

—Subscribe now for the ADVOCATE. —Grapes are plentiful in this market. —Groceries of all kinds at Morgester's. —Canned goods of all kinds at Morgester's.

—Great complaint is made of the potato rot in this vicinity. —Tuesday last was the last day of the first month of school. —The work on the Congregation church is moving along rapidly.

—The leaves on the trees are turning brown and falling to the ground. —Pleasant weather this week, and good time for putting up Shanty row. —The ADVOCATE office is located in a shanty next door east of Powell & Kime.

—J. W. Morgester received the first car load of brick for his new building last week. —Barney Mullin has his house enclosed and will be ready to move in before many weeks. —John McGrady is putting up a building in Shanty row between Rhines' and Maginnis'.

—Powell & Kime have their building 20x60 feet completed and are doing business in shanty row. —Morgester is doing business in the west corner grocery on Shanty row No. 1, and is prepared to fill all orders in the grocery line.

—Dr. Earley is putting up a new building east of the Western Union telegraph office. Also one on his Main and Broad street lots. —Old iron is worth three-fourths of a cent a pound, and there are several tons of it in the ruins of the late fire.

Personal. —Doctor Thompson has his office in Messinger's drug store. See card in this issue. —Rev. Mr. Goodrich the new Methodist minister delivered his first sermon here last Sunday morning.

—Wm. M. Sweet, shoemaker, will occupy part of John McGrady's new building when completed. —On Friday last Rev. S. M. Clark and family left for Palmyra, N. Y., Mr. Clark's new appointment.

—Mrs. M. L. Ross is home from her visit to Brookville, and is very glad to find that her house is not burned. —Have Craig of the firm of W. Craig & Co., of New Bethlehem, Pa., brother of A. C. Craig of this place is here for a few days.

—E. J. Miller, editor of the Democrat has been under the weather since the fire. He has the prevailing malaria fever. —J. B. Johnson and family have removed from Ridgway to Emporium where Mr. Johnson has engaged in the coal and lime business.

—We are sorry to lose from our midst Mr. Johnson and his estimable wife, but hope they may be the gainers by the change, while their many friends here will regret that circumstances compelled them to move.

DEATH. BARWIG—On Sunday morning, Oct. 8, 1882, Hattie F. Barwig, wife of Albert Barwig, of this place aged about 27 years.

PENNSYLVANIA NEWS. —David Barbour, for many years past general manager and financial superintendent of the flouring mills of Marshall, Kennedy & Co., at Pittsburgh, has been arrested on a charge of larceny preferred by the senior member of the firm.

—A malignant disease resembling cholera has broken out among the hogs and cattle of Blair county. —A rare feat of engineering skill was performed in Johnstown a few days since. To afford room for a pile driver to work at a point underneath where the Pennsylvania railroad bridge at that place formerly stood, the entire structure was lifted from its moorings and moved ten or twelve feet to the westward.

—A Wilkes-Barre jury after being out for eighty-one hours concluded that they couldn't agree and were discharged. They were without fire and sleeping accommodations during their session and were badly broken up.

—Mrs. Caroline Korb, of Clearfield, went to Johnstown on Thursday to make inquiries about the strange lad who had been killed by the cars at that place on the 8th of July last. She is the fifth person who has identified the child as being their son.

—Hon. J. V. Lee has been renominated for the state senate by the Republicans of the Venango and Warren districts after a prolonged struggle. Mr. Benedict, his Warren county competitor, finally withdrew.

—Dr. Day's Horse & Cattle Powder is unequalled, for bad blood, poor appetite, thin flesh, cough, cold, etc.

The National Guard. A CENTENNIAL MILITARY PARADE AND WHERE THE TROOPS WILL BE QUARTERED. [Philadelphia Press.] Arrangements for the military display on the last day of the Bicentennial, October 27, are nearing completion.

—The contract to build water works at McKeesport has been awarded. The cost is to be $90,000. —Northumberland county commissioners are calling in county bonds to the amount of upwards of $15,000.

—A Dead Thief—How it Happened. The day of the circus in Warren, Thursday of last week, the house of Mr. Adam Schutt, three miles below Warren, was closed—the inmates all being in Warren. Three tramp thieves discovered the situation, and broke into the house, taken some money, and all the silver and plated ware they could find.

—The election in Ohio on Tuesday went Democratic by from 10,000 to 15,000 majority. The Democrats are also gained several congressmen. —J. N. Rhines was badly bitten on the lip by a rat, one morning this week. Jim says it had been through the fire, as it was burned in several places. He says it wont bite another person soon.

—Chicago tenderloin steaks are pushing the home stock out of the Philadelphia market. Two-thirds of the tenderloins used in the hotels and restaurants of Philadelphia are dressed in Chicago and shipped ready to be cooked, and their cost is only twenty-one cents per pound—about one-fourth cheaper than the tenderloin served by the city butchers.

—By the new postal money order system which will go into force soon, orders for a sum less than $5 will cost three cents, and the service is extended so as to raise the limit of orders from $50 to $100. Persons will not be required to fill out a blank as at present for an order, but will receive an order, payable to the bearer at the money order office designated by the applicant.

The Two Camerons. (Phila. Press.) It is on the tongue of thousands of Republicans throughout the State that if Gen. Simon Cameron still held the helm, instead of Don, the Republican party would not be drifting among the breakers.

—The moment there is danger of impairment of the mind from excessive nervous exhaustion, or where there exists forebodings of evil, a desire for solitude, shunning and avoiding company, vertigo and nervous debility, or when insanity has already taken place, Peruna and Manilla should be implicitly relied on. But it is never well to wait so long before treatment is commenced.

Notice to Holders of County Bonds. NOTICE is hereby given to the holders of the following recited bonds of Elk county to present said bonds to the County Treasurer for payment on or before WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6, 1882, as the interest thereon will cease on that day, viz:

—The Independent Republicans of Elk county expect to have a grand at the court house on the 19th of rally October. Major Merriek and Mr. Martin a leading Independent will address the meeting.

To Whom It May Concern. Owing to the loss I sustained by the fire I am obliged to call on my many patrons for assistance in order to rebuild and carry on my business. Any person or persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle as early as possible, and much oblige J. W. MORGESTER.

Closing Out Sale. We shall continue to sell goods regardless of cost at the New York store. Note the following prices: Ladies' walking shoes and slippers, $1.25, worth $1.75; ladies' lace slippers, $1.40, worth $2.00; ladies' opera slippers, $1.00, worth $1.50; children's and misses' slippers, at correspondingly low prices; 15 pieces crash, 6 cents, worth 10 cents; ladies' Newport caps and circulars. We would particularly call the attention of lumbermen to our lumbermen's pants. Best all wool gray pants, $2.25. A good pair overalls at 40 cents. All kinds of summer goods will be sold at corresponding prices. Do not forget that we still sell our best prints for 6 cents. COHEN BROS. & BROWNSTEINE.

Exemption Laws. AN IMPORTANT DECISION REGARDING THEM BY THE SUPREME COURT. Pittsburg, Oct. 6.—The Supreme Court has just delivered an important opinion bearing upon the construction of the debtors' exemption laws in a case appealed from the common pleas of Huntingdon county. That court awarded to a debtor who was a resident of the State of Ohio, a part of the fund raised by the execution to which he was defendant under his claim for the benefit of the extension law of April 9, 1849.

—The moment there is danger of impairment of the mind from excessive nervous exhaustion, or where there exists forebodings of evil, a desire for solitude, shunning and avoiding company, vertigo and nervous debility, or when insanity has already taken place, Peruna and Manilla should be implicitly relied on. But it is never well to wait so long before treatment is commenced.

Notice to Holders of County Bonds. NOTICE is hereby given to the holders of the following recited bonds of Elk county to present said bonds to the County Treasurer for payment on or before WEDNESDAY, DEC. 6, 1882, as the interest thereon will cease on that day, viz:

—The Independent Republicans of Elk county expect to have a grand at the court house on the 19th of rally October. Major Merriek and Mr. Martin a leading Independent will address the meeting.

To Whom It May Concern. Owing to the loss I sustained by the fire I am obliged to call on my many patrons for assistance in order to rebuild and carry on my business. Any person or persons knowing themselves indebted to me will please call and settle as early as possible, and much oblige J. W. MORGESTER.

Closing Out Sale. We shall continue to sell goods regardless of cost at the New York store. Note the following prices: Ladies' walking shoes and slippers, $1.25, worth $1.75; ladies' lace slippers, $1.40, worth $2.00; ladies' opera slippers, $1.00, worth $1.50; children's and misses' slippers, at correspondingly low prices; 15 pieces crash, 6 cents, worth 10 cents; ladies' Newport caps and circulars. We would particularly call the attention of lumbermen to our lumbermen's pants. Best all wool gray pants, $2.25. A good pair overalls at 40 cents. All kinds of summer goods will be sold at corresponding prices. Do not forget that we still sell our best prints for 6 cents. COHEN BROS. & BROWNSTEINE.

Business Cards. GEO. A. RATHBUN. ATTORNEY-AT-LAW. Main street, Ridgway, Elk Co., Pa. Particular attention given to the examination of titles, also to patents and patent cases.

W. L. WILLIAMS. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Corner of Elk Co., office in rear of Ferley's Drug Store, next to Hyde House. Office hours 7 to 9 A. M., 3 to 5 P. M., 6:30 to 8:30, P. M.

W. H. SCHRAM, Proprietor. Ridgway, Elk county, Pa. Thankful for the patronage heretofore so liberally bestowed upon him, the new proprietor hereby, by putting strict attention to the comfort and convenience of guests, to merit a continuance of the same. oct29/82

PERFECTION STOCK TANK. WATER-TIGHT AND FROST-PROOF. These tanks are constructed of thick iron plates, riveted together with improved Lap Joints, and are built together with a double bottom, and are covered with two thicknesses of common roofing with tar-board between. They are made of iron, and are perfectly safe for the storage of any liquid, and are especially adapted for the storage of kerosene, oil, and other inflammable liquids. All tanks are set up, pipes marked, and knocked down and crated for shipment. CHEAP RATES OF FREIGHT SECURED.

ANTI-FREEZING IRON FORCE PUMPS. Pumps for any depth well and packed with any oil or grease. Manufacture of the celebrated Ecliptic Wind Engine Co. Sole agents of the Ecliptic Wind Engine Co. in this State. P. O. Box 25, Philadelphia, Pa.

GET THE BEST! RATHBONE'S BARD & CO. ACORN STOVES & RANGES. LEAD ALL OTHERS! Every Style & Price, Guaranteed Unequalled FOR OPERATION, ECONOMY, DURABILITY and WORKMANSHIP. Improvements and Conveniences found in no others. Always Reliable. POPULAR EVERYWHERE. For Sale in Every City and Town in the United States. W. H. HYDE & CO., AGENTS RIDGWAY.

W. H. HYDE & CO. AGENTS RIDGWAY. GOLDEN STAR OIL STOVE. STILL LEADS THE WORLD. 50,000 IN USE! Uses Ordinary Kerosene. Bakes and Cooks Equal to any Cook Stove. SEND FOR NEW CIRCULAR. MYERS, OSBORN & CO., SOLE MANUFACTURERS, CLEVELAND, OHIO. Western Branch, 48 LAKE STREET, CLEVELAND. CALL ON OUR LOCAL AGENT.