N. Carpenter; Stewarde, Thomas Evans, Asron V. Gibbs,
Maurice Bywater, Samuel Jenkinz, Willian Griffith,
Richard B. Wize, Charles J Thomas; Physicians, James
Bryan, M. D, John M. Pugh, M. D.; Counsellors, Jacob
Broom, John P. Owens.

THE DINNER.

About six o'clock the anniversary dinner of the society took place at the Continental Hotel. The party, includ-ing invited guests, consisted of about sixty. Mr. II. G. JODES and the Hon. Ellis Lawis respectively officiated as chairman and vice-chairman. Celebrated as the Continental is for its cuisine and cellar, its resources, in these departments, have seldom been more successfully exhibited.

The loasts were given in the following order:

The toxics were given in the tohowing order:
 "Y Gwir yn orbyn y byd," (Truth against the World.) Ackrowledged by Hon. Edis Lewis. Song, by Mr. Charles Oakford.
 The memory of George Washington.
 The three departments of Government—Legislative, Executive, and Judicial. The liberties of the country depend upon the preservation of these co-ordinate powers.

The Hon. Wm. Morris Davie, M. C. from the Fifth district of Pennsylvania, responded, and, after a happy introduction, in which he alluded to his Welsh descent, and noticed the fact that the toasts of the evening were given in the Cambrian form of Triads, proceeded thus:

given in the Cambrian form of Triads, proceeded thus: The legislative department of our Government is on-trusted with the care of the Republic of the common defence, and of the enachment of all laws needful for the general welfare. For the protection of each person in the singorment of life, liberty, and property, without preference or partiality, caring alike for the weak and the strong; for the wise and the sinple; for the citizen and the stranger; for this is accord-ing to the Constitution, and the teachings of our patron St. Dewi ap Sandes, and of Padam and the wise Fielo, the • blessed visitors? who went about to • both rich and poor, not for money, food, ordrink, but to teach the faith in Christ." And it is its duty to so order go-vernment that oll who do right may be safe; that every home may be sacred; that each may onjoy the fruits of ome may be sacred; that each may enjoy the fruits of his toil, and grow to the full stature of humanity by the unimpeded development of all his faculties and all his ca-pabilities; that the Commonwealth may be a Common-wealth of freemen, and not of slaves. If the Legislature paintities; that the Commonwealth may be a Common-wealth of irreners, and not of slaves. If the Legislature fail in this high trust, ask whether it is not in some mea-sure the fault of the people, of whom they are, and whom they represent. Let the legislator be first, faithful; then intelligent; first, houest; then learned; first, wise; then eloquent; always truthful; and first, last, and al-ways vigilant in guarding against any encroachinent on the freedom of the citizen, [applause,] remembering "that the price of Liberty is eternal wigilance." Let our people breed such men, elect such legislators, and then stand by them against all foes, internal and exter-nal, and the Kepublic will endure forever. Then our children will be blessed in seeing the stary banner, bean-tify every landscape, and wave in every harbor, from the Pole to Darien, from crean to occan, and they, with the world, will rejoice that America is one country, with one flag, and one destiny. FIRE ON SATURDAY EVENING. — About solclock on Saturday evening a fire broke out in the three-story building, No. 353 North Second street, below Callowhill. The fire originated around the store, on the first floor, which was occupied by Alfred C. Altenus, denier in agricultural implements, farm and garden seeds, &c. The flames burned through into the, base-ment, occupied by Peter Beck, a cooper, then made their way through an area into the back yart, and then caught to an outside staircase leading to the upper part of the building. The upper portion is occupied by a number of families, and the fire was discovered by a vo-man who was about to go down shire. The alarm was promptly given, and 'the fireman heing early upon the ground the finanes were extinguished before they had spread to any great extent. The principal damage done was by water. Mr. Alte-nus values his stock at $1,500. Upon this he has an in-surance of $1,000 in the Commonwealth Insurance Com-pany, of this city, and $1,000 in the Lotillard Insurance (company, or New York. Mr. Beck hes uo insurace upon file property. The building belongs to Uldesin dor, and is insured. Among the temants in the upper portion of the building were a man and his step-daughter, who were suffering severely from small-pox. They were rescued, but as no person in the neighborhood would re-crive them, they were taken back to the damp rooms after the fire had been subdued. The origin of the fire was somewhat mysterious, and will be fully investigated by Pire Marchal Biackburn. Some of the adjoining buildings suffered by water. No. 351 is slee owned by Gideon Cox, and is occupied by O. F. Waite, dealer in boots and shoes; on the first fior by Peter Gelzer, grocer; second-story front by C. B. Schnei-der, and the remainder by a German as a boarding house. Mr. Waite sund Mr. Gelzer are insured in the Northern Assurance Company, of London. The basements of two stores on the north, Nos. 355 and 357, were also fooded by water, and the occupients sus-tained some loss. FIRE ON SATURDAY EVENING. - About rRATES.—The ordinance of 1855, reorganizing the Police Department of the city of Philadelphia, expressly pro-Department of the city of Philadelphia, expressly pro-vides that the police or committing magistrates of each of the sixteen districts shall be elected by Councils in joint convention, annualy, in the month of June. The election, however, was held on the 20th of February, and as the ordinance has never been repealed, the Mayor has fait if his duty to instruct the several police magistrates that their functions as such will continue tuntil the "due elec-tion of their successors;" meaning thereby that the re-cent election must pass for nothing. This course will bring the authority of the City Councils and the Mayor in conflict. The City Solicitor is also of the opinion that the disconsting ordinances, until June next. It is probable that still another difficulty will arise with reference to the appointment of supervisors. These old WOULD BE A SOLDIER.—UN Saturday in the Court of Quartor Sessions, before Judge Allison, a writ of habcas corpus, involving the enlistment of Michael Boyle, was heard, the allegation being that at the time of enlistment, and for several weeks prior, Michael was under the influence of liquor, but it was not clear by the evidence that at the time of enlistment the was so much intoxicated as not to know what he was doing The court refused to order his discharge.

It is probable that still another difficulty will arise with reference to the appointment of supervisors. These offi-cers have heretofore been appointed in July, and helt their offices for one year; and since the ordinance of July 18, 1801, extending the term of office of the heads of de-partments until the 51st of January, 1862, cannot be held to embrace supervisors, it is quitte probable that Mayor Henry will decline to inske any appointments until BUILDING OPERATIONS.—During the past month, the whole number of permits issued for the ercetion of buildings was sixteen; of which seven were for three-story dwellings, and five for two-story dwell-ings, one for a sugar house, one blacksmith and wheel-wright shop, and one for a factory. The permits issued for alterations and additions numbered eight, making twenty-four permits in all. The sugar house is to be erceted at Delaware avenue and Shippen street, and is to be fifty by one hundred feet, and five stories high. The prospect of a fair building season begins to improve as the time for commenting active out-door operations ap-proaches. Contemplated improvements in various parts of the city are talked about, and preparations are being made in some localities to begin as soon as the weather made in some localities to begin as soon as the weather will admit of it. A row of dwellings is to be put up on Seventeenth street, from Fitzwater to Catherine, forty dwellings are to be erected near Eighteenth and Spring Garden streets, and a row of twenty-two dwellings on Duko street, near Gunner's run.

COMPARY.—A number of Philadelphians have applied to the present Legislature for a chartor for a Petroleum Oil Transportation Company. The company intend to lay pipe from the oil region to Fittsburg, or the Sunbury road, through which the oil will be passed. They contend that it is no longer a speculative matter, the pro-fits of which can be controlled by him who has the most petrolenm, or the greatest facilities for procuring and shipping it, but the business has sottled down io a com-mercial basis, where it must be governed by commercial measures. The extraordinary field has thrown a perfect deluge of oil in the market, while the great competition has brought the price down so low that it will not pay the cost of barreling and transportation. a part of it, as he would be followed by an able conuctor of the Public Press. He (General P.) believed the President to be as honest a man, as true a man, and as pure a patriot as ever lived, and Governor Curtin cer-taiply had done wonders in his Administration. [The company, at the suggestion of the chairman, respon-to this declaration by nine rounds of applause.]

Mr. Morton McMichael, of the North American, acknowledged the compliment to the Public Press, declaring his opinion, also, that the rebellion must be thoroughly crushed out. He did not understand the policy of reconstructing the Union; his firm belief was that it ought to be restored. [Applause.] Song from Mr. George Wood-"The Star-Spangled

In response to this toast, Colonel J. Richter Jones, brother to the chairman, made what has every right to be considered the speech of the evening. He disclaimed all pretensions to oratory, however, saying that a talking soldier was as bad as a fighting lawyer. [Laughter.] the commanded a thousand good men, and the vast army which had so anddenly sprung up was composed of thousands of such men-loyal, brave, and true. This army represented the American people. An attempt had been nade to crush down the Union, and this army had arisen to prevent it. Better would it be if every man south of Mason and Dixon's line were sunk under the Gulf stream than that this Republic should perish, or should suffer. [Great enthusiasm.] The army meant to suppress the rebellion, and they would do it. England and France had attempted to dictate to us, had assailed us on the questions of tariffs and harbors; but the time was close at hand when, the country restored to peace, we would be able and prepared, and ready, if required, to settle our position. [Applause.] This war, he believed, would show the great strength of a Republic, which had carried it on without a king the loan of a dollar from the moneylenders of Europe. Song by Mr. Quayle.—"Some Twenty Years Ago." 9. The three learned professions—Law, Physic, and Divinity. A LUCKY DISCOVERY .- On Saturday A LUCKY DISCOVERY.—Un Saturday evening, between six and seven o'clock, the store of Mr. Thomse Nulty, at Crown and Vine streets, was entered effer it was closed for the night. Mr. Naulty forgot his spectailes, which he had left in his office. He sem his son for them. The latter discovered a skeleton key in the store door. The premises were then examined, when it was discovered that two role of leather were tid up neatly in black bags—one on the hatchway, and the other is no officer on the beat on Vine street above Fourth. In this case, Mr. Naulty's forgetffulness was a decided be-nefit to his interests.

READING MATTER FOR THE SOLDIERS .- The KEADING MATTER FOR THE SOLDIERS.—17he Mercantile Library Company is now distributing to the soldiers at the different army hospitals, in this city, its surplus newspapers. The city papers and others, though from distant States, being from the neighborhood of the homes of some of the readers, have served to cheer them. It is thought that a more varied and extensive literature should be provided for the occupation of the technous hours of the convalescents; and as almost all families have books or periodicals thrown aside as useless, they can certainly make no better use of them than by sending them to the rooms of the Mercantile Library Company, where they will be forwarded to the different hospitals. acy will be forwarded to the different hospitals

MEETING IN BEHALF OF CONTRABANDS. -This evening a public meeting will be held at the Na-tional Hall, for the purpose of considering the wants of the 15,000 freed blacks in South Carolina and Virginia, the 15,000 freed blacks in South Carolina and Virgülä, who have recently been vhrown upon the Government and the chavities of the people. The object is to devise some means for their permanent employment, and will be participated in by parties of all political crouds. The chair will be occupied by the Right Rev. Bishop Potter, and the meeting will be addressed by the Rev. Dr. Tyng, of New York, Professor Lindsay, recently from Port Royal, and numerous others. The proceedings will, without doubt, prove as interesting as they are novel.

ST. PAUL'S CATHOLIC CHURCH .- The work of rebuilding St. Paul's Catholic Church. Christia street, near Tenth, is rapidly progressing. The rafter for the roof will soon be placed upon the walls.

NAVAL MATTERS.—The work upon the new gunboat Juniola is nearly finished, and it will probably be launched this wock. The Powhatan is fast approaching completion, and will in a few days be ready for "active" service. The new sloop Monoughela presents quito an altered appearance. Nearly still her ribs and stancheous are now in place, and the canlkers are actively engaged. It is not probable that any aldi-thonal workmen will be engaged in the yard, for a while at least, no employment being on hand for any more, although a vessel may atrive at any time requiring re-paise. The total number of men at work in the yard is 1,623. The hammered iron platos will be used on the iron-plated steamer now being constructed at the ship-yard in Kensington; also, on the new gunboats which will be shortly commenced by the Government. THE HUSBANDS CONSPIRACY CASE .-THE BITSBANDS CONSPIRACY CASE.— Nothing has been done in the Court of Quarter Sessions in regard to the Husbands conspiracy case since the rendition of the verdict of guilty against Husbands, McMauus, and Anthony. Aftor the verdict was an-nounced, the defendants' counsel made a motion for a new trial, and, according to the court rules, four days were allowed within which to file reasons in support of the motion. No reasons have yet been filed, although two weeks have elapsed. Mr. Husbands is still non est, and is likely to remain so.

PURE COD-LIVER OIL. The repugnance of most patients to COD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has in-duced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them snawer in special cases, but more effon thelywhicle neutralizes the naual effect of the OI, proving guite as unpadjable and of less therspectic value. The repug-nance, nauses, &c., to invalids, induced by disgust of the OI, is entirely obviated by the use of our OAPSULES. OOD-LIVER OIL OAPSULES have been much used letely in Europe, the axperience there of the good re-sults from their use in both hospital and privato practico, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are suf-ficient to warrant our claiming the virtues we do for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
