Pre-Lenten Weddings Hit High Mark in Northern Cambria

MARY LOUISE HALUSKA, FRANCIS ZURENKO WED

Mary Louise Haluska, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haluska of Patton, became the bride of Francis Zurenko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zurenko of Carrolltown, at a very pretty ceremony performed at 9 a. m. Tuesday in St. George's Catholic Church, Patton. Rev. Father Alexis Horvath, the pastor, officiated, and also sang the nuptial high mass which followed.

Miss Louise Zurenko, sister of the bridegroom, served as the maid of honor and Joseph Haluska Jr., brother of the bride, acted as best man.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Leona Karlheim, church organist, presided at the organ console and the church choir sang the mass.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta and net and a finger tip veil with a tiara of beads and pearls. She carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid wore a pink taffeta gown and a matching shoulder-length veil with a tiara of flowers. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

After the ceremony a dinner and reception were held in the Eagles' Hall in Patton. The couple plan to reside in Carrolltown.

Miss Haluska is a graduate of the 1943 class of Patton High, and is a niece of State Sen. John J. Haluska. Mr. Zurenko, recently discharged, served as a sergeant in the ETO for 33 months. He is now employed as a mechanic by Grillo Bros. Garage, Barnesboro.

MARY ELEANOR LONG BRIDE OF RAY CIHAN

Miss Mary Eleanor Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin J. Long of 506 Palmer Ave., Patton, became the bride of Raymond Cihan, son of Peter Cihan, also of Patton, at a double-ring ceremony in St. Mary's Catholic Church, Patton, at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. Rev. Father Rupert Stadtmiller, pastor, officiated and sang the nuptial high mass which followed. Mrs. M. J. Shannon presided at the organ.

Miss Josephine Cihan, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and Jerry Long, fireman 1st class of the Navy, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride wore a beautiful white taffeta and net gown and a finger-tip veil arranged with ostrich feathers and carried a bridal bouquet of white snapdragons and fern. Miss Cihan wore a gown of aqua net and an arrangement of aqua ostrich feathers in her hair. She carried a bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

A wedding dinner was served to immediate relatives at the Commercial Hotel, Patton, and a wedding supper served at the Cihan home.

The bride is a graduate of the 1944 class of Patton High School and until recently had been employed in Harrisburg. The bridegroom graduated from Patton High in 1940 and was recently discharged from the Army after 33 months' service, 18 of which were spent overseas.
