ful year's experience, and installer is a new addition the publications of this beneficent and Catholic inst ion, intended for circulation among the thousands of children in its various missionary fields throughout the Union. They are both beautifully illustrated, and are models of the typographic art. The reading matter also is unexceptionably good. POPULAR ESTABLISHMENT.—It is estimated that from four to five thousand persons visited the store of Messrs. E. G. Whitman & Co., Second street, below Chestnut, on Saturday last, and were waited upon, Yot, with all this fabulous draft upon their exquisite holiday preparations, their display of fine, delicious, and tempt ing confectionery seemed to be multiplying itself for the accumulating demand from some unseen source. The secret of the extraordinary success of this old and popular house lies in the fact of their making the very best quality of goods, selling them at moderate prices, and making all their customers feel at home.

FRUIT, GOOD CIDER, Raisins, for fine cooking purposes, and a hundred other articles only found prime in a first class grocery store, can be had fresh and ele-gant, together with everything e'se desirable or choice in the grocery line, at the store of Mr. C. H. Mattson, corner of Arch and Tenth streets.

AN ATTRACTIVE EIGHTH-STREET ESTABLISH-MENT,-Mesers. Witters & Co. No. 35 North Eightle street, corner of Filbert, have added to their fine stock of Lamps a sp'endid assortment of fancy goods for the Holidays. Their store is a great centre of attraction for ladies now shopping in that busy thoroughfare. They are selling a most beautiful line of Turkey morocco goods, of all kinds, at unusually low prices.

MESSRS. CHARLES OAKFORD & Son, nuder the Continental Hotel, has the largest and most elegant stock of goods, especially adapted for presents, that the have ever offered. Every lady and gentleman in Philadelphia should visit their splendid salesrooms before purchasing elsewhere, as their stick conbraces everything that is unique, handsome, desirable, or seasonable, fessi a neat necktie to the most elegant sets of Ladies' Furs. Their prices are lower than the same goods have ever been sold for heretofore.

NEWSTAPER CHANGE.-We perceive by the Inst number of the New York Independent, that that popular journal is to be hereufter under the edito. rial charge of Roy. Henry Ward Beecher, in asso ciation with Theodore Tilton, Esq. Under this effi-cient management, its vigor and popularity will doubtless be greatly increased. HAMBLETON'S HAIR STAIN .- The most reliable article in use for coloring the hair and whiskers a not, 228 Spruce street.

uslity, and at moderate prices. THE TRENT AFFAIR !- "The plot thickens." Now it is rumored "Mason and Slidell must be given up, with an apology, or fight." This, if true, as the prize-fighters would say, "means mischief." Now, again, w hear that the letter of the old here, Scott, will much appears the British lion, and, on second thought, he will fear to make a mess of it." Then, again, we hear that "Seward has made it all right." We would like to know what right is, even if Soward has made it so. We think Wilkes made it "all right." Everything, in fact, is so exciting, now-a-days, in the papers, that it is feared that the business advertisements of such establishments as Charles Stokes' "One-Price" Clothing Store, under the " Continental," may be overlooked.

THE DESPATCHES FROM MR. ADAMS .- The Secretary of State has called a Cabinet meeting and ead before the Government the special despatches of Mr. C. F. Adams, the Minister to the Court of St. James, relative to the Trent affair. Mr. Seward subsequently assured our attentive special correspondent at Washing ion, that reasons of State would prevent his makin known their entire contents at present; but he sail he was at liberty to say that the the American Minister declared, unhesitatingly, in his communication, that, in and civilians, to be found in any part of the world, were those made at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestnut street, above

THE LOYALTY OF IRELAND.—We see, by late advices from Europe, that a large meeting of the Irish England, was held at Dublin. That Ireland has a stronger attachment for the United States, where thousands of her sons now live and are protected, than she has for oppressing and tyrannical England, is plain to the minds of all. In case of an outbreak, however, between the two countries, all wire and loyal folks will continu to purchase their clothing at the Palati d Establishmen of Granville Stokes, 609 Chestnut street, who is now dis posing of his entire stock of winter garments at sacrificing prices.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS AT E. W. CARRYL & Co.'s House-furnishing Store, 715 Chestnut street. Pine Ten Trays, in sets, $2.50 to $30. Willow Work Stands, $2.50 to $7.50. Willow Chairs for Children, $1 to $4.

From Henry Flanders, Esq., author of Flanders on Shipping, Flanders on Marithmo Law, and Peizo Commissioner for this Port.

"I have had occasion to examine Pritchard's Digest heretofore, and I have made a more particular examination of it since you asked my opinion of it. Considered solely in the light of an index to maritime and prize law it is extremely valuable. But it is much more than an index its statemenn of the principles determined by the English Courts in all that class of cases is full and accurrate. Any American lawyer who is called upon to deal with the year. American lawyer who is called upon to deal with the va-rious questions growing out of commercial and maritime transactions and maritime captures must find it an in-KAY & BROTHER,
