NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Supervisors of Franklin Township will hold a public hearing to consider and discuss the enactment of a proposed Zoning Ordinance of Franklin Township at a special meeting on the 17th day of March, 1975, at 8:00 PM, E.D.S.T., in the basement of the Orange United Methodist Church, Orange, Franklin Township, Pennsylvania. The Franklin Township Supervisors have prepared the proposed Zoning Ordinance to promote the health, safety, morals, convenience, order, prosperity or welfare of the present and future inhabitants of Franklin Township, Pennsylvania, in accordance with the Pennsylvania Municipalities Planning Code, as amended, supplemented or replaced by other applicable acts of the General Assembly. In preparation of this proposed Zoning Ordinance for Franklin Township, the Township Superviosrs have prepared and reviewed maps of existing land use in Franklin Township; estimated future land needs and their distribution throughout the community; estimated existing and future population totals and distributions; reviewed the economy of the area; reviewed locations of sub-divisions already developing or planned; studied areas served by water and possible extensions; reviewed sewerage plans for the Township; checked with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Environmental Resources in regard to proper lot areas where neither public water no sewers are available, or where only public water exists; reviewed plans for school and recreation areas; studied the highway pattern and reviewed other pertinent components of a Comprehensive Plan. Copies of the proposed Ordinance may be examined at the home of Harold Hoover, Township Secretary, R.D. 3, Dallas, Pennsylvania. The Supervisors of Franklin Township will vote on the enactment of the proposed Zoning Ordinance at their regular meeting on April 6, 1975.
