Landisville-Salunga

Mrs. William K. Risser

Edwin L. Kline, 354 Main St., Landisville, died Monday, September 18 in the Lancaster General Hospital after an illness of five weeks.

He operated the Edward S. Kline and Sons sheet metal business in Landisville for 38 years.

Emil Swift Co-captain and veteran end of the Hempfield football team will probably be lost to the team for the remainder of the season.

Swift, a 168 pound 6 - 2 senior has a broken bone in his left ankle, that will probably put him on the shelf for four or five weeks and possibly the season, according to Coach Clarence Mentzer.

Changes in the teaching staff of Landisville elementary school are as follows:

Miss Shirley Myers, First grade; Mrs. Elaine Longenecker, Art teacher; Miss Collier, Librarian.

Also another change involves the afternoon session of Kindergarten. In order that these cridren may be away from the vicinity of school before the usual dismissal traffic jam develops the hours have been changed to 12:30 calf and 3:00 dismissal.

The second day of "Teachers Institute" was held in the Hempfield Schools Monday, Sept. 25.

The Elementary teachers met at Manheim Township high school and secondary at Hempfield Union high school.

On Sunday, October 1 at the 10 o'clock morning worship service at the Salunga Church of the Brethren a "Self Examination Service" will be held with Rev. Norman L. Bowers as the speaker.

On Sunday afternoon at 2:30 a Testimonial Service and at 6:30 Love Feast and Communion, wilth the Rev. Bowers officiating.

The annual Hempfield Sertoma Club Chicken Barbecue will be held at the Salunga Pavilion on Saturday, Sept. 30, starting at 4 p.m.

The Salunga Women's Club will hold their annual banquet on Monday evening, October 2 at Kegel's restaurant in Lancaster. Persons desiring to go should meet at 6 o'clock p.m. at Hiestand Store in Salunga. No reservations necessary.

The Veterans Home Association of Hempfield Inc. 5995 will hold a meeting on Oct-2nd at the Post Home after the post meeting.

second half and after three serious attacks, Dave Greer recovered and a couple of plays later Donegal added 6 more points.

From there on it was a matter of keeping the money in the bank".

The two teams traded TD's in the fourth and Columbia tightened up to try to avoid the final gun, using an onside kick which nearly worked but—it was too late.
