Panthers Edge Out Nanty-Gloers, 56-49

Coach Angelo Laurito's Patton High School Pantners stopped a tough Nanty-Glo Ram cage squad, 56-49, Tuesday night of this week in a game at Nanty-Glo. It was the first Northern Cambria League win for the locals who have a 1-2 standing for third place in the loop. The Panthers lost both other league games by only a few points.

The Rams started fast with a 20-10 opening round, but the Patton lads cut that margin and held a 23-21 intermission lead following a 13-11 margin in the second quarter. The Laurito boys then began to roll as they pushed aside the home team with a 20-8 outburst in the third period and capped the lip on the victory with an 13-10 margin in the closing frame.

Litzinger tallied 14 points for the Patton squad and teammates J. Gooderham and Malkin each sunk 12 markers. Bylch of Nanty-Glo took the game's scoring honors with 18 tallies.

The Panther Cubs suffered a 47-21 loss in the preliminary contest. The varsity summary:

Patton—Swanhart f 7, D. Gooderham f 6, J. Gooderham c 12, Garrity g 5, Litzinger g 14, Malkin 12, Letso 0, McKee 0.
Nanty-Glo—Bylch f 18, Cavanaugh f 8, Moore c 9, Kenniburg g 4, Brusko g 2, Pattarini 3, Myers 3, Vermilion 2.

Police Hold Key To Success of Civil Defense Program

Highways Must Remain Open Says Donovan

Policemen hold the key to the success or failure of all civil defense activities according to Capt. E. J. Donovan, who is in charge of police work for State Council of Civil Defense.

Capt. Donovan spoke at a tri-county meeting of police officials at the Courthouse in Ebensburg on Monday evening.

He said that if police do not keep arteries of travel open, none of the other civil defense units can move. He pointed out that police will have to keep nearby highways open so that outside aid can be rushed to a stricken community. He added that the whole program will bog down if police do not do their job.

Stressing the scope of police work in an emergency, he reported that there are more than 2,500 crossroads and 1,000 bridges in the three-county area. He said trained men—both regular police and volunteers—will be needed to patrol many of these in an emergency. He added that police also will have to maintain order and control panic.

Donovan, a veteran state policeman, urged officials to speed the job of recruiting auxiliary policemen in their home communities. He said communities cannot wait for the state to do everything, adding that civil defense is a matter of survival and must begin at the grassroots.

Judge John H. McCann scored the State Legislature for failure to grant more money for civil defense. Other speakers included Max Bloomberg, county civil defense director; Sheriff John Conway, head of the security division in the county, and Commissioner Pat Farrell, chief of the industrial division.

State Inheritance Tax Clerk Named

Mrs. Lisetta Maurer's Office In Courthouse

Another personnel change was announced at the Cambria County Courthouse in Ebensburg on Tuesday of this week as staff adjustments continue with the beginning of a new administration.

Miss Lisetta Maurer of Ebensburg switches from the county payroll to the state payroll under the transfer announced Tuesday. An employee in the treasurer's office for the past eight years, Miss Maurer now will be located in the office of Register of Wills Michael J. Hartnett.

Miss Maurer will serve as inheritance tax clerk and will be paid by the state. The position has been vacant since last fall when Mrs. Katherine Moose of South Fork was transferred to another state department. Miss Maurer's new appointment was announced by Otto F. Messner, state secretary of revenue.

The switch does not affect the two positions made vacant last week when Mr. Hartnett retained only three of his staff of five persons. However, it does leave a vacancy in the office of Treasurer Dennis L. Westrick.

Three employees under the Republican administration in the treasurer's office have now left that office. In addition to Miss Maurer they are Roy B. Griffith, former first deputy, and Byron W. Davis. Only Mr. Griffith has been permanently replaced to date. Mr. Westrick said he is not certain when the other two jobs will be filled.

Special Teachers' Meetings Jan. 29-31 In Courtroom 3

Meetings to acquaint the high school principals, guidance counselors, and teachers guidance, science and social studies with the Pennsylvania curriculum program will be held at the Ebensburg Courthouse on Jan. 31, according to announcement made by Alvin T. Buck, assistant county superintendent of schools.

New curriculum bulletins for secondary schools and several phases of the guidance program will be discussed.

Speakers will include Dr. Frederick L. Pond, supervising circulum constultant, Dept. of Public Instruction, Harrisburg, and Eugene Kunselman, chairman, Central-Western Committee on Social Studies, of Indiana, Pa.

On Tuesday evening, Jan. 29 a meeting of primary teachers is to be held at the Courthouse, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

A talk on reading will be given by Miss Kathryn Opes, reading consultant of the Macmillion Co., who recently returned to the U. S. after teaching for some time in Germany.
