Important Message from the Mayor relative to the Emergency—The Home Guards and Gray Reserves—Our Citizens recommended to Close their Pinces of Business for the Purpose of Drilling—A Commission for the Defeuce and Protection of the City—The Militia Enand Protection of the city—the Militia En-rollment—Aiding Enlistments—A Further Appropriation for the Relief of the Families of Volunteers—Resolutions relative to the Decense of Brigadier General Henry Bohlen and Colonel John A. Koltes—A Loun Bill for the Extension of the Water Works. Both branches of City Councils reassemoled yesterday afternoon, for the first time since their summer vacation. The members proceeded to business with a will, and the proceedings yesterday were of the most important chasacter. More was transacted in the space of three hours than the same body ever before accomplished in twice the length of time. There was a fair attendant of spectators in the lobbles and ante-chambers. The business done was as follows:

SELECT BRANCH. The members of Select Council were called to order at half-past three o'clock.
THEO. CUYLER, President, in the Chair. After the reading of the journal, Mr. Lynn moved that the order of business be suspended, for the purpose of proceeding to the considera-tion of measures for the protection and defence of the City.

Upon agreeing to the motion, the yeas and nays were called, when it was agreed to. Important Message from the Mayor. The Clerk of the Mayor being introduced, presented the following message:

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR, September 11, 1862.
GENTLEMEN: Since the adjournment of your Cham
July, adverse military control of your Cham GENTLEMENT: Bince the adjournment of your dismost in July, adverse military events have led to the invasion of a neighboring State by rebel forces, and have brought the alarms of war to the borders of our Commonwealth. Whilst those directing the Eederal arms do not apprehend any impending danger to this city, it yet behooves that every measure needful for its proteotion should be recognitive and vicernally consummated. that every measure needful for its protection should be fromptly and vigorously consummated.

The Governor of Pennsylvania by his proclamation of the 4th day of the present month, has called upon all citizens to organize themselves forthwith, and, that they may be better fitted for active service, has recommended that all places of husiness should, for the present, be closed at 3 o'clock ?. M. Although compliance with such recommendation cannot be made obligatory, its general adopt on may be greatly premoted by a resolution of Groundle. requesting all who are not actively engaged. of Ocuncils, requesting all who are not actively engaged in furnishing supplies to the Government, to cease from in furnishing supplies to the Government, to cease from their usual avocations at the hour designated, and to devote themselves to military drill. A subsequent pro-clamaton, issued by the same authority on the 10th in-stant, requires each citizen te hold himself in readiness for such orders as may become necessary for the protec-tion of our State from hostile incursions. In the ab-sence of any positive provision for the beginning of com-pany organizations, much aid, would be given by the ap-pointment of a committee in each precinct to notify the cintment of a committee in each precinct to notify the eridents of the time and place of assembling, and to further, in other ways, the common obedience to the orturiner, in other ways, the common obedience to the orders of the Governor.

The exigency of the time demands that the Councils should not suffer themselves to be fettered by technicallities, but in comprehending the important questions upon which they are to decide they should exercise their functions with liberal and enlarged views.

Whatever municipal aid may be essential to the Home Guard, Gray Reterve Brigade, or other existing military organizations, should be afforded without invidious disinctions, and every encouragement should be given to orming judependent companies under the call of the Governor.

In purenance of the ordinance of July 26.h, ta aid the enlistment of volunteers, I have appointed John C Knox, John Robbins. Wm. Bradford, Wm. Olmstead, and Ed. Gratz, Equ., the commissioners to examine and verify, all claims for the bounty which it provides. Upon their formal certificates I have drawn 3,522 warrants for claims presented to the present time, amounting to $3128,230. In some instances delay has been occasioned in the In some instances delay has been occasioned in the payment of the bounty by the neglect of commanding officers to furnish the necessary muster-roll. But every effort consistent with an accurate disburgement of public money has been made by the commissioners to comply with the liberal intent of the ordinance. A portion of the money thus for expended by the commissioners, has money, thus far expended by the commissioners, has been advanced by the committee charged with the funds, and I suggest that immediate action be taken to harmonize the municipal loan proposed for the purposes of this In thus commending your deliberations to the measures which may be needed for the welfare and honor of our community. I would urge that you should in nowise estem too highly the critical position in which our State and city may be placed. The apathy which pervades our citizens upon this momentous subject is unparticle and the wise. Let it be remembered that the foot of the invader will imprint disgrace.non Pennsylvania, whether it treads our own streets or the distant vallers of our own State. In arousing to a true sense of our duty there own state. In arousing to a true sense of our duty there should be cool forethought, calm determination, and well-nerved energy, and, above all, an abiding trust that a great God will in His own time and way, bring to us and our country abundant good out of the seeming adversity of the present hour.

The Home Guards and Gray Reserves. The President laid before the Chamber a communica-tion from the commissioned officers of the Home Guard. The paper was read, urging upon Councils to place the

Mr. WETHERILL presented a communication from C.

M. Eakip. communding 31 Regiment of the Gray R3serves. Thi-{ paper was of a purport similar to the preceding, asking that measures be taken to secure the efficiency of the Reserve Brigade. Organizations of Military Companies. Mr. Ingham, chairman of the Committee on Defence and Protection, presented a report containing the followserves and companies existing as military organizations in the city possess the full confidence of Councils, the citizens of the city are earnes I: recommended to form themselves into military companies for drill, as recommended by the Governor of the State, in his proclamations of the That all persons not in the occupation of the Govern-

The above resolutions were severally read and unani-Defence and Protection of the City. Mr. OATHERWOOD read in place an ordinance relating to the defence of the city. The ordinance provides: That a commission be, and the same is hereby, established, to be called "A commission in and of the authorities of the State, for the defence and protection of the city of Philadelphia." That the said commission shall consist of the Mayor of the city, the Presidents of Scient and Common Common Connection the mayor of the city the Presidents of Scient and Common Comm and Common Councils, three members of Select and an equal number of members of Common Council, with a like number of citizens. That said commission shall possess and exercise all the powers granted to the Committee on Defence and Protection of the City, heretofore existing, and such other powers and authority as Councils may, from time to time, hereinafter confer upon them. That the Committee on Defence and Protection is hereby abolished.

Un suspending the rules to proceed to the consideration of the bill, the yeas and mays were 17 to 2.

The question being on the first section, Mr INGHAM objected to its passage, on the ground of discourtery and injustice to the Committee on Defence.

If any disatisfaction was felt as to the actions of that committee, the speaker invited gentlemen to state the fact, and the committee would resign. He doubted whether any allegations would he meta sectors are Mr. WETHERILL stated that the organizations known as the Home Guard and Gray Reserves were no longer competent for any defence of the city; the main reason for this was in the fact that many of their members were now in the ranks of the army, defending the Govern He did not think the course pursued one year ago in their establishment was a wise one. The Committee on Defence had done sil in their power to render those bodies of men effective and creditable to the city, but notwithof men effective and creditable to the city, but notwith-standing every exertion, they were now matters of no consequence, affording no public support in the present emergency. The speaker affirmed that he had ever la-bored to advance the interests and progress of the Home organizations, but he had finally been convinced of their inefficiency. The reason for the apparent lethargy of our city in preparing to repel the invading fee was to be found in the fact that we had commenced rather at the top of the tree than at the root. It seemed but good sense that when Philedelphia asked for the acceptance of a regiment or brigade, the offer should be substantiated by the appearance of a regiment or brigade, and not merely a few skeleton companies. By the appointment of a commission as proposed, the speaker thought that of a commission as proposed, the speaker thought that the bickerings between certain military bodies would be avoided and the object aimed at more certainly accom-

Mr Ginnod declared himself a member of the Home Guard, and desired to be heard in its defeate. It was created by an act of the Legislature, not by Councils, though dependent on the latter body for their existence and growth. The organization had been guilty of nothing to justify the proposed action of the Unamber; such action would be disress ciful to a worthy organization. The question for the Unamber to meet should be faced boldly—whether the Home Gnard should robuld not continue to exist? But there appeared to be a disposicontinue to exist? But there appeared to be a disposition to get around the isne. In conclusion, the speaker paid a well merited tribute to our volunteer militia.

After some further discussion, the several sections of the ordinance were agreed to, except the last, which was amended to read as follows:

"That the existing ordinance under which the Committee on Defence and Protection and the Home Guard were organized be and the same is hereby repeated."

During the discussion, reference was made to the danger by which the city was now threatened. Mr. Curler, in touching on this point, read a telegraphic despatch from Thomas A. Scott, dated Harrisburg, this morning.
It stated that the rebet cavalry had marched into Hagerstown Thursday morning, at nine o'clock, and were now in possession of the town. It was not certain in what direction they would next proceed, but it was feared

Mr. Whthere L. offered the following:

Mr. LYAD moved, that in case the citizens fail to respond to the recent order of the Governor, he be immediately requested to proclaim martial law. Not agreed to. Resolutions Relative to the Decease of Briga-dier General Bohlen. dier General Behlen.

Mr. Fox offered the following:

of Philadelphia have learned with the despect regret the death of their honored townsman, Brigadier General Henry Bohlen, on the twenty-second of August last, and that they will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

Resolved, That the mayor and other city officers be invited to join in the above demonstration of respect to the memory of our lamented and distinguished follow-citizen, and the officers of Councils are requested to pre-cede the Councils in their procession to the funeral and interment.

Resolved. That the circumstances attending the death of General Bohlen, who, in possession of a large for-tune, left the epjoyment of a happy home in another land, to lay down his life for his country, are such as to call from us an unusual manifestation of our esteem and Resolved. That the mayor of the city be requested to Resolved, That the mayor of the city be requested to transmit an attested copy of these resolutions to the family of General Bohles, with the expression of our deep sympathy with them in their severe bereavement.

Mr. WETHERILL made several touching remarks relative to the deceased. General Bohlen had left our city in command of a regiment which has since proved itself a credit to Prunsylvania. As a brigadier general, at the head of a brigade composed chiefly of citizens of this State, he had died as he had lived—like a hero and patriot. He thought some appropriation should be made to defray the expenses of the funeral.

Mr. FOX spoke in eloquent terms of the late Brigadier General Behiels, eulogizing his cheracter and services as they deserved. Upon the sevent of this war, he was in France, and immediately tendered his services, which were accepted by the Government, for the prowere accepted by the Government, for the procurement of arms, then very greatly needed. Soon after, returning to this country, he accepted the colonelcy of a regiment, and, for distinguished services in the field, had been sub-sequently promoted. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

The Late Col. John A. Koltes. The following preamble and resolutions were offered by Mr. McMann relative to the late Col. John A. oltes:

Philadelphia, through the constituted authorities, should express its feeling on this subject? Therefore, Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils, That in the death of Col. John A. Resolved, That a copy of these proceedings be certified to the family of the late Col. Koltes, with the expression of our warmest sympathy to them in this painful visitation.

The above were adopted.

THE PRESIDENT laid before the Chamber a communication from the Western Market. Company, asking for the location of a public lamp; also, a communication from Samuel S. Stone and others, informing Councils of an election for chief and assistant engineers of the fire department. The roll being called, the nominations on tained in the latter paper, were unanimously confirmed. Bills from Common Council. The following bills from Common Council were concurred in: An ordinance obenging the place of voting in the sixth precinct of Twenty-second ward; a resolution approving the sureties of certain supervisces; also, a resolution directing the Committee on Finance to report an ordinance creating a loan for the further extension of the waterworks; also, an ordinance making a further appropriation for the relief of the families of volunteers.

COMMON COUNCIL.

Communications Presented.

The Chamber met at 3% o'clock, Mr. KERE in the chair. Communications Received. One from the United American Mechanics' Cometery Association, calling attention to the vielation of an act of Assembly by the Ridge-road Turupike Company, who persist in charging funeral tolls.

One from the Sinking Fund Commissioners, detailing their operations for the balf year ending June, 1862.

One from the Commission for the Belief of the Families of the Volunteers, stating their expenses as follows: For the past two weeks, the sum of $22,707; total to date, $796,537.58—leaving a balance in the treasury of $2,432.85.

One from the Board of Health, informing Councils that, in view of the fact that there is no longer any contagious diseases in the city, the City Hospital is not now in active operation.

One from the commissioned officers of the Home Guard, setting forth that, in view of the threatened invasion of the State by rebel soldiers, and the pub lamation of the Governor, calling for the organization of the organization. the State by recei soluters, and the pre lamation of the Governor, calling for the organization of troops, they ask of Councils to place the "Guard" forthwith upon a war foeting by supplying it with arms, camp equipage, &c. The officers further "demand that the Councils by the most liberal appropriations of money, should place the city in a state of security, by aiding, in all proper ways, warm military arealization of the city which, in this every military organization of the city, which, in this time of peril, shall respond to the appeal of the authorities for the protection of our city and Commonwealth." The Militia Enrollment. Dr. Sites offered the following:

Whereas, The enrollers appointed by the Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, have reported that but 19 378 volunteers have entered the ranks of the army from this city, and Whereas, Very great dissatisfaction exists among our citizens in regard to the report, it being alleged that great mistakes have been made by the enrollers, and gross in-justice done to our citizens, and that instead of 19,378, there have $4,000, and upwards, citizens entered the army. Therefore,

Resolved, That a joint special committee be appointed to investigate the subject, and confer with the Governor of the State, in order to prevent a great wrong being done to our citizens, and the fair fame of our city asported by a draft, when Philadelphia has voluntarily contributed a draft, when Philadelphia has voluntarily contributed from her parriotic citizens more than her just proportion.

Dr. Sites supported his resolution by a short speech, in which he said that he introduced it at the request of many citizen of Philadelphia, who believe that injustice has been done to cur people, and the proper credit not given for patriotism. The Governor of Pennsylvania publicly stated, at a meeting at the Continental Hotel, a short time ago, that Philadelphia had contributed 28 000 men to the war. The enrolling officers show a different statement Let the matter be investigated.

Mr. LEIGH opposed the resolution on the ground that Mr. LEIGH opposed the resolution on the ground that it had the appearance of an attempt at evasion of our responsibility to meet the rebel foe. Besides, it was not certain that the enrollers had made a mistake.

The resolution, however, was adopted without much The Governor and the Philadelphia Volunteers.

Mr. WRIGHT offered a resolution calling attention to the fact that it is publicly stated that the Governor of Pennsylvania has not credited our city with the soldiers who are receiving the Philadelphia bounty, though residents formerly of other parts of the State. The resolution further calls for any correspondence on the sphice.

tion further calls for any correspondence on the subject between the Governor and the Committee on Bounty to Home Defence. The resolution from Select Council, urging the citizens of Philadelphia to organize in military companies, was Relief of the Volunteers' Families. Mr. BAIRD, from the Finance Committee, reported an ordinance making an appropriation of $100,000 for the relief of the families of the volunteers. Adopted. Another Appropriation.

The ordinance appropriating $300,000 for the defence of the city was passed without debate. Appointment of Committees. The Chair appointed Mesers. Hallowell, Cresswell, and the part of B. H. Smith Street Contractor. The following to cenfer with the Governor in reference to bounty: Mesers. Wright, Barger, and Stirr.

In reference to the militia enrollment: Mesers. Sites, Loughlin, and Gates.

Aiding Enlistments. The bill authorizing the Mayor to borrow, on the credit of the city, a sum of not more than $500,000, to aid nlistments, was taken up and passed. A Change of Precinct House. Mr. Gates offered a resolution changing the place of voting in the Sixth precinct of the Twenty second ward to the corner of Harvey and Main streets. The Committee on Defence. The ordinance from Select Council, abolishing the present Committee on the Protection and Defence of the City, was taken up

Mr. FREMAN said that the new committee, which the bill proposes to create, is similar to the old, with the exception that it gives almost unlimited legislative power to men who are not members of City Councils. By this, we are declared by our own body to be incompetent to govern the city. Let us inform our constituents of this fact, and they will see some reason why we should have a Dictator.

Mr. Harper said there were some features in the bill of which be approved, and many that met his disapproval. There is no reason for continuing the Home Guard in existence. It has become an effete organization. The Home Guard of the present day could scarcely muster's corporal's guard; besides, the feeling of the community is prejudiced against the Home Guard. The expenses of the organization are large, and they should be stopped. He belonged to the Home Guard since its organization; yet he could not see that he was benefited in the least. The Home Guard and its commander are a failure.

Mr. LOUGHLIN moved to postpone the subject until Thursday next. Agreed to.

A resolution was adopted, instructing the Finance-Committee to report an appropriation of $900,000 to extend the Water Works. Agreed to.

From Select Councils.
The resolutions of respect to Brigadier General Bohlen, and other minor resolutions, were concurred in, and the Chamber adjourned. THE MASSACHUSETTS SIXTH .- Yesterday morning, the well-known 6th Massachusetts Regiment took its departure for Washington. It was expected that the regiment would have made a parade through our principal streets, yesterday morning, but the officers changed their minds, owing to the pressing necessity to get South. The regiment arrived here about midnight, on Wednesday evening, and met with a warm reception at the hands of a committee of citizens selected midnight, on Wednesday evening, and met with a warm reception at the hands of a committee of citizens selected for the purpose. When the cars arrived at Camden, the regiment was welcomed by the sub-committee of the Citizens' Bounty Tund, consisting of Thomas Webster, Samuel Hand. John D. Watsen, James Millikan, Colonel J. Ross Snowden, and Colonel J. E. Addicks. During their passage across the Delawars, Mr. Webster, the vice chairmen of the Bounty-Fund Committee, addressed Colonel Follansbee in a speech of welcome, as follows: COLONEL: The citizens of Philadelphia have conferred on me the honorable duty of welcoming your gallant regiment to our city.

The Sixth Massachusetts has but to be named to be honored. The recollection of its steadiness and bravery in the streets of Baltimore, on the 19th of April, 1861, when suddenly, savagely, and cowardly assailed by taitors and ruffians, from their windows, their house-tops, and in their strees, is familiar to the nation and has passed into history. First to shed its blood in defence of law, order, and right, may it be its privilege to combat on that final field, which cannot be far off, where reason shall be crushed, traitors exterminated, and the combat on that final field, which cannot be far off, where treason shall be crushed, traitors exterminated, and the Union re-established.

Men of Massachusetts—it is the glory of your patriot afrea that they inaugurated the Revolution—it is yours that you have had the proud distinction of being the first to shed your blood in defence of our precious inheritance against the assaults of rebellion and anarchy, and the first to wreak vengeance on the audacious wretches who rally under the unholy standard of revolt and Secession.

Lexington—the 19th of April, 1775—is filust-ious in our snuals, and glorious to Massachusetts; but not more our ennals, and glorious to Massachusetts; but not more glorious to the old Bay State than Baltimore, and the 19th of April, 1861. Justice Gardner, Captains Issac Davis and Jonathan Wilson, Sergeant Elisha Mills, and Deacon Josiah Haynes—patriot yeomen of Massachu-setts—the first martyrs in the cause of American liberty, setts—the first martyrs in the cause of American liberty, sleep in honored graves, and their memory is revered by generation after generation.

Summer H. Needham, of Lawrence; Addison O. Whitney, of Lowell, and Luther O. Ladd, of Lowell, of your own gallant corps—the first to die for the cause of selfgovernment and order—are names not less hallowed by every loyal American citizen. There, too, fell some of our own townsmen; soldiers of a regiment sent unfortunately without arms. When you think of your Needham, your Whitney, and your Ladd, remember that James Teggue and George Leisenring, of Philadelphia, are co-martyrs with them.

I observe you carry your battle stained fiag—the same that you bore triumphantly through Baltimore. May it that you bore triumphantly through Baltimore. May it wave in victory on other fields!

Men of Massachusetts, we of Pennsylvania delight to Men of Massachusetts, we of Pennsylvania delight to bonor you, for you have been, in the brave days of old, and are new, in the living present, the vanguard of the hoats of freedom and leaders in every movement for the rights of mar. We welcome you with unaual warmth, because you are Massachusetts men, and because you are the glorious Massachusetts Sixth. The eagor crowds in our streets—their heart greetings, their shouls, their wavings, and their benedictions, will convey to you Pai ladelphia's welcome better far than my feeble words. Come with us to morrow to Independence Hall, march through its sacred precincis, gaze on its memorials of the great past, pause where your Hancock sat—your Adams spoke—where "still the clouent air breathes and burns with" liberty—and then to battle.

spoke—where "still the eloquent air breathes and burns with" liberty—and then to battle.

But, men of Massachusetts, you need no visits to hallowed spots to quicken your impulses. You need no inspiration, and if you did, your own history gives it—as your eloquent son said in the day of his strength, in the prime of his greatness: "Massachusetts, there she is, there is her history, the world knows it by heart. There is Boston and Coucord, and Lexington and Snuker Hill, and there they will remain forever. The bones of her sons, fallen in the great struggle for independence, now lie mingled with the soil of every State fron New England to Georgia, where liberty raised its first voice, and where its youth was nurtured and sustained, there it still lives in the strength of its manhood and full of its origilives in the strength of its manhood and full of its origilives in the strength of its manhood and full of its origi-nal spirit?"

No! You need no inspiration in the cause of liberty.
As in the Revolution—as in Baltimore in 1861—so now, Pennsylvania stands shoulder to shoulder with Massachusetts. Border State as we are, in imminent danger of invasion, we tolerate no cowardly ideas of conciliation, concession, or compromise with traitors, or with slavery,
the accursed cause of this implous rebellion. We know, as you do, where the kernel of the nnt of discord is, and like you we say, away with it, crush it, exterminate it. as you do, where the kernel of the unit of discord is, and like you we say, away with it, crush it, exterminate it. Thousands of millions have been sent, and more than one hundred thousand of the bravest froemen of the North and West have perished on the battle field or in the hospital—and, so far, for nothing.

Still we are undaunted—but we do say that henceforth we must be in earnest. We declare the essence of war to be violence, and deem moderation in conducting it to be sheer imbecility. From this time forth we demand war, in its true sense—war in its direct form—resolved, fierce, inexorable war on the trattors who have periled the existence of the nation. Let every institution that sustains traitors and rebels in their demoniacal outrages fall. Let us be true to the Declaration of Independence—true to the benign spirit of our institutions—true to ourselves. true to the benign spirit or our lustitutions—true to curselves.

We must remember our transgressions and return to the paths of duty, to the ways of God. We must keep the fast he has appointed, 'cloose the bands of, wickedness—undo the heavy burdens—let the oppressed go free—and break every yoke."

When we do all this we shall triumph. We shall preserve our heritage, still be a nation of the earth, and maintain, in its purity, the best Government ever youch-asfed to man. eafed to man. Men of Massachusetts—we welcome you as brothers, as patriote, and as heroes.

Mr. Websier was frequently interrupted by applause, and, on concluding, three loud, hearty huzzas were and, on concluding, three loud, hearty huzzas were given.

Col. Foliable briefly responded, saying he accepted, on behalf of his regiment, the hospitalities of Philadelphia, so profusity tendered; that he would be happy to march his regiment through Independence Hall, but as his duty was to proceed to Baltimore, he could not stop longer in Philadelphia than might be necessary to refresh his men, unless the War Department should authorize him to do so. He expressed his regret that there was not much probability of his being able to keep his regiment over night in the city.

On the arrival of the regiment at Washington street wharf, they were escorted to the Refreshment Saloons and hospitably entertained

At the laster place they were addressed by Mr. Milliker, of the committee, in a brief speech, which was responded to by the surgeon, Dr. Walter Burnham.

The following spirited and patriotic address was pre-

THE UNION REFRESHMENT SALOON. Wednesday after on we visited, with a friend, the Union Volunteer Refreshment Salcon, at Washington-avenue wharf. A train had just arrived with a large number of sick and wounded from our army in Virginia It was pleasant to see how the faces of these war-worn veterans kindled at the kind reception with which they met, and pleasant to hear the warm and heartfelt praise with which our city was mentioned by them. The scene—though not gaudy with brilliant uniforms and stirring music, nor wholly unsuggestive of the grim hortors of the battle field and the weary toil of the camrors of the battle field and the weary toil of the campaign—was deeply interesting. We were glad to observe the ever grateful and graceful presence of lovely and gentle woman, with her soothing smile and ministering hand, and felt as hourst pride in the thought that, thanks to this noble institution, and the liberality with which it has been maintained no soldier of the Union our pass through our city without sharing our hospitality and hearing our God-speed as he passes on his journey.
We again as ure our citizens that, in no manner, can they more effectually maintain the bright reputation of Philadelphia, or show their regard for our dear and brave army, than by contributing generously to the sup-brave army, than by contributing generously to the support of the Volunteer Refreshment Saloons. Go and see them, and be assured of the fact. HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL TO A PHILA-HANDSOME TESTIMONIAL TO A PHILA-DELPHIA GENERAL.—After the report of the gallant conduct of Gen. D. B. Burney at the battle of Chautilly, some of his friends delermined to present him with a sword. The subscriptions being so readily obtained, and in larger amounts than was required, the gentlemen who have charge of the matter resolved to send a horse and equipments along with the sword. More than $1,200 have already been pledged for the purpose, and there are yet a number of persons who are desirous of joining in the restimonal who have not been called upon. The subscribers to the fund are limited to one hundred, and the sums pledged by those who have already subscribed will be diminished, so as to equalize the subscriptions. The sword is to be of the best quality and workmanship. The equipments are to be substantial and serviceable. The horse has not yet been selected, but competent persons have been saked to secure one. The entire testimonial will be worthy to be given to a Philadelphian who has made so many sacrifices in the cause which he espoused voluntarily on the day on which President Lincoln made his first call for troops to put down the rebellion.

ADDITIONAL COUNCILMEN.-The refurn of the taxable inhabitants of Philadelphia for the present year, as published in The Press a few days present year, as published in The Press a few days since, shows an increase of only 1,107, as compared with 1861—the return of 1861, footing up 114,836, and that of 1862, 115 943. The increase has been, principally, in the Third, Ninth, Nineteenth, and Twenty-first wards. The law gives to each ward one Councilman for every two thousand taxables. According to this, the Third ward will receive one additional Councilman, the Ninth ward one, and the Twenty-first ward one. The Twenty-third ward will less one. The Twenty-third ward will less one. The test ward one ward will lose one. The total number of Councilme

This at first seemed an impossibility; but the frankness and earnestness of the Professor convinced me of his scientific accuracy in the diagnosis of my case. He disclosed all my sufferings and symptoms for five years past as well as I knew them myself. I will here state, for the good of humanity, and especially those suffering as I was, that I am perfectly cured. I further would state that mere than four months have elapsed since my cure, and I have had no symptoms, and, therefore, feel confident that I am cured. PURE COD-LIVER OIL.

The repugnance of most patients to CGD-LIVER OIL, and the inability of many to take it at all, has induced various forms of disguise for its administration that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of that are familiar to the Medical Profession. Some of them answer in special cases, but more often the vehicle neutralizes the usual effect of the Oil, proving quite as unpalatable and of less therapeutic value. The repugnance, nausea, &c., to invalids, induced by disgust of the Oil, is entirely obviated by the use of our CAPSULES. OOD-LIVER OIL CAPSULES have been much used lately in Europe, the experience there of the good results from their use in both hospital and private practice, aside from the naturally suggested advantages, are sufficient to warrant our claiming the virtues we do for them, feeling assured their use will result in benefit and deserved favor.
