large number of descendants now living in our midst. One of the most eminent men burled here was Governor Ward, of Bhodo Island. His body was interred beneathone of the aisles within the oburch building. His remains were claimed by one of his grandsons, who came on from New York to receive them. They will be removed to Rhode Island. The slab ever the grave of the Governor contains the following inscription, which will be read with interest, coming, as it did, from the pen of the celebrated Join Jay: IN MEMORY
