TO THE PUBLIC.

The following letter from Mr. Fliman, which was read to the public last evening, will speak for itself:

Ladies and Gentlemen: Never having yet addressed any andience, nor possessing a voice strong enough to be hearfy I have to appeal to you in writing I entreat you to listen until the end, and I assure you, that you will be better pleased with it than with the beginning. At noon, to-day, I received the following telegram:

6 R. ULIMAN, ACADIMY OF MUSIC, PHILADBLPHIA.

6 An accident occurred last night to Brignoli, his foot slipped and he fell down. It is impossible for him to walk. Dr. Cummindam, myself and Davido are trying to persuade him to leave at two. I hope you will prepare yourself for the worst. Communicate with Gran and Brignoli to Everett House. Probably, if necessary, you will change for Thursday and Friday. J. GRAU, "At three o'clock I received another telegram, as follows: CR. ULLMAR, ACABEMY OF MUSIC, PHILABELBINA. -Brignoti left at two. Prepare Dr Goddard to meet him.

J. GRAU."

Mr. Brignoli has arrived, but his foot is in a state that he cannot walk. Here is the certificate of Dr. Goddard:

LA PERME HOUSE, Oct. 23, 1891.

17 P. M.: I have just examined Mr. Brignoli's foot;
Le is not able to walk without great suffering. It is impossible for him to play to-night; but he will be able to appear to-morrow.

PAUL B. GODDARD, M. D." possible for him to play to-night; but he will be able to appear to-morrow.

PAUL B. GODDAM, M. D."

Under these circumstances, I propose to you a concert, in which will appear Miss Kellogg, Miss Hinkley, Madame Strakosch, Sienor Mancus; and Sienor Susini. They, of course, must sing in their travelling dresses. This concert faire to you gratuitously.

To-morrow evening will be given the "Ballo in Maschera." You will be admitted with your tickets of tonight, and you can occupy the same seats, without additional expense.

On Friday, will be given, for the first time in America, Donizetti's Comic Opera of "Betty," and the charming Opera Comique (in French) of "Les Noces De Jeannette,"—Jeannette's Wedding.

You, therefore, are no lossers by this disappointment, which falls beavily only on me. The expenses slrendy incurred cannot be retrieved, and the two performances, which ought to have yielded me a handsome profit, and ce abled me to prepare a regular winter season, will prove a dead loss to me.

I trust, therefore, that you will do your best to indemnify me by inducing your friends to attend the operate-motive aid on Friday, and I can guaranter you a musical treat, which, under any circumstances, you will otherwise have to forego for nouths.

With my great regrets for any disappointment, I am, ladies and gentlemen, your obedient servant,

P. S.—Each of you will receive bis ticket of admission back at the door, after the Concert, to be good for tonorrow night.
