The board of the officers of the State Fencibles' Battalion having offered the services of the battalion to Governor-elect Pattison as escort from Philadelphia to Harrisburg on the oceasion of his inauguration, he has Berger, adjutant and secretary of board of officers, in the following letter:

Philadelphia, Nov. 18, 1882, MY DEAR SIR: I desire to acknowledge the receipt of your letter advising me on the resolution unanimously passed at a meeting of the board of officers of the State Fencibles, battalion tendering me the services of the battalion as an escort from my home to Harrisburg on the occasion of the inauguration of the Governor of the Commonwealth in January next. This letter is only one of many I am daily receiving of similar import from various organizations, both civil and military. "As I was at one time a member and president of your battalion, it is not improper that I relect my reply to your invitation as a method of communicating my purpose as to the inauguration to all those organizations that have already addressed me on the subject or might be likely to take any action in the matter in the future. For the personal compliment intended to be bestowed upon me by these friends I am sincerely grateful, but must decline to accept their kind offers, for the reasons I am about to state. I have always entertained a profound conviction that a simple and undemonstrative inauguration of public officers was most in accord with the spirit of republican institutions. There is no reason that I can see why the mere taking of an oath by the citizen called by the people to execute a public trust should be made the occasion for scenes of pageantry and demonstration. To my mind the solemnness of the act is marred by the intrusion of such needless and inopportune display. The sooner we return to simplicity and democratic good sense in these matters the better -better for the people and better for the officers. Besides, I am resolutely determined that, so far as I can control the matter, my inauguration as Governor shall not cost the people of Pennsylvania one dollar. Why should it? They derive no benefit from such to that time he remained in his cell, is wasted. These are my reasons for declining place in the eye of the public. Thereown expense to be present at and occasion. More than that I do not wish to inspire and cannot approve. Respectfully yours,

ROBERT E. PATTISON.

Indiana's Total Vote.

OVER TWENTY THOUSAND REPUBLI-Indianapolis, Nov. 18.—The total vote cast in Indiana at the late elec-State, Hawn (Republican), 210,169; Myers (Democrat), 220,978; Leonord (Greenbacker), 13,129. The Democratic plurality is 10,809, and the party is in a minority of 2320 compared with the vote of 1880. The Republican vote has decreased 21,995, the Democratic vote 4544, while the Greenback vote has increased 143-a net decrease on the total vote of 26,396 as compared with the vote on representatives in the General Assembly. The total majority in favor of submitting the constitutional amendments to a direct vote of the people-the issue upon which the Republicans and Greenbackers are in harmony—is 3762; yet the Democrats have the control of both Houses of the Legislature, with a joint majority of twenty-two. The Greenbackers have but one membera representative in the lower House. It is understood that Joseph S. Daily will contest the seat of Major George W. Stael, from the Eleventh district, while the seat of Major Calkins, from the Thirteenth district, will be contested. There is also talk of Mr. English contesting Mr. Peel's election. This talk all grows out of the idea that a party in power will pay no attention to a small majority, however honest; and it is expected that Mr. Calkins will have to go because of his action as chairman of the committee on elections at the last session. If a contest should be pushed in this district, the evidence would open up the blackest page of Demoeratic intimidation and corruption ever known in Indiana. It will not be undertaken.

Turning 100 Years.

SCHUYLKILL COUNTY LADY. St. Clair, Nov. 14,-There will be quite a celebration here to-morrow over the centennial birthday of Mrs. Ann Kear, mother of Mrs. Jane Short with whom she is living. Mrs. Kear, nee Marshall, was born Nov. 15, 1782, at Awr, Gloucestershire, England, and declined the offer in a letter to Charles at the age of twenty-six married Matthew Kear. In 1851, they came to America and became residents of this county, where she has resided conlinuously. She is the mother of eleven children, five of whom still live. Her health is excellent, her faculties bright and clear, her memory being particularly good. She walks without assistance of any kind, and converses with much intelligence upon national events of the time of her youth.

Longeneker, whose official majority is 153, Although it has been well known in the district ever since last Wednesday morning that Longenecker was elected. a number of newspapers have continued to keep the name of his Democratic opponent on the list of senatorselect. The vote in the district was as follows: Longenecker, Republican, 7152; Reynolds, Democrat, 6999; Conley, Independent, 556. Four years ago, Grof, Democrat, was elected by 622 majority. Mr. Longenecker has redeemed the district, notwithstanding the Independent vote and the dissentious in the Republican party. Probably no other man in the district could have done this. Mr. Longenecker is an anti-Cameron man, a thorough Republican, and has always favored purer methods in politics.

[Chicago Times.] The Democrats for a good while have been talking very sweetly for civil service reform, tariff reform, curtailments of appropriations, reductions of internal taxes, and all manner of nice things. They have viewed the course of the deprived party in power with alarm, and in no measured terms have denounced it for its corruption and extravagance. Next winter they will have complete control of the lower House of Congress, Will they improve upon the party which they succeed? They will have a clear majority of eighty over the Republicans, and no better opportunity could be presented to demonstrate the sincerity of their professions. The public will look for reform and economy. "The devil when sick a monk would be," but when in the enjoyment of robust health he is pretty certain to "cut up" as wickedly as ever. Is this the case of the Democrats?

A Miracle.

Whenever there is an extraordinary occurrence—a team runs over a child without hurting it: a mechanic falls from a third-story window, and in a week after he is at work again, we are want to exclaim, "what a miracle!" So when Mrs. T. S. Ererline, then of able book published, or, to save time, Allegheny City, Pa., had been sick send 50 cts. at once for canvassing with Consumption for a very long book and state your choice of township. Outilt and sample copy sent best physicians of that city that her time was but for a few hours, that she must die, and when the use of but one bottle of Peruna in a week's time placed her ou her feet again and made her the heartest eater of the family, all the people around, as with one rejoicing voice, exclaimed. "What a wonderful miracle!" See page 20 of the "Ills of Life. ' Your Druggist will give one gratis.
