BERNARD RAFFERTY, Scoretary. ecz-fm THE WEATHER AND THE FRUIT CROPS .- From THE WEATHER AND THE FRUIT CROPS.--From the Alexandria Gazette we gather the following: Notwithstanding a great deal of the early fruit was killed by the late cold spell, still, as we are creditably informed, present appearances indicate that there will be no lack of fruit the coming sea-son. The peach, pear, cherry, and other trees are still blooming, and inspection shows that we shall have a sufficient crop of each of these delicious fruits. From the Democrat, St. Cloud, Minn, If you are, or have been troubled with the headache, send for a box, [Cephalic Fills,] so that you may have them in case of an attack. From the Advertiser, Providence, R. I. The Cephalic Pills are said to be a remarkably effec-ive remedy for the headache; and one of the very best or that very frequent complaint which has ever been inovered. The Portsmouth (Va.)
