Food drive exceeds goal

The community service program at Wyoming Seminary's Upper School completed its second annual food drive, collecting a variety of non-perishable food items from students, faculty and staff. The two-week drive, which gathered 1,855 items, exceeding the project's 1,500 item goal. The food was donated to the Northeast Regional Food Bank.From left: Lindsay Romanowski, Shavertown; Alexis Anselmi, Dallas; and Sarah Goodwin, Harveys Lake.

Pambianco to attend free enterprise week

John Pambianco, son of John and Pamela Pambianco from Trucksville and a junior at Dallas High School has been granted a full scholarship to attend Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week 2001 on the campus of Lycoming College, Williamsport.

Pambianco will attend a one-week session this summer. Approximately 1,200 students from across the Commonwealth have received scholarships, which cover the cost of room, board, materials and scheduled activities. Funds for scholarships are contributed by businesses or community organizations.

Participants will join with business people to experience the challenge of competition through a business management simulation. They will assume the roles of top management for fictitious companies.

In addition to the management simulation, participants will hear top business leaders discussing topics such as business ethics, the stock market, and careers in business.

Karen Novicki is Wilkes University's Adult Learner of the Year

Karen Novicki Lambert, Luzerne, is Wilkes University's 2001 Adult Learner of the year. Lambert is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Novicki of Trucksville.

Lambert pursued her Bachelor of Arts degree in Communications and graduated in January with a cumulative grade point average of 3.95. She will enter Wilkes's graduate program in the fall to pursue a master's degree in Instructional Technology.

A graduate of Bishop O'Reilly High School, Lambert earned an associate's degree in Art from Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus in Lehman in 1991 and was one of the first graduates of Luzerne County Community College's graphic Communications/Printing Technology Program in 1993.

Summer camp for high school students

The Northeast Pennsylvania Area health Education Center (NEPA AHEC) is offering an exciting week long camp for high school students called Exploring Careers in Health. The camp will be held on the campus of Keystone College in LaPlume, July 16 to the 20 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day.

The week-long day camp is open to all interested students entering their sophomore, junior, and senior years, as well as graduating seniors. Students must attend school or live in the nine county NEPA AHEC region-Lackawanna, Luzerne, Wyoming, Monroe, Pike, Wayne, Susquehanna, Sullivan and Bradford.

Interested students need to complete a simple application from their guidance counselor or from the NEPA AHEC office at 945-5623. Applications are due by May 15 and once a student is informed of admission there is a $30 fee that covers the cost of the entire week including meals.
