8 County Employes Given Pay Hikes By Salary Board

Pay raises were granted to eight employees in the courthouse office of recorder of deeds, at a meeting of the Cambria County Salary Board last Friday afternoon.

The increases were requested by Clark Powell on the grounds that employees in his office were paid less than other workers in the Ebensburg Courthouse. Although the amount was not fixed immediately, increases were approved on the first Monday of last month; when the salary board met to set pay rates for all county employees for the ensuing year. At that time Mr. Powell was advised to make recommendations on an individual basis.

His recommendations were approved by the salary board last Friday as follows:

Jessie Vudragovich, Franklin, from $190 to $200, Joseph McCabe, Lilly, $176 to $185; Mary Sweeney, Cresson, from $160 to $170; Helen Feist, Conemaugh, from $146 to $160; Mary Yanko, Twin Rocks, from $146 to $160; Delores Hulgus, Colver, from $146 to $160; Dolores Rosensteele, Ebensburg, from $146 to $160; Margie Nemetz, Vintondale, from $146 to $160.
