A WORK OF HUMANITY.—If there is any profession which has ever outrun, in its humanitarian of our talented and distinguished townsman, Dr. B. Frank. Falmer, whose genius has fer years been successfully employed in producing the best substitutes for natural legs and arms that the world has ever seen. We are happy to state in this connection that, with characteristic generosity, Dr. Palmer is now, and wid: continue in future, to bestow the benefits of his great inventions upon triumphantly established on both sides of the Atlantic. A FINE CARTE DE VISITE Of the Royal family of France (copied from a magnificent French en-The picture has peculiar attractions at this time, from Louis Phillippe's family, who were, until Manday last, in General Mc lelian's staff. The portraits, twelve in number, with Louis Phillippe in the centre of the group, are all admirable likenesses, and the picture upon the whole is a great surcess as a work of art. As an at A really good article is always bound to make its own reputation. We reathly demonstrated in Mr. John S. Clark's great economical family Cooking Stove, the praise of which is now on the tongues of a thousand sensible housekeepers. Its Ronomical properties are really derful. One ton of coal in six months, in doing the cooking for a large family, is the outside of its fuel c ing, this saving is an important item. Lately Mr. Clark has added a great improvement to this celebrated stove; it, by which the stove serves the purpose of heating wafer for the Bath and culinary purposes, in abundance without an additional fire. The stove, with this admirable attachment, is now in use in a number of dwellings. also be seen in operation at Mr. Clark's warerooms, No MESSRS. E. G. WHITMAN & Co., having
