took place this morning.

Rev. George S. Broadbent, a prominent minister in the Philadelphia M. E. Conference, died at Cheltenham, near Philadelphia, where he had a charge. Rev. Broadbent was well known to many Schuylkill countians.

The funeral of Harry P., seven-year-old son of Edward and Elizabeth Mates, of Brownsville, took place this afternoon from the family residence at Brownsville. Rev. Lloyd Roberts, of Mahanoy City, officiated at the service. The remains were taken to Mahanoy City for interment.

Richard Caffrey, general roadmaster of the Lehigh Valley Railroad, who was stricken with paralysis at an early hour Monday morning, died yesterday afternoon at his home in Bethlehem.

James Oliver, who claims Shenandoah as his place of residence, died in the insane department at the county almshouse this morning. Deceased was an inmate of the institution for twelve years. Efforts are being made to locate friends or relatives here to claim the body.

Borough Supervisor Sued.

Late this afternoon William Amulewicz, the East Centre street grocer, brought suit before Justice Shoemaker against Borough Supervisor Brennan and one of his laborers, John Fallon. The charge is assault and battery. In the scuffle Amulewicz sustained a swollen upper lip and blood flowed from his nose, while the Supervisor's right hand was gashed. The trouble arose over Amulewicz failing to remove his team from the front of his store to allow the Supervisor and his men to scatter a load of dirt which had been dumped there. After the fight Brennan requested Chief Burgess Tabor to remove the team, but he refused to do so, whereupon Officer Heaton was summoned and the Supervisor's request was granted.

Our merchant tailoring department is completed. You are invited to inspect the same. tf THE FAMOUS.

Held Up and Robbed.

Andrew Schwalm, of Hubley township, was held up and robbed last evening by three highwaymen armed with revolvers. He was compelled to step down from his wagon on the threat of being shot, and was then relieved of $140.

No Cars.

Owing to a scarcity of cars North Mahanoy colliery was compelled to suspend operations at noon to-day.

All Day Shoot.

A sweepstake shooting match will take place at the bicycle park at Mahanoy City, on Friday. There will be about 200 live birds besides many blue rocks used in the event. All the crack shooters of Schuylkill and surrounding counties will participate. It will be an all day shoot.
