EAST DALLAS

MRS. DAISY PRYNN

Mrs. Daisy Prynn, Rochester, N. Y., has been spending the last three weeks at her cottage at Patterson Grove. She returned to East Dallas Friday night to her brother Giles Wilson's home for several days. On Saturday she had lunch with her brother Ted and Jule Wilson. The afternoon they spent at Ted's Lake, T. J., where she visited other grand nieces who were there. While at the lake she went fishing and caught herself a mess of fish (I hope they were good). She returned Sunday to Bunker Hill with her daughter, Mrs. Chester Glahn. From here she left Monday morning for her home in Rochester. Mrs. Prynn will be eighty one years old in October. She was so thrilled over her catch of fish and will be proud to read it in the Post, I'll bet, as she is a subscriber and does not miss a thing in it.

Mrs. Giles Wilson is ill at her home with a bad case of shingles, which are very painful to her. Giles seems to be getting a little better after taking whirl pool treatments. I wish hem both speedy recoveries.

Mrs. Maxine Mishler, Vancouver, Wash., spent Monday till Thursday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin. She is the former Mrs. Frank Martin of Demunds Road, who had lived on the Payne estate,, now owned by Harry Goeringer. It has been twenty nine years since they had seen one another, so had a very happy visit.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

The All Charge First Quarterly Conference under the direction of our new District Superintendent, Dr. Roswell Lyon, was held in the East Dallas Church, Monday evening, July 25, with a good crowd.

The official board met an hour earlier the same evening with the following attending: Rev. Howard Hockingbury, Harry and Florence Martin, Philip Culver, Mary Ryman, Myra Carlin, Jessie Moore, Glen Howell and Irene Moore.

Mrs. Ed. (Edith) Morris, son George and family, David Eric and Nancy Ann, Pittston, visited her sister Jeanette Dickinson and family last Sunday. Other visiters were Helen Dickinson's brother Peter Tkatch, his wife and sons Peter Jr., and Michael of Nanticoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ryman and children Lloyd, Inez, Lois and husband Joe Hardisky, celebrated Mrs. Ryman's sister's seventieth birthday, Mrs. Esther Lewis in Mount Holly, New Jersey; a week ago Sunday.

Rusty Eyet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eyet, Martz Road has been ill with a respiratory infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brown, Clifton Heights, and family, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Morgan, Demunds Road. Larry Jr., who had been vacationing with aunt Jennie and uncle Art., was sick over having to leave the country and return to his home in HOT Philadelphia."

S. S. PICNIC

Methodist Church, Orange, enjoyed their church school picnic at Lake T. J. last Thursday afternoon. They took their own picnic lunch with the exception of meat and ice cream, which was provided by the church.

Mr. and Mrs. John (Bud) Buccan, and family, Rhode Island, spent a weekend recently with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Moore, Ransom Road. Mrs. Buccan is the former Jeraldine Moore. John Jr., remained on the farm for his vacation which will end when his grand parents take him back home and spend a week or two with their other children, Charles and Jean in Rhode Island. While away, Mrs. Moore's nephew and wife, Ellwood Montanye, Johnson City will take care of the farm.

Mrs. Pearl Stanton, State College, and her two grandsons, visited her son Warren Stanton and family last Monday and Tuesday.

Alex Cook, Roushey Plot, was taken to Nesbitt Hospital last Wednesday night, where he was put in an oxygen tent immediatly; after special care he was able to return to his home Saturday.

MRS. PETER WILSON DIES

Mrs. Peter (Hazle) Wilson, New Milford, passed away Friday afternoon July 29, in Medical Arts Nursing home, which is connected with the Montrose Hospital. Her husband Peter, brother of Giles and Ted Wilson, preceded her in death by six months and one day. He died February 28.

HOWELL BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Howell, lower Demunds Road, were happy to have their two daughters, Lois Myers from New Brunswick, N. J. and Alberta Howell from Levittown, Pa., visit them last week. They spent one of their days taking their parents on a birthday picnic to celebrate the 80th., birthday of their dad. They went to Hickory Run and also visited Boulder Field. The legend is that, Hickory Run, about a thousand years ago, it was all covered with ice, which when it melted left all white rocks; 30 acres and not a blade of grass anywhere. I would like to see that some day. Who knows? I just might.

Other guests of Howells last week were, Mrs. Howell's brother Alpha Dymond and wife; Tarpon Springs, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Felger, Bradenton, Fla., who also visited other relatives and friends in the area. The Howells and daughters also spent last Wednesday at Lake Jean.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Eyet and sons have returned to their home on Martz Road, following a few days vacation in Ocean City and New Jersey last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Moore and children occupied a cottage at Brightwater Beach, N. J., all last week. They looked like a different family when they returned. They were all a beautiful brown. Brother David Moore and family spent the same time there; only four cottages apart.

Mr. and Mrs. David Moore, Passic, N. J., are visiting both their parents this week; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Croman and Irene Moore. Of course their four children are here also.

Mr. and Mrs. Lanny Carlin, two and a half year old Billie and two month baby girl "Amy", from Kirkwood, N. Y., visited his aunt, Myra Carlin last Saturday. Lanny and his family went on later to attend a reunion of Mrs. Carlin's side of the family in Reading.

New members who were taken in and welcomed in the East Dallas Methodist Church Sunday morning, were, Misses Marian and Linda Stredney; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frydlewicz; Ernest Price and Mrs. Florence Miller. Mrs. Daniel Marks, mother of Mrs. Frydlewicz was also present at this important service.

James Pellam, who was injured by a hit and run motorist in Luzerne a week ago Tuesday, remains a patient in Nesbitt Hospital. The full extent of his injuries is not known; but he has a badly broken right hand and at first was thought to have a broken hip. We wish you God's speed to recovery, Jim.

All were glad to see Diane Pickett home from college and in East Dallas Church Sunday morning, and to hear her say that her dad, Robert Pickett was home from the Nesbitt Hospital.

Mrs. Elizabeth Billings, Upper Demunds Road is a patient in General Hospital, undergoing tests.
