If Mr. Freeman then rose, and urged that the legitimate way to receive the certificates was for the clerk to call off the wards, and the members should hand them in zeriation. This was the rule of the House of Representatives, ast Washington and at Harrisburg, and had been the rule in Gosmon Council hitherto.

Mr. LOCULIN made a speech favoring the plan of handing the certificates to Dr. Sites.

Mr. LOCULIN made that it had not been ascertained that Dr. Sites had been chosen temporary chairman, and that the Democrats could not carry out their bold plan.

An additional chair was then placed on the speaker's platform, and Mr. Kert took the regular chair, while Mr.
Freshan took the other one.

Meser, Frence, and Kerr the the termined their plates for the bonor of being chosen President, amid president freshalor.

Both chairmen then directed the members to come forpard and be qualified.

Mr. Kerk then swore in the Democrats, and Mr.
Trainman qualified the People's members, both operations going on at once and rather interfering with the solvenity of the oath 'to support the Constitution of the United Brates and of, the State of Pennsylvania, and to perform their duties as members of this Council faithfully.

Both sides then proceeded to elect the other officers of the body. The Democrats chose Messrs. P. H. Lutz and messes of the people's marty chose Messrs. Collins and Taylor

The People's marty chose Messrs. C. E. Gordon and

3. H. Haines clerks, and Messrs. Hall and Zimmerman histograps.

Both sides then chose committees to wait on Select Branch, and on the Mayor, to inform them that "Common Council was organized and ready for business."

An interrespun of fulling and laughing ensued, Messes. Freeman and Kerr still occupying the chair, and both clerk occupying the chair, and both clerk occupying the clerk's deek, while the gallery fooked on with deep interest.

Both committees son to the Mayor then returned, in a hasse which was rather undignished, and reported to the two chairment that "The Mayor would recognize Common. Commit when it was properly stranized, and not still feen." [Shouts of laughter.]

After the confusion had somewhat mubsided Mr. Freeman invited the members who had been sworn in to come may and record their names.

After this the Chamber again relapsed into inaction to await the return of the two committees rent into Select Council chamber. After considerable delay Dr. Sites, from the committee appointed by Mr. Kerr, to wait on Select Branch, reported that they had performed their duty, and the matter was under discussion in that Chamber and the matter was under discussion in that Chamber and the matter was under discussion in that Chamber and the matter was under discussion in that Chamber and the matter was under discussion in that Chamber and the matter was under discussion in that Chamber and the contract of the contract Ber.
An interval then occurred, and nothing was done until
A. P. M., when both chairman called the Chamber to order, and Mr. Kerr requested all who were not members to retire beyond the bar.
Dr. Strue then said that an informal committee had been appointed in a quiet way, and had the trouble ander discussion for some time, Their declain, nine out of eleven voting for it, was, in substance, that a committee abould be appointed at this time to discuss the question of the Nineteenth ward certificates. If the asprecision of the Nineteenth ward certificates. guestion of the Niveicenth ward certificates. It is to as-certained that the Democrats from that ward are elected, then the People's party officers shall resign; if the Peo-ple's man are elected in the Ninotcenth ward then the People's officers shall serve.

This gave rise to an animated discussion, which lasted Tron three fill seven o'clock, nearly all the members par-clicipating. The resolution was finally voted down. After smother discussion, at the solicitation of Mr. Trego, Mr. Curler, the President of Select Council, made a proposi-tion as follows:

Cupier, the President of Science council, many a proposition as follows:

That all four of the confestants withdraw their certificates, and agree to present their claims to a committee of twelve persons, to be appointed by Councils, who shall have full powers to examine ballot-boxes, &c., and that both parties excree to suide by the dreision of said committee. That Bit. Trego, the former President, receive the excitations of all the members. The organization to be temporary, and that no business be transacted pending the contest.

At 8 o'clock the proposition of Mr. Cuyler was put to a vote, and carried. Both the presidents now retired, and Mr. Trego took the chair, in accordance with the fermios of the compact. The members from the Nineteenth ward also retired, as per agreement. The reaching of this object was received with appliance in the galleries, and the certificates of the members were now handed to the chairs, and the set of the the chair. The body then went into an election for officers, when be same officers (Democratic) were elected.

A committee of two was appointed to inform Select was appointed to wait on the Mayor.

We have previously spoken of Mr. Cleveland's the powers of oratory and analysis, and they are now becoming so widely recognized by the public that it is unnecessary for us to say more. Every thorough student of English literature, every Shakspearian enthusiast who desires to see his favorite honestly discussed, and not tawdrily bedecked, as well as all who desire their institution into our great bard to be correctly and elegantly conducted, would do well to hear Mr. Cleveland's expositions.

COAL OIL .- We understand that at a meeting of the fire underwriters, held a few days since, the fol-lowing resolution was adopted, viz: Resolved, That where benzine, benzole, naptha, or other explosive products of total Oil, are stored in quantities less times three barrels; also, where refined Coal Oil is kept in quantities not exceeding twenty barrels, the take of premium to be charged shall be the same as on which all phase does risks. Such an oppor-tunity to obtain elegant goods, cheap, has seldom been offered. It should be embraced by everybody. A Snow Storm.—Yesterday morning the A SNOW STORK.—Description of the story of the story fell briskly, whitening the ground and housetops, choking up the railways, but compensating for the obstruction of the fron roads by opening up a good road for sleight runners. The bells lingled merrily, and the belies neatled close beside their beaux as they dashed over the nestied close beside their beaux as they dashed over the frozen ground. The ladies "to a man" were swathed in furs, and the gentlemen were at once elegant and comfortable in the whiter garments they had procured at the Brown Stone Clothing Hall of Rockhill & Wilson, Nos. 603 and 605 Chestant street, above Sixth. Scores of thousands of soldlers in camp, and of civilians in town and country are made comfortable at this inclement season by the suits made at this famous establishment.

THE LATE PRINCE ALBERT .- By the late THE LATE PRINCE ALBERT.—By the late English papers we see that the death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Francis Augustus Charlos Emanuel of Saxe Coburg and Gotha, Duke of Saxony, K. G., K. T., K. P., G. O. M. G., Knight of the Gother Fleece, Grand Master of the Order of the Bath, Field Marshal in the Army, Colonel of the Grenadier Guards, Colonel-in-Chief of the Bifle Brigade, Captain General and Colonel of the Hon. Artillery Company, Lord Warden et the tannaries, and Chief Steward of the Duchy of Cornwall, Governor and Constable of Windsor Castle, Ranger of Windsor Great Park, Chancellor of the University of Cambridge, and Master of the Trinity House, is sincerely Combringe, and naster of the Amin's charges is aniceraly mourned by the whole British press. An interesting item we noticed in the advertising columns of the London News was the opening of a large Gentlemen's Ciothing Store, on the principle of "one price," similar to Chas. Stokes' extensive Ciothing house, under the "Continential the site."

APPEAL FOR THE SUFFERING
POOR.—Hundreds in our city are now suffering from cold, hunger, and sickness. That loathsome and appalling disease, small-pox, prevails largely at prosent among the destitute. "THE HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF PHILADELPHIA" appeals most sarnestly to the public to furnish the sid necessary to enable its agents to relieve this want and distress. This Society has been laboring among the poor of this community for twenty-siz years, and many thousands whom it has aided by its timely anistance and counsel can textify of its efficiency and success in this very important work. During the last seven years it has sent to good homes in the country no less than eight hundred and four children—the offspring, mostly, of drunken parents—and nearly all of them have done well. Donations of money, however small, may be sent to the Treasurer, Mr. THOS. T. MASON, No. 434 MARKET Street.

Donations of fuel, food, and clothing will be very acceptable at this time, and may be sent to the Office, No. 42 North FIFTH Street, or they will occalled for on a note being addressed to Mr. JOHN P. ARRIBON, same place.
