THE ELECTIONS.

The township and borough elections will be held Feb. 19th, persons will be elected to conduct local affairs for the next year. The nominations are made and voters have an opportunity to select the men best qualified for the respective offices. It is simply a matter of expending the taxes, which the people pay, in the most judicious manner and the men most capable and willingly to do so should be selected. If there are men on the ticket who will lend their voices and votes to jobs or to the expenditure of money for so called improvements which will bear too heavily on the public they should be kept out of the offices. It is proper that improvements be made, but it is also proper that they be made by having regard for the taxpayers interests. One of the most important positions is that of assessor and only careful men with good judgement and fair minds should be chosen. The returns made annually to the commissioners show cases of gross neglect and carelessness and if they were not serious would be ridiculous.

If voters are careless or hide bound in sticking to the ticket they have only themselves to blame if inefficient and incompetent, or worse, crafty aed scheming men involve them in a slough of taxes and debt.

PRINTING THE BALLOTS.

The county commissioners recently invited bids for printing the ballots for the Febuary election and in good faith the PRESS bid $63.50 for the work and the Dispatch bid $71 50. Last Monday the two Democratic members of the board awarded the work to the Dispatch which it accepted at the figures bid by the PRESS. While the taxpayers receive the benefit of this competition yet we submit that there is, or should be, after work is bid for a principle in the matter of awarding it to the lowest bidder.

CHURCH NOTES

The subjects for next Sabbath are, "The madness of the Prophet," and "Gods signals."

The exposition of the Gospel according to St. Mark is bringing out some very profitable discussions, by the members of the Bible class. We believe that the men of the congregation can find no more profitable way to spend an hour, than by joining in these most helpful discussions. The third chapter of Mark is the basis for our next discussion. Read this before you come.

The new century home book, by Frank DePuy, is given to all subscribers to our church paper the Christian Advocate. The books are at the parsonage. If you take the Advocate, call and receive your present. We will not venture a review of the book, but will say that it is our conviction that no one can read the book and not feel a deeper interest in the place we call home. To make home the best place in all the earth, for boys and girls, for husband and wife, for all who enter it is, surely, a laudable ambition The New Century Home Book will help you in making a home.

Some familiar faces are missed from our regular church services. We trust that the ills of our physical life will give place to general good health, and that the remainder of the winter may find us able, not only to attend the services of the church, but also to eng ge in any definite work that we may find to do for the advancement of the religious life of the community.

We desire to express our appreciation for the interest taken in the sermons on evidences. We believe the people of Milford, at least appreciate the truth. We trust that this interest may develop into life and that in continued worship together, that life may be developed and made to abide.

Will Boom his Business.

S. Laval, a merchant, of Dallas, Tex., writes: "I thought I would have to give up business, after two years of suffering from general debility brought on by overwork and long hours, but four bottles of Electric Bitters gave me new life. I can eat anything, sleep well and feel like working all the time. It's the best medicine on earth." It's a wonderful tonic and health builder for tired, weak, sickly and run down people. Try it. Satisfation guaranteed. Only 50c at all drug stores.

Dress making in all branches. Will go to the house or do the work at home. Addres MARY LUDWIG, opposite Sawkill Mill, Milford, Pa.

Consumption

is destruction of lung by a growing germ, precisely as mouldy cheese is destruction of cheese by a growing germ.

If you kill the germ, you stop the consumption. You can or can't, according to when you begin.

Take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil: take a little at first.

The genuine has this picture on it, take no other.

It acts as a food; it is the easiest food. Seems not to be food; makes you hungry; eating is comfortable. You grow stronger. Take more; not too much; enough is as much as you like and agrees with you. Satisfy hunger with usual food; whatever you like and agrees with you.

When you are strong again, have recovered your strength—the germs are dead; you have killed them.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample. Its agreeable taste will surprise you.

SCOTT & BOWNE,
Chemists,
409 Pearl St., New York.
50c. and $1.00; all druggists.

FALLING HAIR

Does this illustrate your experience? And are you worried for fear you are soon to be bald?

Then cease worrying, for help is at hand. You need something that will put new life into the hair bulbs.

You need a hair food, such as—

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It brings health to the hair, and the falling ceases.

It always restores color to gray hair. You need not look at thirty as if you were fifty, for your gray hair may have again all the dark, rich color of youth.

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I am a barber by trade and have had a great deal to do with your Hair Vigor. I have found that it will do everything that you claim for it. It has given me the most complete satisfaction in my business." HENRY J. GROSOR.
March 22, 1899. Kansas City, Mo.

Write the Doctor.

If you do not obtain all the benefits you expected from the use of the Vigor, write the Doctor about it. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

Another Engagement Broken.

Tommy—My sister Ethel has lots of trouble with her teeth.

Mr. Wappington—Does she?

Tommy—Yes; she dropped 'em on the floor last week and broke 'em.—Sommerville Journal.

Experience.

Husband—It is a great pity that women are not eligible as income tax collectors.

Wife—Why?

Husband—So many of them are admirably qualified.—Harlem Life.

The Plot That Failed.

"Arabella doesn't look at all happy."

"No; she married a man younger than herself under the impression that he would be more manageable than an older one."—Chicago Record.

Giving Away a Secret.

"You'd better eat it slow," said Johnny to the clergyman, who was dining with the family. "Mamma never gives more'n one piece o' pie." — Chicago Tribune.

Born Lucky.

"Tommy," said his gentle-faced grandmother, "you're a regular little glutton. How can you eat so much?"

"Don't know, granny. S'pose it's just good luck."—Tit-Bits.

Exceptions.

"I know it is said," averred Uncle Allen Sparks, "that every family has a black sheep, but sometimes it isn't a black sheep at all—it's an old goat."—Chicago Tribune.

Pride Before a Fall.

"Did you approach that member of the legislature with an offer of pecuniary compensation?" said one practical politician.

"I did," answered the other. "He repudiated the suggestion with scorn."

"Humph! I'm afraid we'll have to discipline him for acting proud and haughty, and trying to convey the impression that he doesn't need money like ordinary people."—Washington Star.

The Morning After.

Mrs. Jaggs (the next morning)—Do you know what time you got home last night?

Mr. Jaggs—It must have been pretty late, but an important business transaction detained me at the office, and—by the way, dear, did you see anything of my shoes?

"Yes; you'll find them hanging on the hat-rack in the hall, just where you left them."—Tit-Bits.

Then and Now.

Some years ago we daily heard
Of the new woman bold,
But now we seldom hear a word—
She must be getting old.
—Chicago Daily News.

Incomplete.

He—Of course, you took in the dog show. How did you like it?

She—I was disappointed. I was particularly anxious to see one of those ocean greyhounds, but there wasn't a single one there.—Philadelphia Press.
