HARRY ENGLISH.

TRIAL AT RIDGWAY, COMMENCING WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1880, AND CLOSING SATURDAY EVENING, SEPT. 25, 1880. EM-PANELING THE JURY. OPENING OF CASE, EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES, JUDGE WETMORE'S CHARGE TO JURY. VERDICT "NOT GUILTY." GREAT EXCITEMENT AT THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF VERDICT.

A celebrated case as our readers are well aware. The New York Herald's description of the place the crime was committed, as well as a lengthy argument on the circumstances surrounding the crime, and the particulars generally, attracted considerable attention at the time, and helped to make the murder notorious. The subsequent escape of English, an authentic account of which appeared in these columns at the time, and is therefore well known to our readers. His arrest, and imprisonment, with the facts connected therewith, are also familiar to our readers. Great interest was manifested in the case on all sides, which increased as the time for trial drew near. A. J. Rummer a principle witness, was seriously injured several weeks ago by being thrown from a buggy. And it was thought the trial would be postponed on that account. An attachment was issued for Mr. Rummer, however, and the trial proceeded. We gave the proceedings in the trial, up to Wednesday night, in our last issue. But in order that the trial may be in one issue, for convenience in preserving, we produce part of what we said last week, adding somewhat to that and then giving the trial in full, excepting of course the speeches of counsel, which we did not get, and which if gotten would be too long for one issue of a paper the size of the ADVOCATE. We give a short synopsis of the speeches. The evidence in full in all essential points. We charge of Judge Wetmore, we give entire, from the notes of the stenographer, Mr. Weed, to whose courtesy we owe an acknowledgment of thanks, which we now make.

THE TRIAL OPENED.
The case of the commonwealth vs. Harry English was called at 9 o'clock. Deputy Sheriff Wensel brought the prisoner Harry English into court. He was neatly attired in a dark suit of clothes, hair trimmed and face smoothly shaven, with shoes blackened. There was no appearance of bravo, or dare-devil demeanor, but instead a quiet good looking young man came into court and took his place beside his counsel to be tried for the highest crime of which a man can be charged. Viz; murder. The indictment in this case was for the murder of Frank Warnith, constable of Benzinger township.

Hon. Geo. A. Jenks, of Brookville, Jefferson county, Hon. Geo. G. Hall, and C. H. McCauley, Esq., of Ridgway, with District Attorney Wurzell, were the attorneys for the commonwealth.
Hon. A. B. Richmond, of Meadville, P. R. Cotter, Esq., of Port Allegheny, Col. W. W. Ames, of St. Marys, and Eugene Mullin, of Bradford, conducted the case for the defense.

GETTING A JURY.
Commencing with U. W. Rogers, who was stood aside, the names of nine others were called, who were requested to stand aside, or were challenged by either side for cause, until the name of John Mosier, a farmer, of Fox township was called, and no objection being offered he was given a seat in the jury box, and counted as No. 1 in the panel. Andrew Dippold Jr., the 9th man called, and coming two names before the first successful man, was a step-cousin of Warnith the Constable, for whose murder English is now being tried. That is his aunt was the second wife of Warnith's father. Deceased was the son of the first wife. This point caused considerable talk among the lawyers, as to affinity, consanguinity, ties of blood, marriage ties, &c., all of which summed up had no bearing whatever on the case at issue, as any one could see. Sixty-eight jurors were called also thirteen who were at first set aside, were recalled, before the jury, which we give in full below, was completed. At ten minutes to 5 o'clock, Wm. Donne, of Spring Creek, one of the first set aside and recalled, was sworn as the 12th juror, when the names of the jurors were called and the case was ready for the law-yeers.

THE JURY.
John Mosier, farmer, Fox township. Wm. H. Devereaux, farmer, Jones. Jerrey S. Stewart, laborer, Ridgway. Wm. Fanning, laborer, Ridgway. A. S. Horton, clerk, Horton. Rufus Underwood, farmer, Highland. Isaac Avery, lumberman, Ridgway. Geo. T. Rothrock, laborer, Benette. Wallace Johnson, farmer, Benette. U. W. Rogers, farmer, Fox. S. W. Miles, plasterer, Ridgway. Wm. Donne, laborer, Spring Creek.

FIRST SPEECH.
C. H. McCauley opened the case for the commonwealth. Commencing with the date of the crime, April 17, 1880, he reviewed the case at length, setting forth the line of prosecution to be followed by the Commonwealth. He defined the crime of murder, argued at length, of the enormity of the crime, and the importance of sustaining every man in the right of life and property. He especially showed that an officer in the discharge of his duties should be zealous upheld by all good citizens, that the law of the country might not be trampled on. In glowing periods he pictured the cutting down of the man Warnith in the prime of life, and the gloom of that family circle, made desolate by the hand of the assassin, while a broken hearted wife mourned and could not be comforted, over the broken heart-stone. Maps were produced in evidence of the scene of the murder, also separate maps of various views of the house wherein the deed was done. In closing Mr. McCauley said that he asked the jury "to render substantial justice, such justice as is indicated by the statute that adorns this temple. Justice even-handed and we shall all be satisfied."

EXAMINATION OF WITNESSES ON THE PART OF THE COMMONWEALTH.
O. D. Coleman, of Kane, was the first witness called and sworn. He testified that he had had business transactions with Harry English, and that English once gave him a check (check produced) for $112.00, No. 14924, dated Dec. 17th, 1879, and drawn on the First National Bank of Olean, to the order of Harry English, and with the name T. W. Lane signed thereto. Coleman saw English endorse the check, and sold him some goods and gave the rest of the check in money. The Commonwealth offered this check in evidence, proposing to show that the check was a forgery, and that the forgery was committed by Harry English, to be followed by evidence that for this forgery the officers were making the arrest.

The defense objected to the check as evidence on the ground that it was irrelevant; that a man cannot be tried for an offense of which he is not charged, for the reason that it proves another distinct crime, and might prejudice the minds of the jury.
By the court—The Commonwealth propose to show that Frank X. Warnith was the constable of Benzinger township and that at the time of his death he was in pursuit of defendant, alleging that he had committed the crime of forgery, and that the constable so stated to English informing him of the charge.

Thursday morning, Sept. 25, 1880. Jury called in box.
The court overruled the objections of counsel for defense and allowed the check to be offered in evidence.
The check was then read the description being as we have stated.
Mr. Coleman was again called, and stated that he did not know where English resided, that he took the check from defendant, at Kane, Dec. 20th, last, giving him $75 worth of goods, and paid the balance in currency. He saw English write his name on the back of the check. English said he had been at work in the oil country.

A. T. Eaton was sworn and testified that he lived at Olean, and was teller of the 1st National Bank, that no person by the name of Lane kept a deposit at that bank.
T. J. Burke was called, and produced the evidence taken by him while acting coroner in the case of Frank Warnith, deceased. The court ordered the evidence filed.
Coleman was recalled, and testified that he was acquainted with John A. Mell. (Show the warrant issued for the forgery said that Mell was Justice of the Peace and that the warrant was in Mell's handwriting. The warrant was dated in Wetmore township, McKean county, Dec. 31, 1879.)

This warrant issued by a Justice in McKean county, was objected to as not valid in Elk county until properly indorsed, and on the ground that the Commonwealth must prove that it was endorsed by a Justice of Elk county.
Counsel for commonwealth stated that this evidence was to be followed by evidence that warrant was indorsed by Justice Burke, of Elk county.

The court refused to receive the warrant as evidence until offered as properly endorsed in Elk county.
T. J. Burke was sworn and testified that he was Justice of the Peace Jan. 6, 1880 and also April 15, 1880, and that the signature to endorsement was his. On cross-examination he said he was the justice that went to the house of English at the time of the killing.

Jenks, counsel for commonwealth, read the warrant issued on account of the forged check on the 1st National Bank of Olean for $112.00. This warrant was endorsed April 15th, 1880, and authorized Warnith to serve it. The oath and bond of Frank Warnith constable of Benzinger, township, and of Philip Vollmer constable of St. Marys borough were also read, each dated May 27, 1879. As also a warrant dated Aug. 8, 1878, issued by C. C. Moses, a Justice of McKean county, for obtaining money and goods under false pretenses. This warrant was endorsed by Thos. J. Burke, March 10, 1880, to constable Vollmer, of St. Marys borough.

Patrick Maloney, sworn, testified that he lived at Kane, and was acquainted with Harry English. He read the warrant before M. O'Connor had it in his possession. He is the constable of Wetmore township McKean county, saw him at Kane and in St. Marys, came from Kane to St. Marys Jan. 5, 1880, for the purpose of going to arrest Harry English. Did not know where he lived. Got constable Vollmer, constable Warnith, and Burke, to help him. Got a team and went to Caledonia, arriving there at 7 o'clock A. M., on the morning of Jan. 6, 1880. Stopped to give horses something to eat and get warmed up. Got Mr. Burke at Caledonia, warned and started to house of Harry English, arriving there at 10 o'clock. Burke, O'Connor and Warnith went into the house. We were to stay out did not go. No one entered the house but me and the others. Arrived English who was in bed. There were two beds in the room, wife and children in one bed English lying alone on foot of wife's bed. Warrant was not read. English jumped out of bed. Told him he was under arrest. He said he was in the room, wife and children in one bed English lying alone on foot of wife's bed. Warrant was not read. English jumped out of bed. Told him he was under arrest. He said he was in the room, wife and children in one bed English lying alone on foot of wife's bed. Warrant was not read. English jumped out of bed. Told him he was under arrest. He said he was in the room, wife and children in one bed English lying alone on foot of wife's bed. Warrant was not read.

On the cross-examination Maloney said: In January myself and O'Connor from Kane went to St. Marys. Started from Kane on the 6th. Stayed at St. Marys until 11 o'clock P. M. Then went to Caledonia. Got justice there at 1 o'clock. We were to go to the house of Harry English, and when he then went with us. Vollmer, Burke, O'Connor, myself and ten other persons, six persons, formed the party. Arrived at English's house between 4 and 5 o'clock on the morning of 6th. Saw Burke on the house, but Warnith was not with us. Warrant was not read. Drove off road before we got to hotel.
