Dagus Mines Cornet Band.

Dagus Mines, July 18, 1881,

EDITOR ADVOCATE - Dear Sir: -With your permission I would like to give to the people of Dagus Mines, Centreville, and vicinity, through the outline of the Dagus Mines Cornet Band recently organized at this place. A public meeting was called in the school house for the purpose of taking into consideration the best means of organizing a brass band to be known The amount and value of the bullion as the Dagus Mines Cornet Band. Mr. H. Beadle was chosen chairman, and the meeting proceeded to appoint a committee to take subscriptions from the merchants of Centreville and the officials at Dagus Mines. A number of which came boldly to the it. A number of these gentlemen deserve honorable mention, viz: Hon. C. R. Earley, of Ridgway, Hon. J. L. Brown, of Wilcox, D. Robertson, W. A. May, J. H. Steel & Co., John and Joseph Bailey, of Dagus Mines. Also J. J. Taylor, John Collins, Dr. H. Stræssley, and James McCloskey, of Centreville, and a host of others whom space and time will not permit our giving at this time. It was also agreed that Messrs. Dowie and Lusk take a subscription sheet into the bank among the miners, which they did and a handsome sum was received from that quarter (for which we extend our Repr.) The amount so far collected was $277,00, but finding that $100 00 more was required to purchase the full set of instruments, we applied to Mr. Himes, General Superintendent of the company's work, to solicit the aid of the company in our behalf, and are happy to state that he was successful, for in a few days thereafter Mr. Robertson received instructions ing in all $377,00. The instruments were purchased from Lyon & Healy, of Chicago, and consist of the following pieces, which are first-class in every respect: 5 Bb cornets, 1 Eb cornet, I solo alto, 1st and 2d Eb alto, 2 Bb baritones, 1st and 2d Bb tenor, 1 Bb bass, 2d Eb basses (Helecon style), bass and side drums and cymbals, The following are the standing officers of the band: D. Robertson, President; Robt. Wilson, Vice President and Teacher; John Dowie, Treasurer; Henry Beadle, Secretary; C. W. Barrett, Drum Major. I may here state that the band is getting along firstmarket.
