The Advocate.

THURSDAY, JUNE 1, 1882.

Personal.

-John Crayston, of Warren is in town.

-May Roberts, the actress, whom died recently in Florida.

-Mr. S. Short of North East was in Toby creek.

-Rev. J. Sander will have regular services in the Lutheran Church on Sunday as usual, and will not go away as was announced on last Sunday.

-J, D. Rishell, formerly principal of the public schools here, is again in town, and will finish his law studies Caledonia office, also has a mortgage with Hall & McCauley.

-Capt. Fred. Scheening, of Co. H. county), saw fit against the earnest Ridgway Rifles, having resigned has protest of prominent Republicans to been succeeded by his first Lieutenant, move the office at Caledonia a mile W. S. Horton. Second Lieutenant and a half away from the village G. R. Woodward, was raised to first. This removal makes it necessary for and Second Sergeant Joseph Bailey to the people of Caledonia to hire a man Second Lieutenant. First Sergeant to bring the mail back to Caledonia Henry A. Parsons, Jr., who has the where the majority of the citizens live reputation of being one of the most re- Of course the conduct of the great, liable and best first sergeants in the big, P. M. of Ridgway in this matter, regiment, preferred to stay where he is in keeping with his usual arbitrary was rather than seek promotion .- Eric and uncalled for actions in many little Herald. matters, where through his servitude

-The Ridgway public school closed yesterday.

-New carload choice new brand flour at Morgester's.

-Letter-Heads, Bill-Heads, Note will of the "little boss" and the "big Heads, Envelopes, etc., at the ADVOboss" is taken into account. In the CATE office. case of the Caledonia post-office a large number of influential Republi-

-"Senside Library" 100 copies last issued Nos. just received at Craig's cans petitioned the "little boss" to use Drug and Book Store. people. His reply was to have the

-"Belle of Ridgwny," a cigar that will please the most fastidious, to be found only at Craig's Drug St

-Those wishing first class Photographs will do well to call on H. W. Bridges, Centerville, Pa. Good or no Pay.

-You will find the Grand Central headquarters for Corsets, Parasols and mighty Don has had placed in his hands by his master the power to do a Silk Umbrellas at P. & K. Grand Central.

-The prospects for hay were never better than this season. The long rainy season, while being had for yarden making has been good weather for when both he and his big master will ginss.

-Mrs. Jacob Butterfuss, over Butter fuss' harness shop, Main street, has for sale choice Imported Canaries, Linnets, and Mocking birds. Call and see them.

-The'2nd, annual commencement of the Ridgway High School will be held in the school building, Saturday evening, June 3rd, 1882, all are cordially invited to be present, admission free.

Hon, Wm. D. Brown, President C-The total receipts of the school Judge, and Hons. Geo. Ed. Weis, and entertainment last week were $128.10. G. G. Messenger, associates. We hereby tender our thanks to all who so kindly assisted us in the ex-The entire civil list was continued ercises and desire specially to speak of excepting the following case: the valuable (though gratuitous) ser-

Some More Bossism.

Caledonia, in Jay township, Elk county, has had a taste of the rule of a certain "little boss" which leaves the citizens of that little village in a very unpleasant frame of mind. Now yesterday, was largely attended, ena certain "little boss" went down to Caledonia, or rather he sent a man which is all the same same so far as on all the other post-offices in the

to the great Don he has chanced to possess the "inflooence," Under the sway of the Cameron boss system.

the rights of the people are not taken into consideration. Nothing but the his influence to have justice done the office moved as far away as possible.

more right to interfere with the Cale-well take notice now as later in the season, that the day is not far distant be laid away in the shades of political oblivion which nothing short of the trump of the arch-angel will ever awake them from. Theo, in the light of all the injustice and wrong done by these "bosses" great and small let all free-necked men stand up and de-

Court Proceedings.

May Term, 1882, commencing Mon-nounce their base methods.

day, May 22.

clares for Civil Service reform, reflects the "little boss" is concerned, and severely, if indirectly, upon the that man did the bidding of the said Arthur administration, and contains many of our readers will remember, master who sent him. The people of radical principles of party reform. the village of Caledonia were con-The ticket is Republican throughout. tented to have the post-office remain The session, though as exciting as town this week. Mr. Short is putting where it then was. Reasons were could be wished, began, continued up a new mill at the Eik Licks on the abundant for their so doing : the post- and ended in harmony. This ticket office was situated to accommodate the was nominated : largest number of the people, and was

For Governor, JOHN STEWART, of near their homes, it was also near the Franklin. railroad. For some cause or other the Lieutenant · Governor-LEVI BIRD great "little boss" of all Elk county. DUFF, of Allegheny. the cow-hiding boy who owns the Secretary of Internal Affairs-Ridgway post-office (and it appears GEORGE W. MERRICK, of Tioga. from his action in the case of the Congressman-at-Large - WILLIAM MCMICHAEL, of Philadelphia.

> Justice of the Supreme Court-GEORGE JUNKIN, of Philadelphia. A GENERAL VIEW.

A Pen Picture of the Convention as Appeared.

When Hon, I, D. McKee, of the State Committee, arose to call the Independent Republican State Convention to order, in Horticultural Hall, shortly after 11 o'clock yesterday They were appointed and the Convenmorning, he stood face to face with a tion took a recess gathering which has no parallel in the political annals of Pennsylvania. It looks more like a vast assembly of churchmen than anything else. The auditorium, the galleries and stage were crowded, not with the clacquery log rollers and half-drunken hangers-on who figure so conspicuously in the average party assembly, but with men and women, young and old, who were thoroughly representative of the highest citizenship of the Commonwealth. It was a gathering of earnest, sober, intelligent men who by their conduct. individually and collectively, demonstrated that active political service in

In the first place, the postmaster of volves nothing incompatible with the Ridgway, in law or equity, has no loftiest standard of public morals. Senator Mitchell entered the room ten donia office than has the Emperor of minutes before the Convention was China to attempt to quell a riot in called to order, and his appearance was Ireland. But under the Cameron boss the signal for a storm of applause which system this crawling henchman of the subsided only to break out with renewed vigor upon the arrival of Major Merrick, Hon. Charles S. Wolfe and community a gross and uncalled for other prominent leaders. injustice. The "little boss" might as

THE ORGANIZATION. A word from Chairman McKee, o the State Committee, an eloquent prayer by Rev. D. C. Babcock, the reading of the resolution by which the vention, and the body was ready for business. The nominations of Hon. John I. Mitchell for temporary chairman and Philip C. Garrett and Thomas W. Phillips for temporary vice-presidents provoked a whirlwind of cheers.

and were approved by acclamation. The scene in the hall at the moment Senator Mitchell appeared on the platform was one of peculiar interest. High above his head hung a large portrait of Garfield, festooned in banner

the inscription : "The cause for which Garfield died machine. "What he said, was won tion. [Philadelphia Press May 25.]

for Civil Service Reform at Chicago," he said, "has not been preserved by The Independent Republican State Convention, in Horticultural Hall, the present Administration," and that, the convention rises to its feet and in his opinion, was sufficient cause for thusiastic in its conduct, and bold in open war upon spoilsmen and their its nominations. The platform de- system.

"Call the roll of delegates," said Chairman Mitchell to the Secretary as first," shouted the chairman, "and the tidal wave of cheers which greeted his address has subsided-and the Secretary did as ordered, but he did it under difficulties. Every name which the audience recognized as that of a Congressman-at-Large by acclamation. fighting Independent was received with cheering, which continued until the possessor of the name rose and to the ticket. signfied his presence.

"I am here," was all that Wolf said, but he said it in such a way that it meant a great deal, "I am here, too," responded Senator Stewart to the cheers, "I am here to resolve with Judge McJunkin, of Butler, were you," thundered Dr. W. C. Doane, "that this Convention shall place the grand old Republican party where the immortal Lincoln found it and where the sainted Garfield would have left

And so it ran on all through the list. Hampton L. Carson was furiously cheered, and so was Major Merrick. Wolfe moved for committees on Platform and permanent Organization. The Committee on Permanent Organiation reported H. L. Foster, of Oil City, for chairman, and after the McNair, and Merrick delivered fierce report was unanimously ratified, that which in reply to a query, why he, declared that his services in behalf of chair, but the chair was sustained and he should do all in his power to crush read the report of the Committee on Convention adjourned until 8 o'clock. Resolutions Wolfe and Doane are besought on all hands for speeches," and dress with the defiant cry that "if the it ought to die," this bold utterance provoking the most vociferous applause of the day. Doane declares it is the first State Convention he ever attended. Chairman Foster says the same for himself; the two shake hands January Conference ordered the Con- on the platform and the venerable revolter refers to Martin Luther as the organization" to effect a great reform. The Doctor is through, the Convention is in a tumult and two or three thousand people, unconsciously perhaps, are cheering Martin Luther in a political convention.

The platform as returned by the Committee on Resolutions is read and adopted, an amendment asking Senators and Representatives in Congress and smilax; on either hand a banner to urge the passage of the Pendleton spread away to the flaps, and bearing Civil Service bill is rejected, and the nomination. Colonel Duff makes an try, that the Republican party may b

The Independent Republican Conven- It breathed defiance and battle to the chairman's eye, and moves that Geo. It is the application of the same prin-W. Merrick be nominated for Secretary of Internal Affairs by acclamation. The motion strikes a key note, gives three rousing cheers for the Tioga hero, who is denied the privilege of protesting against his own nomination. "We'll nominate you hear your objections afterward."

Taking the cue from Mapes, Joseph R. Rhodes moved that Colonel William McMichael be nominated for A yell of approval swept over the convention, and another name was added

COMPLETING THE TICKET.

Nominations for the Supreme Court poured in thick and fast. Judge Hare and Judge Penrose, of Philadelphia; Daniel Agnew, of Beaver, and placed in nomination; An exciting discussion ensued and Judge Agnew was finally withdrawn, after a statemen from his son to the effect that he could not accept any nomination. Then a firebrand was cast into the convention by Joseph R. Rhoades in the shape of a nomination of Judge

Ludlow, of Philadelphia. "No!" "No!" "No Democrats on this ticket!" "No bidding for votes!" were some of the crics which greeted this red flag. Delegate Rhoades rose to defend the his heart and soul were in the move nomination. Hampton L. Carson seconded it in a heated speech. Wolfe, speeches against it, and denounced it methods by which that organization gentlemen, in assuming the duties of as a bid for Democratic support. The has been controlled in past years, and force the recognition of free independthe chair, delivered an address in chair decided that under the call for ent thought and action by those the convention the nomination of a the former president of a Garfield club should occupy his present position, was taken from the decision of the ball docupy his present position, was taken from the decision of the ball club ball club ball the ball of these ball club bal Garfield were all the more reason that the Ludlow boom retreated in disor- corrupt management. We ask the der. Hare was then withdrawn and people to stand with us not only the system to which Garfield's death was directly traceable. BESOUGHT TO SPEAK. Before Senator Stewart came in to

tion. Upon reassembling Judge Finletter's

each is dragged forth and compelled delphia delegation submitted the name made to run like a railroad is run, by to say something. Wolfe yields to of George Junkin. Senator Mitchell a paid engineer or boss. [Cries of "hit him again."] I have come to be Doane, who concludes a sonorous ad- moved that Junkin be nominated by Republican party haven't enough cour-through like a rocket. A vote of thanks a grand thing, a glorious engine for the right when it is free. I see before age to turn Prince Don out of its temple | was tendered to the officers of the Convention.

Stewart, the nominee for Governor, comes forward to deliver the address which he declined to make in the afternoon. The Convention rises to by a political leader is a great threatwhich he declined to make in the afternoon. The Convention rises to with a wiil. His speech is reported elsewhere. A resolution is adopted first man who dared to go outside "the providing that upon demand by the have been well if the editor of a news them an amendment to the Constiution prohibitory of liquor traffic. Another-resolution is adopted authorimatter of representation, and providing that representation in the next State Convention shall be based on the ordered to inform candidates of their chairman, whose happy management address accepting his nomina- raised up and go on with its mission, ciples to public affairs that a wise busi-ness man does to those of his counting house. If a good man be in place, let it be said that he shall not be removed without cause. If a vacancy occur, let the fittest man be brought forward there is to be a future of the Republican party in this country it must stand upon a practical system of reform in the matter of appointments. Once let the test of fitness be applied to all appointments for minor places, and the question of removal will take care Reform does not require that the rules shall apply to the high places where the opinions of appointees would affect the policy of the Administration. appointees would

I deeply regret that what the people achieved at Chicago for the cure of evils in the Civil Service has not been carried forward by the present Ad-ministration, as it would have been nad the man there nominated-whose memory is too sacred to mention here -been spared to the country. [Great applause.] I knew that grand and ment. [Applause.] We are here to see what we can do to manumit the Republican party of Pennsylvania, to protect it against the have controlled the party; to say, barnacles and raise itself to a higher plane above the murky atmosphere remedy and to overcome all opposi-tion. [Great applause.]

upon reassembling Judge Finletter's The Republican party is composed of free-thinking men, and was never acclamation, and the motion went tion through the press. The press is me a number of young men of the profession, and I say to them, never take any office if it trammels your greet him and three cheers are given ening danger to any country, and especially to this country of ours. have seen so much of this in Pennsy vania. In a case in this city it would people, the Legislature shall submit to paper had declined to accept a position, the acceptance of which gave people the opportunity to sneer at the opinions expressed in his paper. The President refused to rename the man zing a committee to prepare rules in selected by his predecessor, the lamented Garfield for the position of Surveyor of the Port of Philadelphia. not holding the same views in regard to such appointments. I wish to be understood from this Garfield vote. A committice of five is ordered to inform candidates of their with this movement and all it means for Pennsylvania and the whole coun-let the fittest man be brought forward to take it, and let not the choice be dictated by any one man or faction. I have given this subject much thought, and am convinced that the time has come when Civil Service rules should be adopted in the appointment of all minor officers under the State and National Governments.

I would be glad to say that the Gov-ernment at Washington is anxious to adopt such a system. I do not know that the present Administration may yet adopt it. I trust it may, for if street, Ridgway, Elk Co., Pa. v82t J. S. BAROWELL, and patent cases.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Over twenty-five years practice. Office on Main Street, Ridgway, Pa., opposite the Bogert House. Office hours from 1 to 2 and 7 to 8, P. M.

Business Cards.

GEO. A. RATHBUN.

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Main street, Ridgway, Elk Co., Pa.

Particular attention given to the examination of titles, also to patents

HALL & M'CAULEY

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW.

Office in new brick building, Main

W. L. WILLIAMS.

Late of Strattanville), Physician and Surgeon, Ridgway, Pa. Office in Surgeon, Ridgway, Pa. Office in Hall's Brick Building (up stairs)-References—J. D. Smith, H. L. Young, R. Rulofson, Strattanville; Major John Kitley, W. W. Green-land, Claricn. Office hours—1 to 2 P. M. and 7 to 8 P. M.

G. G. MESSENGER.

DRUGGIST & PARMACEUTIST, N. W. corner of Main and Mill streets. Ridgway, Pa., full assortment of care-fully selected Foreign and Domestic Drugs. Prescriptions carefully dispensed at all hours, day or night.

vingy

HYDE HOUSE.

W. H. SCHRAM, Proprietor, Ridgway, Elk county, Pa.

Thankful for the patronage heretoore so liberally bestowed upon him, the new proprietor hopes, by paying strict attention to the comfort and convenience of guests, to merit a continuance of the same. oct30'69

NEW LIVERY STAPLE

IN

RIDGWAY. -

GOOD STOCK, GOOD CARRIAGES

and Buggies to let upon the most and Bugges to the property of the property of the second s attention. Aug201871ti

Public Sale.

There will be exposed to public sale

TUESDAY, JUNE 1 1882.

the valuable real estate on Broad street known as the L. Luther property, and is 80 feet on Broad street and 190 feet along an aliey next Hyde's store. On which is erected a frame building 28x 28 with wine 15,28 and anon 28x 38 with wing 15x38, and one frame barn. Terms cash. M. H. LUTHER. Executor estate of Libbens Luther

PLANTS and SEEDS

FOR-

EVERYBODY

vices rendered by Henry A. Parsons, Jr, of the Elk Co. ADVOCATE in drilling the "Ridgway Broom Battalion" which he did in such an efficient and acceptable maner. The closing entertainment of the Ridgway School will charged be given at the Opera 'House, Friday is the case where A. Swartz Ross, evening, June 9th, at which time the "Broom Drill," with additional attractions, will be repeated by request. Admission same as before. Reserved seats now on sale at Hyde's Store.

Good Advice.

It is a duty you owe to yourselves to first call and inspect our mammoth stock of clothing, all kinds of domestic goods, notions, boots and shoes, hats and caps, &c., &c., and learn our prices before purchasing. We have determined to retain the first place in popular favor, and the only way to do n is to sell the very best goods at the unlest living profit. New York SORE, Ridgway, Pa., Cohen Bros. & Bawnsteine, proprietors.

400 lbs. choice roasted coffee at Morgester's.

-New cask choice Sultana prunes at Morgester's.

-Mess Beef, Pork and Bacon at Morguster's.

at Morgester's.

-At the change of every season sluggishness of the blood should be dergo an imprisonment in the Western provented by fairing Dorutil.

--Peruna will tone your whole system.

-If you have the least uneasiness in your stomach Peruna will immediately correct the function.

-Fine Tollet Soaps, 7th, Regiment Bouquet and Cashmere Bouquet 25 cents per cake, Cream Oatmeal, Scakes in box, 10 cents, at Craig's Drug and Book Store

-The time will soon be here when mosquitoes will present their bills and draw at sight. A large line of netting for sale at P. & K. Grand Central.

-A few more Bbls. of Boss and Standard Flour in stock at the Grand Central, P. & K.

-Feed, Middlings, and Bran, in stock at the Grand Central, P. & K. -A large stock of Dairy Butter just received at the Grand Central, P. & K. -The largest line of Suspenders in the Borough will be found at the Grand Central, P. & K. -A large assortment of Front Hair Nets, at P. & K.

-A fine assortment of Gents' and Ladies' Gloves in stock at the Grand YOBK STORE, post-office building, Central, P. & K.

George Eaton, vs. Thomas Tozier. must not be lost;" Verdict in favor of Plaintiff in the sum of $8,75. TV:

CRIMINAL LIST.

John Sexton, James Clark, John Jeanings, and George Beamer, with burglary. This merchant tailoring establishment was broken into and for which three men were arrested. George Beamer plead guilty. And was sentenced to make restitution, pay a fine of $50, and undergo imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary for the period of three years. Beamer was the one who made the information that led to the arrest of the other parties. All the other prisouers were found not guilty and discharged. Edward Price, charged with assault and battery, was discharged, the grand jury finding not a true bill.

R. B. Peekham, selling liquor contrary to law, Not pros, upon 2d count them. upon payment of cost. Pleads guilty as to first court and sentenced to pay a fine of $200 and cost of prosecution, and stand committed.

George Weigel Fey, charged with neglect of duties as overseer of the poor, was discharged.

Peter Volk on the charge of stealing a horse. Defendant was arraigned and -Lenon, Soda and Milk Crackers plead guilty. Sentenced to restore to the owner thereof the property stolen if not aiready done, pay a fine of ten dollars to the commonwealth, and un-renitentiary for the period of two years, and stand committed, &c. George Weigel and John Dollinger, charged with malicious mischief, the case was settled.

Edward Largey, charged with surety of the peace. Defendant discharged and prosecutor to pay the costs.

James Brambaugh, charged with malicious mischief. Recognizance of defendant and surety called, forfeited and respited to next term. Peter McMann and Patrick Mc-Mann charged with assault and battery, continued to next term.

Daniel Cunningham charged with assault and battery. Not a true bill, costs to be paid by the county.

Samuel Hilderbrand charged with assault and battery." A true bill.

Gents' Furnishing Goods.

No old goods in stock. All new, all stylish, and all so cheap that everybody; regardless of station in life or scarcity taste. Inspect our stock and satisfy yourselves that we are headquarters. Cohen Bros. & Brownsteine, NEW Ridgway, Pa.

The other emblazoned with the war

"Let us forward his battle for true Republicanism." About him on the stage were clustered a bost of men conspicuous for long and faithful service in the cause of the Republican party, George Lear, Chairman of the recent Convention at Harrisburg was there; Francis B. Reeves, was there, and so was Joel

J. Bailey. William A. Drown, James V. Wilson, R. A. Hastings. Walter seats ready to smash the machine as Maderia and John E. Graff sat togather near the wings. Prof. R. A. at the neighboring hotels. Thompson, F. H. Lewis, Joshua L. Bailey, William E. Lockwood formed a semi-circle on the rear of the plat- be nominated by acclamation. Hampscore of venerable men whose silver locks glistened in strong contrast with young women who were seated near

SOME OF THE PROMINENT PERSONS

PRESENT. Directly in front of the stage sat old incident until the Twenty-sixth Legisin 1857 of the first Republican Club in him. Philadelphia. Just across the aisle was Abram Barker, and near him, on the further end of the space reserved fore was drowned by the plaudits of utter disgust.

those he rose to address. A rod away on the right sat Senator Kauffman, of Lancaster, who so lately felt the iron 'the officeholder who still owns himnext the platform Senator John Stew-

the Convention was soon to place on hushed its murmur when Senator adversarv?

SENATOR MITCHELL'S ADDRESS. that may have existed in the minds of tion are in order.

the asile, nominates Daniel Agnew, of Chairman Foster's gavel falls, and the Beaver, and the nomination is earnestly | first State Convention of the Garfield seconded by Levi Bird Duff, of Allegheny. Dr. Doane, of Lycoming, uominates John Stewart, of Franklin. and the seconding is done by John J. Pinkerton, of Chester.

AFTER THE RECESS.

An hour and a half spent for dinner and the delegates are back in their completely as they smashed the menu

Wolfe gets the floor and in a ringing speech moves that John Stewart for the welfare and glory and triumph form; while on the extreme right sat a ton L. Carson rises to second, and in doing so nominates Wolfe for Congressmen-at Large. A furore follows, the gold and raven tresses of the fair cries of "No!" "No!" from Wolfe and others rend the air, and an up-country delegate demands that a ballot be taken for a candidate for Governor. The vote is called and passed without

Dr. Doane, of Williamsport, who, in lative District of Philadelphia is 1857 at Syracuse assisted in the first reached, when Delegate Allen an-Republican Convention in the Empire nounces that he is instructed for Bea-State; beside him was James H. Bil- ver, and, declining to vote, sits down lington, the organizer and president to receive the sympathy of those about

"Stewart 189, Agnew 62," is the votes announced by the Secretary. the right, was Louis C. Madeira. In A friend of Agnew moved that Stewart's nomination be made unanimous. for delegates stood the lank figure of which is done, and the Convention George E. Mapes and beneath him sat grows wild with enthuasiasm; and his old companion-in-arms, Charles S. Chris Magee, who stands back near Wolfe, whose voice but a moment be- the rear, walks over to a window in fied of the taint of slavery, and the

THE REST OF THE TICKET. The Chair invites nominations for Lieutenant-Governor and names are blow of the machine, and two paces in heard on all hands. "Levi Bird Duff, front of him sits George W. Merrick, of Allegheny." "George W. Merrick, of Tioga," "William McMichael, of self," as a country delegate fitly ex- Philadelphia," are thrust forward in pressed it. On the front row of chairs rapid confusion. Dr. Doane presents the name of Charles S. Wolfe, and a art sat whispering to a friend, little minute later withdraws it upon the dreaming of the responsibility which imperative demand of Mr. Wolfe Limself. Three minutes afterward Mchis shoulders. The great audience Michael's name is withdrawn and the Mitchell advanced to the front of the rick—"the two men," as the chair seifishness and the tendency to self-stage to address the Convention. It put it, "who have but two legs be- aggrandizement he portrayed all that was the climax of a great crisis. tween them." The vote proceeds, and Would he retreat, now that he had in- it is for Duff everywhere. Alleghany vaded the tent of the enemy? would he solid for Duff, and Philadelphia nearly temporize or try to conciliate the foe, so; Mitchell and Merrick are for Duff, or would he draw sword, cast away and so is nearly everybody else. Duff, of funds, may be able to dress with the scabbard, and bid defiance to his 144; Merrick, 41, and upon the latter's own motion, amildst a torrent of cheers, the Allegheny soldier is made the His brief speech removed all doubts unanimons choice of the convention.

of his dificult duties challenges general admiration, announces that nomina- resolution through providing that the ion are in order. Major Merrick, of Tioga, limps into known as the Garfield Republicans. In dependents shall henceforth be have done all in my power to see this line drawn clearly before the people of Republicans of Pennsylvania stands Commonwealth. adjourned without day.

Senator Mitchell's Speech.

Gentlemen of the Convention, ladies and gentlemen and fellow-citizens of my native State: I thank you, gen-[Continued applause and cheering.] tlemen, for the distinguished honor Our Spring Campaign.

you have conferred upon me. I am With this we inaugurate our fourth heartily in the cause which has brought forth this Independent movespring in Ridgway. The prophecy of ment in Pennsylvania. [Applause, When danger threatens the Republiour competitors at our first spring opening, we are happy to say, has not it is well for Republicans to meet and been realized, viz .: - that our business deliberate and take counsel together career in Ridgway would be of short of an organization that Republican duration. We appealed to the public ism itself means. [Applause.] We are here, gentlemen, as Republicans, at our opening for their patronage and and I trust that all that may be done support in our undertaking, and it is will meet with the endorsement of all with pride and thankfulness that we true Republicans of this grand old state that our expectations have been Commonwealth of ours. The work to more than realized. We again appear be done is not to nominate a ticket to defeat the Republican party ; it is not to the public for their support, and can to nominate a ticket to give success to assure them that our business will be the Democratic part, but it is to nomiconducted, as heretofore-one price nate a ticket which will be endorsed at the polls by Republicans. [Apand the truth. plause.] The grand old Republican Remember, when you call at our esparty of ours was founded on that movement which had its beginning tablishment you can be assured that you will be waited upon by gentlehere in the City of Brotherly Love manly salesmen. Take your own more than 100 years ago, when that old bell proclaimed liberty throughout time for making a selection, and if the land and to the inhabitants thereyou are not satisfied with your purof, and when the immortal Declarachase, have it exchanged or the money tion of Independence was sent forth to the people of the world as a senti- refunded. Our salesmen will show a ment to secure to all equal rights as customer the same attention when excitizens and as men. Upon that sen-timent the Republican party was changing as they do while selling founded and upon that sentiment its goods, and in every respect we strive banner has been carried forward to to give no cause for complaint. victory. The country has been puri-We guarantee this, and every article we sell to be exactly as represented, air is too pure to be mhaled by any and to give reasonable wear for the Republican willing to be the slave of

Now, gentlemen, all who have re-s any of the same quatity can be flected upon the birth and growth of bought at, always holding ourselves political organizations know full well ready to make the loss good to the that in the nature of things there must be management-there must be purchaser. Should it prove to the leadership; but it does not follow that contrary, or if the article, when that there must necessarily be what is examined at home, should fail to to-day known and can be only suffiplease you, or you be dissatisfied with ciently expressed by the term "boss-Fifty years ago, at Worchester, your purchase in any way, you are at ism." in the State of Massachusetts, Daniel liberty to return the same in good Webster, with almost prophetic foresight of what was to result, foretold the spoils system. With his foresight and his masterly comprehension of race narrows down to Duff and Mer- the nature of things, of the growth of Pa., Cohen Bros. & Brownsteine, prowe see before us to-day in the existence of that great evil, the spoils system hold world in France, and so it should Gentlemen, it is well for you to declare be, for he is the inventor of the French against bossism, against machine be, for he is the inventor of the French methods, against everything that Kidney Pad, which has performed such trainmels the free right of Republiwonderful cures in diseases of the caus to act and think for themselves. kidneys. [Applause]; but it is also necessary for you not only to declare against existing evils but to provide a remedy, -Composed of the best tonics, iron and cinchona, with well known aroto eradicate them, to tear them up root matics, is Brown's Iron Bitters. It and branch and destroy them forever. his hearers. His was the voice of war. above the masses about him, gets the Service Reform, [Great applause.] troubles.

administer its affairs with. When 1 the State, I shall devote my time to Our ILLUSTRATED CATALOGUE the duties of the great office which has been conferred upon me by this great and BOOK OF FLOWERS send I do not mean to be a straggler, but he who represents Penusylvania in the Senate of the and BOOK OF free to any address. HARRY CHAAPEL HARRY CHAAPEL Florist and Seedsman, Williamsport, Pa. HENRY A. PARSONS, Jr., Loval agent United States has more than one man can do, and I think that he who serves his State serves his country best.

ōxt

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned and others associated with him intend to make application to the Governor of the Commonwealth for a charter for the incorporation of a company for the manufacture of Iron and Steel, and of articles of commerce from wood and metal in the County of Elk. under the 38th section of the act of 29, April 1874, and the supplements thereto, said company to be entitled. The Benezette Iron Company. C. R. EARLEY.

Ridgway, Pa.

BIG STOVE SIGN No. 42 Main St.

AFULL LINE BUILD-ERS'

HARDWAFE. STOVES AND

House-Furnishing

GOODS At POPULAR

PRICES.

W S Service, Ag't.

J. D. WOODRUFF, M. D.

OFFICE HOURS .- From 5 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m. Residence-Office at residence, opposite Elk County Bank, Main Street

-Orders for flowers, seeds, etc., from Havry Chaapel's greenhouse, Williamsport, will receive prompt attention if left at THE ADVOCATE office.

-Wall paper, Border, Alabastine Mapes thrusts his tall figure up The remedy to-day lies in true Civil cures indigestion, and all kindred Kalsomine, Paints, Oil, Varnishes, &c., at Craig's Drug Store, Ridgway.

1

order, within five days, and we will PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. exchange it or cheerfully refund the money. NEW YORK STORE, Ridgway, -Prof. Guilmette's name is a house CALLS DAY OR NIGHT PROMPTLY A fair share of the people's patronage so-licited.