For Sale.—Fifty shares of stock in the Waynesboro', Greencastle and Mercersburg Turnpike. For particulars apply at this office.

Public Sales.—We direct special attention to the large sale of stock and other property advertised by Mr. ABR'M SHOCKEY in to-days paper. Also the furniture sale of Mr. JOS. H. CREBS, of this place, and sales of Mrs. ANN M. HOLLINGER and WM. J. LOWE.

The Quotas.—This township is now paying to volunteers a private bounty of $150, and we learn the quota is rapidly filling up. To fill her quota under the last call of the President our Borough wants twelve volunteers and offers the same bounty, $150.

Get the Best—Headley's Standard History of the great Rebellion.—B. F. SNIDER the agent for this great History is now canvassing Quincy and Washington Townships for the sale of this most popular work. Mr. Headley is without exception one of the greatest writers of the age and has treated the present subject with his rarest powers. His well known reputation as a Historical writer is a sufficient guarantee as to the character of this great History. Every person should have a copy of Headley's Standard History.

A New Enterprise.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that Messrs. J. & B. FRICK propose erecting at Ringgold, Md., a Mill and Evaporator for the manufacture of syrup from sugar cane. From our exchanges we learn that 30,000 gallons of syrup were last year made in Connecticut, seven-eighths of which was the product of New Haven county, and which readily sold at seventy-five cents per gallon. The cane was raised upon the poorest Connecticut lands, and yielded a profitable return to farmers who cultivated it. Will not some of our farmer friends try the experiment?

Chambersburg Commercial College.—The advertisement of this institution will be found in another column of to-day's paper, to which we invite the special attention of young men. To those desiring a commercial education it affords advantages surpassed by few if any similar institutions.

The Ladie's Friend.—We are in receipt of the February number of this new and popular periodical. So far as its contents and embellishments are concerned it surpasses the January number. Among the embellishments are a beautiful steel-plate engraving and double fashion plate. Terms $2 per annum.

Farm Sold.—Mr. GEORGE HOOVER recently sold his farm near this place, at private sale containing 45 acres, for the sum $6.250. Purchaser, Miss MARY SHOCKEY.

Call Accepted.—Rev. F. W. CONRAD has accepted the call tendered him by the Lutheran congregation of Chambersburg.

United Brethren Appointments.—The annual session of the East Pennsylvania Conference of the United Brethren Church closed its labors at Mechanicsburg last week. Bishop Markwood, of Virginia, presided. The following are the appointments made for the ensuing year:

YORK DISTRICT.—N. ALTMAN, P. E.—York, J. Erb; Mechanicsburg, W. B. Raber; Baltimore, Conway St., J. A. Sand; Scott St., J. P. Bishop; Shiremanstown, D. Eberly, J. Baltzell; York Circuit, S. Enterline; Manchester, F. Brashear; Paradise, W. R. Craumer; Liverpool, P. Corl; Perry, H. Brown; York spring, J. H. Young; Jeckesburg, J. C. Weidler; Philadelphia, S. L. Minnick.

CHAMBERSBURG DISTRICT.—J. W. Burd, P. E.—Chambersburg, J. Dickson; Orrstown, H. Y. Hummelbaugh; Big Spring, Z. A. Colestock; Rocky Spring, J. M. Bishop, Greencastle, J. C. Smith; Alto Dale, W. Humberger; St. Thomas, W. A. Jackson; Path Valley, S. Young; Shippensburg, H. A. Sleichter; Littlestown, J. N. Bushong; Bendersville, J. A. Clem; Carlisle, I. Bigham; Bethany, J. B. Jones.

The Rule that did'nt "Pass."—The Repository insists that we have misrepresented its object in reference to legal advertising. If the object of the Rule dismissed by the Court, was simply to establish "legally," that the Repository has the largest circulation, and not to monopolize the legal advertising of the county, we would like to know how "its ends" have been accomplished, or in other words, what it has gained by the proceeding. Nor can we divine the necessity of establishing "legally" that which is universally conceded. A few years ago the Court passed a Rule which was afterwards rescinded, requiring all legal advertisements to be published in the Repository and Spirit, and parties were compelled to advertise there whether they felt so disposed or not. The Repository revived the old Rule, and notwithstanding the Court refused to pass it, "its ends are accomplished." Strange reasoning!

Newspaper Change.—Messrs. MITTAG & SNEARY have disposed of the office of the Hagerstown Herald and Torch to John McCURDY and E. W. CURRIDEN. If the retiring publishers have not been amply remunerated for their services it is not because they were not deserving of it, for few individuals have devoted to an enterprise through upwards of twenty years more energy and unceasing labor than they. To these efforts on their part the Herald is what it is, a most influential and profitable Journal. The new firm, in whose hands its well earned reputation will no doubt be fully sustained, have our best wishes for future success.

Volunteering.—The volunteering in this county during the last week was unexampled since the first call for troops. Col. Boyd's cavalry regiment is now about full—certainly not less than 1,000 strong, and every branch of the service has been liberally strengthened by our county. A majority of the districts have already filled their quotas, and we doubt not that before the 1st day of March every man called for from the Old Green Spot will be in the service; and besides we have scores of men credited to other localities.—Repository.

Sentence Commuted.—Isaac Fishel, a citizen of York county, tried sometime since at Chambersburg upon the charge of desertion and of piloting Fitzhugh Lee through York county last summer, and sentenced to be hung at Carlisle Barricks on the 18th inst., has had his sentence commuted to ten years in the Penitentiary.

The Difference.—While the Copperheads denounce the Amnesty Proclamation as unwise and revolutionary, repenting Rebels are accepting the proffered mercy and urge other of their deluded friends to do the same. Repentant rebels of the South advise submission; sympathizers in the north advise them to hold out. That is the difference.

☞James B. Clay, a son of the revered Henry Clay of Kentucky, lately died in Canady, to which place he was driven by Union bayonets—he being a Rebel. It will be remembered that this was the fellow who tore down his father's house, and sold the timber to be used in manufacturing canes. For this George D. Prentice stigmatized him as the "degenerate son of an illustrious sire."

☞Despatches from West Virginia state that our forces, under Colonel Mulligan, sent in pursuit of the Rebels, under General Early, after six hours' hard fighting drove the enemy from Moorefield, and then sharply engaged General Rosser, on the south bank of the Potomac. It is said that we have taken a number of prisoners, and that our success has been signal and brilliant.

☞The Michigan Legislature proposes to appropriate $3,500 towards laying out and beautifying that part of Gettysburg National Cemetery allotted to that State.

Farm Sold.—Rev. Jos. S. Loose has sold his farm in Antrim township, at $85 per acre. Purchaser, Christian Strite.

BOUNTIES TO VOLUNTEERS.—The Senate of New York has authorized the supervisors of New York city to expend $4,000,000 in bounties to volunteers. The City Councils of Philadelphia have passed a bill appropriating $2,000,000 to pay similar bounties.

Coventry, Connecticut, it is said, has filled its quota with Maryland negroes, paying $125 a head for them.

IMPORTANT NEWS.

AN ADVANCE ON RICHMOND

FORTRESS MONROE, Feb. 8.—The Richmond Examiner of to-day is just received here, and contains the following important news:

Richmond is threatened by the enemy. On Saturday night our pickets were driven in at Bottoms Bridge, twelve miles from the city. The enemy crossed the York river railroad near Despatch station. A large force was massed at Buhrmansville, and moved toward to Talleysville yesterday afternoon, and was then advancing. Their force consists of three brigades of infantry, four regiments of cavalry, and twelve pieces of artillery. The enemy's demonstration yesterday was probably intended as a reconnoissance preliminary to an important collision to day.

Certainly the enemy has come in numbers which preclude the idea of a mere raid.

CHARLESTON, Feb. 5.—Eighty shots were fired at the city to-day. The monitors firing 11 and 15-inch shells.

The steamer S. R. Spaulding arrived last night from Beaufort. Telegraphic communication has been resumed with Newbern.—The rebels have retired, and all is quiet.

ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

BRILLIANT SUCCESS.

Gen. Sedgwick in Command.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 8.—The Chronicle of yesterday says:

We are informed that a reconnoissance in force was made by the Army of the Potomac on Saturday last, the 3d Army Corps moving to the Rapidan at 8 A. M. on that day. The enemy resisted the crossing, but, despite their utmost efforts to prevent it, the corps named was finally successful in laying a pontoon bridge, over which it advanced, driving the enemy before them, and capturing a large number of prisoners.

This engagement, resulting, as reported, so brilliantly to our army, lasted two hours, the rebels annoying our forces with their artillery and sharpshooters, but, as the sequel proved, without avail.

At 4 P. M., the 2d Army Corps having in the interim also crossed, the advance was continued, the enemy, as before, offering protracted resistance, but in vain. They fought stubbornly for two hours, but, as in the first fight fell back, having been baffled in all their attempts to repulse or check our intrepid columns. Their loss in prisoners, in the two engagements, is rumored to be very large, as well as in killed and wounded.

We are not advised how much farther the reported reconnoissance in force will be extended, but it is claimed that its results are very satisfactory. The strength of the enemy has been ascertained, and other important movements will speedily follow.

Major General Sedgwick is now in command of the Army of the Potomac, General Meade being detained at home by sickness.

Reported Mutiny in the Rebel Army —Deserters Coming in.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 8.—Despatches from Chattanooga, Tenn., dated yesterday, says that the railroad is now open to Cleveland, Tenn., and will be open to Knoxville in five days.

There are reports of a wide-spread mutiny in the rebel army. Deserters are still coming in.

The railroad depot, containing quartermaster's stores, etc, was burned at Chattanooga on Saturday. The loss amounted to $100,000.

Gen. Logan's expedition has returned to Huntsville without encountering the enemy. The rebel army is located around Tunnel Hill, Dalton, and Rome.

One thousand and forty-eight deserters were registered at the provost marshal's office during the month of January, and one hundred and ten came in on the 2d instant.

A DEAD MAN DRIVING A HORSE.—The Galena Democrat tells of a man who, in a buggy, was slowly passing a farm house in the neighborhood of Warren, Ill., one of the cold days last week. The woman of the house thinking that he must be very cold, called on him to come in and warm himself. He made no reply, but, turning neither to the right or left, kept slowly on his way.—The lady fearing that the man would freeze, knowing that there was no house for five miles in the direction he was going, requested her husband to follow him and induce him to stop and warm himself. He did so and coming up, found him frozen stiff, dead, with whip in one hand and lines in the other.

The Richmond Examiner of the 6th inst. says that the Confederate Congress has got into a pet with the newspaper men, and will conscript all below 45, making it necessary to suspend all the papers except such as are necessary to execute Government printing. There are now about thirty papers published in the Confederacy.

Eight tons of greenbacks were carried over the New Jersey Railroad to Washington one day last week. The money is said to be the collections of different internal revenue officers.

It is stated that 28,000 muskets have been gathered up on the field of Gettysburg. Of these, 24,000 were found to be loaded, 12,000 containing two loads, and 6,000 from three to ten loads each.

The Government has possession, as contrabands, of 130 negroes from the plantation of Col Sothoron, of St. Mary's county, Md. the murderer of Lieut. White. They are now at Norfolk.

At Richmond, on Wednesday corn meal was selling at $22 a $25 per bushel, butter $6 per pound, lard $3.75 and pork $2.75 per pound.
