

Teams are scarce in Ridgway at five dollars a day.

The price of provisions have not come down much since the fire.

W. H. Osterhout is still building houses on his tannery property.

Plow your ground this fall, and it will repay you many times the expense.

We failed to see Barnum's great elephant at Warren, but were present at Ridgway's Jubilee fire.

At No. 6 shanty row, Main street, Ridgway, Pa., you will find THE ADVOCATE office. Stop in and see us.

Don't forget Clark Dickinson's shooting match next Saturday. Seventy-five turkeys will be shot for.

Dr. Day's Horse and Cattle Powder is unequalled for bad blood, poor appetite, thin flesh, coughs, colds, &c.

The rafters for the new Congregational church are nearly all raised. The roof is nearly a two-thirds pitch.

Shanty row is about complete now. Chas. Hoies will build a little addition to his store, and the Rhines boys will add ten feet to their saloon.

John Cassery has the contract for building the wall under Morgester's new store. He commenced laying stone on Saturday.

An excursion was planned for last Sunday from Ridgway to the Kinzua bridge. The matter fell through from some cause or other.

The old ADVOCATE is $1.00 a year. About 15 new subscribers have enlisted since the fire. We have room on our books at No. 6 shanty row for a few more.

The weather is delightful, and the beautiful colors of the trees, arrayed in their many varied costumes, make the aspect of nature a pleasant panorama.

The Bi-Centennial celebration at Philadelphia next week will be one of the greatest shows ever witnessed by the city of brotherly love. It will almost eclipse the centennial.

Election day will be warm in Jones township we rather mistrust, as Messrs. Brown and Montgomery, the Democratic and Republican candidates for Assembly both live there.

The great fire in Ridgway on the morning of Sept. 29 will mark the beginning of a new epoch in the history of Ridgway. May future successes compensate us for the losses of that eventful morning.

J. S. Magnius has rented his saloon to Kubbes and Pitts. Mr. Magnius has long had the reputation of keeping a quiet, orderly place, which reputation we have no doubt his successors will sustain.

Vote for O. M. Montgomery, the Republican candidate for Assembly. He will make a creditable representative. He has made his way up from the ranks. The boys should stand by him. Vote for Montgomery.

A special term of court was held here on Saturday by Judge Brown and associates Wels and Messenger. The licenses of Rhines Bros. John McGrady, and Jas. Magnius, were made good in their forced removal to the opposite side of the street.

Bennett, the painter has lettered Powell & Kime's store on the north and south sides, Chas. Olmstead has made a fine large sign for Morgester, Cuthy has painted a saloon sign for the Rhines boys. Hoies and the ADVOCATE office also sport large signs lettered by Bennett.

The very prompt and generally satisfactory adjustment of the losses by Ridgway's recent fire inspired our citizens with renewed confidence in the several companies. Our local agents H. M. Powers, and M. S. Kline did effective work in having the losses promptly paid.

By an agreement among the owners of property from Broad to Mill street, the burned district, the buildings will be placed on a line with Messenger's drug store and the Hyde House. The line of the street is out six feet further, but as the buildings were formerly built on the old line it was thought best to build the new ones on the same line. This will give the merchants a good chance to display goods in front of their stores without intruding on the street.

NOTICE.

To Those Interested: My attention has been called to the fact that numerous places of business within the limits of our borough are habitually kept open for trade on Sunday. This is not only contrary to law, but demoralizing in its effect upon the community, a slur upon Christianity, and repugnant to the feelings of a large proportion of our population. Gentlemen, if you have no regard for religion, morality, or the feelings of your neighbors, I submit the question to you: Is it any pecuniary advantage to you? Do you sell any more goods in the seven days than you would in six? In either case the consumption is the same.

The deluge of drunkenness seen daily and nightly upon our streets attest the fact that our saloons and hotel keepers are constantly guilty of flagrant violations of law. This must be stopped. Laws are for the benefit of the community at large, and must be enforced.

The borough constables will see that the Sunday and the license laws are strictly enforced from this time forth. J. POWELL, Burgess. Ridgway, Oct. 18, 1882.

Personal.

Hugh McGeehin will build his new store of brick.

J. S. Singleton has bought a colt from W. C. Geary.

Hornee Warner, of Jones township, was in Ridgway to-day.

William Sweet has moved his shoe shop into No. 3 Shanty Row.

Mrs. Jane Barrett is home after an absence of several months from Ridgway.

Mrs. James M'Affee and Mrs. A. Swartz Ross are on a visit to friends in Lock Haven.

The post-office building owned by Jas. H. Hagerty has been sold to L. S. Garritt & Son.

Mrs. J. B. Royce, the Sophia Willis of former days, died at Washington, D. C., on Sunday last.

Mrs. Warner, and daughter Hatie, mother and sister of Mrs. Jas. Magnius are here on a visit.

We acknowledge our obligations to G. C. Brandon of the St. Mary's Gazette for many courtesies tendered since the fire.

One of our sprightly Ridgway girls made three "nashes" in one day recently and then boasted of her achievements to ye Editor, but we will say nothing about it.

BIRTHS.

CHAPIN.—On Saturday, Oct. 14, 1882, to Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Chapin, of Brockwayville, a daughter.

ROSS.—On Tuesday, Oct. 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Ross, Jr., of this place, a daughter.

MARRIED.

BEVIER—ALDRICH.—On Oct. 12th, at the residence of the bride's parents, Wilcox, Pa., by Rev. T. S. Nesley, Mr. Arthur Bevier, M. D., of Ellinville, N. Y., and Miss Jessie M. Aldrich.

Deaths.

DEVOGE.—On Saturday, Oct. 14, 1882, of this Borough, aged 18 years. Deceased was buried on Monday by the C. T. A. U. of Ridgway, which society he had been a member of for more than a year. He came home on Saturday's mail, and expired on the threshold of his brother's residence.

The nights are becoming frosty. Baking powder freshly made twice a week at Day's drug store.

Indications are that the present winter will be an unusually severe one.

Co. H will leave Ridgway next Tuesday on mail to attend the Bi-Centennial celebration at Philadelphia.

On the Ridgway and Clearfield railroad bridge across Elk creek at the lower end of town, men are kept busily pumping night and day to keep the water out of the trenches dug to receive the stone abutments.

The Hoosier Lifting Jack is one of the most convenient contrivances imaginable to have around a farm. It is just the thing to hoist wagon wheels. J. W. Lahlive is the agent for Elk county.

Prof. Covner's Band is one of the best in the country and adds another feature to the attractions of Madden & Cary's Humpty Dumpty.—Columbus, Ohio Democrat.

They will parade the streets of our town Monday afternoon, Oct. 23. Renovo, Pa., Oct. 20th 1882, Will Dickinson, Esq., Ridgway, Pa.

Dear Sir:—Replying to your favor of 16th inst. and telegram of to-day relative to excursion to high bridge. We saw the officers connected with the N. Y. L. & W. R. R. & Coal Co. yesterday and they informed me they could not receive any trains at present. That as soon as they get ready they will gladly accommodate us which they expect to be able to do in a short time.

YOURS truly,

E. B. WESTFALL, Supt. M. D.

George DeHaven, the head of the advertising bureau of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has prepared a map showing the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad system and its feeder. The system embraces 5,525.01 miles of track east of Pittsburgh and Erie and 4,380.66 west of Pittsburgh, making a total of 10,915.67 miles of track in the whole system.

Fast driving over the iron bridges across Elk creek and the Clarion river should be discontinued under severe penalties. We were on the Elk creek bridge the other day when a man on horseback trotted his horse across, and the bridge suffered more strain from that piece of carelessness than it would have received from years of wear. The notice on the Elk creek bridge has been removed and should be replaced. This matter is worthy the attention of our Borough dads.

Boards Wanted.

L. C. Dickinson, at west Ridgway, is prepared to take a few first-class boards. Apply at his store.

A Runaway.

J. W. Morgester, wife and child were out for a pleasure ride on Sunday afternoon last, when the horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. Morgester with great presence of mind reached as far out the rear of the buggy as he could and carefully dropped the child, ten months old, to the ground, the horse the meanwhile doing its level best to kick off the dash board. After going a few rods from where the baby was dropped out the horse succeeded in freeing itself from the buggy when the vehicle upset. The accident occurred near Bardwell's farm and the horse ran down the hill and into Dickinson's mill race. The horse was taken home a good deal the worse for wear. The occupants of the buggy escaped without injury, the baby was recovered all right, and all is well that ends well.

Bevier—Aldrich.

The residence of A. T. Aldrich of Wilcox, Penna. was on Thursday 12 inst the scene of a happy gathering of friends and neighbors, who came to witness the marriage of their daughter Miss Jessie to Dr. A. B. Bevier of Ellinville, N. Y.

The day was pleasant and everything auspicious. The parlor was tastefully decorated with autumn foliage and grasses, and from the ceiling hung a beautiful floral bell, the gift of one of the ladies present, long before the appointed hour the favored ones began to arrive, and by 11 o'clock the last carriage stopped and the last guest entered the room, at 11.30 the bridal pair appeared, ushered in by their brothers Ernest O. Aldrich and H. N. Bevier, taking their places under the marriage bell, were by the simple ceremonies of the Presbyterian church united in the bonds of wedlock, by the Pastor Rev. T. S. Nesley.

There followed greetings and congratulations after which all were invited to a collation. The festivities were concluded at 3 p. m., and at 4.30 followed by showers of rice, old shoes and the hearty God speeds of interested friends the happy couple started for their new home by way of Phillipsburg, the residence of the groom's parents, where they will spend a week. The presents were numerous and appropriate, consisting mainly of the following:

Elegant hand painted China tea set 42 pieces, $20 gold piece, silver cake basket, silver butter dish, decorated China cream pitcher, silver clock, half dozen silver spoons in Morocco cases, oil painting (snow scene), one dozen silver knives, silver teapot, silver and glass card receivers, solid silver butter knife, ice cream knife, set of Bronte's novels (4 vols.), porcelain plaque with autumn leaves, silver and glass fruit stand (very fine), elegant painted pin cushion, handsome hand and embroidered tidy, toilet cushion, paucis, broom holder, three table cloths, two dozen napkins, fancy towels, silver and glass bouquet stand, silver pickled stand beautiful silver coffee server (elegant and engraved), silver knife rest, silver nut cracker, cut glass and silver cognac stand, table brush and pan, pickle caster, glass preserve dish, Morocco port monie, fruit silver, &c.

Crazed by His Losses.

W. D. ARCHBOLD'S MIND BREAKS DOWN UNDER THE INCREASED BURDEN OF HANDLING IMMENSE QUANTITIES OF OIL ON AN UNSURE MARKET.

The effect of the late flurry in oil is beginning to be apparent. The advance was so rapid, unprecedented and unexpected that the losses sustained were enormous. William D. Archbold, one of the most respected and most solid financial men in the exchange, Oil City, has been deprived of his reason, temporarily at least, by his great losses and the excitement and worry incident thereto. For the past month his business has averaged nearly a million barrels daily and during the past five years he has not been absent from the exchange on a business day. The strain was so great on his mental faculties that they gave way. About noon Tuesday he left the exchange, went to one of the hotels and procured a basket of lunch and strolled out into the woods, telling the party of whom he procured it to say nothing about his getting it. During the afternoon his bookkeeper became alarmed and telegraphed to his home in Titusville to know if he had been there. The reply was in the negative, but stated that he had written his wife bidding her good bye. The belief then became prevalent that he had committed suicide. A searching party was organized and during the evening he was found in a small isolated cottage a short distance out of town. He was taken to his home at once. The unfortunate man is confined to his bed in a critical condition. The president of the exchange had made an assignment and during the day had sold four hundred and ninety-one thousand barrels of oil under the rule for his account. The man is a complete wreck mentally from over excitement and over work. His losses are said to be the result of the failure of outside parties. One firm in Albany alone is said to have laid down on him for $75,000. Mr. Archbold's business men deeply regret among the business men as he was a great favorite. The failure caused no panic in the market though it declined somewhat.

Godfrey Parrott, of Millstone township on Oct. 13, met with a gunning accident which cost him the loss of three fingers of the right hand. He had fired the gun and was in the act of re-loading. When the load was about half way down the barrel his little son pulled up the hammer when the gun went off tearing off the greater part of three fingers.

In a speech at Wilkesbarre on Saturday evening D. J. McCarthy, a member of Drifton, Luzerne county, charged that Cameron's emissaries had been in that county, corruptly using money to organize the Greenback Labor party in the interest of the Stalwart candidates. He exhibited $5 notes which had received through Patrick Dougherty from John D. Birmingham, who was recognized as one of Cameron's agents, and alleged that in consideration of a promise to help in the work, he also held up before the audience fraudulent credentials to the late Labor county convention held in Wilkesbarre and stated all but three of the delegates to that body were admitted on fraudulent credentials and were paid $3 a day for nothing as delegates. In a subsequent interview Mr. McCarthy stated that after the late Labor convention in Wilkesbarre Frank Heath, chairman of the Greenback committee, a man named Atwood, of Houseville, and another person met in a room in the Luzerne Hotel and divided a sum of money, amounting to several hundred dollars. The money was in $10 and $20 bills and the men departed warmly over the division, each claiming a larger share than he received. The expose created a profound sensation.

Free Rum in Tennessee.

The Democratic party does not propose to plant its banners upon the rum shops. It urges total abstinence as the only remedy for the evils of intemperance. But it will never invade the rights of others by a resort to the old, faulted intolerance which seized power, whether found in church or State, to crush out all freedom of opinion and conduct. The legislation in Spain annihilated liberty by fire and sword, and if we adopt the method of enforcing our pet opinions upon those who disagree with us, and invoke the aid of the State in procuring what men shall eat, drink and wear, we will gradually extend the method until we finally get back to the old inquisition again.—Memphis Appeal.

Pennsylvania Game Laws.

Ruffed grouse can be killed from now until January 1. The same dates also govern the killing of pinnated grouse in those sections where recently these prairie-haunting birds have been introduced. Deer can be also shot from October 1 until December 1, and quail and wild turkeys from the 19th inst to January 1; but rabbits are not legal prey till November 1, and after that date may be killed on to January 1. Woodcock, however, are in season from July 4 to January 1; squirrels from September 1 to the end of the year, and wildfowl from September 1 to the 15th of next May. The penalty for infringement of these laws ranges from $5 to $25 for each bird or species of ground game shot out of season.

The Fruits of Merit.

DR. HARTMAN & CO.—Please send me a lot of your books on the "Fruits of Merit." I sell a great deal of your Ferriana and Mannin. They are very highly spoken of in this part of the country. F. H. For 29 years the American Agriculturist, now in its 43d year, has been recognized as the leading Agricultural Journal of the world. Notwithstanding its past wonderful success, it now offers upon a new car, and purpose to equal its past accomplishments moving forward to fresh conquests.

The October number appears in a New Cover, New Dress, New Type, New Engravings, with New Artists, and additional Editorial Writers, making altogether the most superb periodical of the kind ever issued. From this time forward the American Agriculturist is determined to avail itself of the best brain power, and the first article of talent in the country. The proprietors have but to point to its past record as a guarantee of our promises for the future. Never before in its career was the Journal so propitious as now, and at no time since the first year has it followed the war have subscriptions come in so numerously as they are now coming. We confidently believe that the American Agriculturist is the best paper in the United States for other journals to club with, being exclusively Agricultural in its character, as it is, and thus competing with no local Journal. Price $1.50 a year. Single copy, 10 cents. CHANGE OF COMPANY. DAVID W. JUDG, Vice-President. SAMUEL BURNHAM, Secretary.

A Reproductive Comet.

The present comet in the eastern sky which can be distinctly seen by everyone at early morning, is certainly the most remarkable one of all the modern comets. Prof. Lewis Swift, director of the Warner Observatory, Rochester, N. Y., states that the comet grazed the sun so closely as to cause great disturbance, so much so that it has divided into no less than eight separate parts, all of which can be distinctly seen by a good telescope. There is only one other instance on record where a comet has divided, that one being Biella's comet of 1819, which separated into two parts. Applications have been made to Mr. H. H. Warner by parties who have noted these cometary phenomena, claiming the $200 prize for each of them. Whether the great comet will continue to produce a brood of smaller comets remains to be seen.

Ridgway Lodge No. 969, I. O. of O. F. meets every Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in their hall over the post office.

MANHOOD

HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure of Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy and fits induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c. The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps. Address, THE CULVERWELL MEDICAL CO., 41 AND 43, NEW YORK, N. Y.; Post Office Box, 305.

A Little Child Killed.

A heart rending accident occurred on the D. A. V. & P. road near Singersville, Tuesday afternoon, resulting in the death of Jessie Eldridge, a little child apparently three years old. Passenger train 4, conductor Cass and engineer Phillips, coming north discovered the child lying on the track, but too late to stop the train, and the cruel wheels entirely severed the child's head from the body. Inquiry at the nearest house failed to identify the child and the body was brought to the neighborhood of the accident to inquire whose child was missing. The parents were found living a mile away from the place, and the little one had evidently strayed away, following her pet kitten, which was clasped in her arms as she lay asleep on the track with her curly head over the fatal iron rail. The engineer did all that mortal could do to avert the accident, but that little mangled body will always be a terrible remembrance to him.—Warren Mail.

Almost every store in the country has on its counter, a show case of Dr. Day's medicine. By a glance at the display, it will be seen that direct selling remedies are offered for many every day complaints, and as they are all the results of study and experience, their worth may be relied on.

Dr. Day's Liver Pills are taken in a different way from any other pill, and only a trial is needed to prove their great superiority in all cases of liver complaint and constipation.

Dr. Day's Cold Medicine has great power over colds and sore throat, and persons subject to quinsy need not have their voices break if they take this remedy in time.

The show case contains a number of others, but special attention is called to Dr. Day's Cure for Piles, as having a greater curative influence over the parts implicated, than any other medicine known.
