A Presidential Pension Fund. A SCHEME FOR MAKING PROVISION FOR THE COMFORT OF EX-PRESIDENTS.

New York Times. A number of gentlemen of both political parties propose to appeal through the Times for a national subscription to provide a perpetual fund whose annual amount shall be enjoyed during life and non-holding of Federal office by the oldest ex-President of the United States.

It may be necessary to explain that the phrase, "the oldest living ex-President of the United States" means the ex-President whose incumbency was most distant in point of time, and that the plan we have outlined does not, for the present at least, contemplate the enjoyment of a pension by more than one ex-President at a time.

Push Things. [Philadelphia Press.] The levee titration into the Chinese letter forgery is getting rapidly down to hard pogy. The witnesses called to prove the genuineness of the letter have cut a sorry figure from the outset.

Morey swears that for his part in the affair he received $150 from the Democratic National Committee. The vigor and success with which the exposure of this forgery business has been one of the refreshing features of this campaign.

A Rebuke to Garfield's Malinger.

From the Philadelphia Enquirer. It is fit that the brave soldier, the wise, experienced, honorable statesman, James A. Garfield, whom his partisan opponents so shamefully defamed and reviled without reason or excuse, should proudly accept yesterday's victory as a vindication, full and complete of all the cruel, cowardly and malicious charges made against him; as a rebuke to his maligners, and as a vote of confidence in his integrity, and as a mark of the respect and admiration which his countrymen have for him as a citizen, soldier and statesman.

—There have been 5,024,492 arrivals of immigrants in this country since 1854, and yet John Kelly wonders because his candidate for Mayor of New York only has 2,000 majority.

—A very old man voted three times at Washington, Ind., in the recent state election. On his trial it was convincingly shown that, though sober, he had been so carried away by excitement as to forget that he had already voted.

—At the base of that "highest point" in the Rocky Mountains, where in 1848, Fremont planted the American flag, and made for himself a once famous campaign cry, is Canyon City, with pretty streets and gardens of fruit trees.

—A Boston man besought his wife, he being but three years married, for the privilege of a night key. You stay at home and see that the baby doesn't fall out of the cradle!" He stays.

—Three romantic Kentucky girls recently hit upon a better device for securing husbands than by advertising. They lived on the banks of the Ohio river, and agreed to each set a bottle afloat containing a paper on which was written the name and a promise to marry whomever should find the bottle. One of the girls has married recently the man who found her bottle far down the river, the second is engaged to him who found hers at Natchez or Grand Gulf, and the third is in correspondence with the finder of hers, who also lives at a great distance from the point where the bottles were launched.

My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. Manhood: How Lost, How Restored!

Just published a new and complete edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Seminal Weakness or Impotence, Losses of Strength, Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, Indigestion, Nervousness or sexual extravagance, &c. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address the Publishers, The Culverwell Medical Co., 45 Ann St., New York, N. Y.; Post Office Box, 4586.
