BALTIMORE MARKETS.

From the Baltimore American of Tuesday last.

FLOUR.—The market for Flour continues dull and decidedly heavy. The only sales reported were one of 100 bbls. Howard Street Super at $5 50, and one of 150 bbls. do. cut Extra at $5.75 per bbl., at which figures more could have been had. We quote Howard Street Super at $5 50; Shipping brands Extra at $6.12½; family do. at $6.50a6 75.

GRAIN.—Grain was in quite light supply this morning and for all descriptions the market was dull. At the Baltimore Exchange there was however a little business done. There were some 2,000 bushels Wheat, and about 6,000 bushels Corn offered in market, and sales were made of 300 bushels of wheat at 132 cts, and about 1,500 bushels Corn at 62 cts for white, and 58 cts. for yellow. There were also 1,000 bushels Oats offered, and a sale of 300 bushels Pennsylvania was made at 38 cts. per bushel.

SEEDS.—We quote Cloverseed as before, at $4 25a4 37½ for fair to good. $4 50 for strictly prime, and Timothy at $2a2.25 per bushel.

MARRIAGES.

ANTICIPATED BATTLE!

WHILST wars and rumors of wars are rife throughout our once happy land, when columns of armed men are seen on all sides, marching forward in defence of their "sacred rights," and all are eager for the expected contest, each moment carries us nearer the frightful drama, that will soon be enacted. Yet while all this convulsion is in progress, other scenes are continually transpiring to excite the minds of the people, and lately this community has been greatly astounded by the tremendous rush of people to
