100 Won Prizes At Auto Picnic

commissioner of motor vehicles and director of the Statewide safety campaign now getting under way, appealed to the motorists of Lancaster county to co-operate in this drive. "Death is riding behind the steering wheel on the highways of Pennsylvania," he said, "and if we don't take radical steps to curb this monster I fear the consequences within the next few years.

Eynon outlined briefly the State's plan for a safety move that is to be carried into every community through local committees. He told of the appointment of S. Edward Gable, president of the Lancaster Club as chairman of the executive committee of the campaign inaugurated by Governor Pinchot and commended the Lancastrian for the part he is playing in attempting to cut the toll of street and highway accident.

Russell E. Singer, of Washington, D. C., secretary of the American Automobile Association, commended the Lancaster Club for the position it has attained in National motoring circles. The Lancaster Club, he said, is the largest A. A. A. unit in Pennsylvania and the ninth largest among the nearly 1,000 clubs throughout the United States. He lauded Mr. Gable for what he is doing for motorists of the county, state and nation.

Other speakers at the meeting were Frank E. Bellantyne, general manager of the Automobile Club of Philadelphia. Frank B. Bosch, president of Motor Club of Harrisburg and Grant Seidel, of Reading Mr. Gable presided.
