PROPERTIES SOLD.

Those in the North of the County Disposed of by the Sheriff.

Sheriff Davis disposed of properties in the north of the county at sheriff's sale at the court house Monday.

A stay was granted in the execution against the property of Domer S. McCartney in Reade township, taken at the suit of Esther J. Barr. The property is McCartney's interest in the vein or seam of coal formerly worked by the Great Bend Coal Co., the title to the tracts having been vested in Martin Bell, president judge of Blair county, by deeds dated Dec. 5, 1894. The sale, if effected, will perfect the Blair county jurist's title to the coal.

To J. M. Enysart, the plaintiff, was sold for $50 the property of George S. Jenkins in Blandburg. John C. Gates, who issued against the property of Aaron Younkin in Reade township as the administrator of the estate of Geo. Walters took title for $625. Rembrandt Peale, the coal operator, paid $2,901 for the title of F. A. Shoemaker in the coal rights of three tracts in Susquehanna township, taken at the suit of use D. E. Notley.

Cheap and Convenient Tickets.

The thousand mile books sold by the New York Central at all stations at rate of $20.00 are the most convenient and economical form of transportation. They are good until used and will be accepted from the holder for any number of persons, not only on the New York Central, its leased lines and branches, but also on the Boston & Albany R. R., Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg Ry., Philadelphia and Reading, Atlantic City R. R., Central R. R. of Penna. and Pittsburg, Johnstown, Ebensburg & Eastern R. R., subject to the local regulations of those lines.
