Messrs Evans & Waison, Philadelphia:

OKNILEMEN: My Salamander Safe, made at your establishment, has passed through the great fire which nearly destroyed this town on the 6th instant, and preserved its contents to my entire satisfaction. The Safewas exposed to an intense heat—so much so as to melt the outer plates and knobs; yet, after being orened, having lain for twelve hours in the ruins, not a paper was found to be injured. Respectfully, yours.

ORIN T NOBLE, Attorney at Law. PHILADELPHIA, Feb 2 1884.

Messrs. EVANS & WATSON manufactured the Safes which have been in use in this Bank for more than six orars. They have given entire satisfaction. They are undoubtedly Burglar Proof, and are supplied with three Patent Alphabetical Locks, of very ingenious construction. We have the greatest confidence as well in the Safes as in the locks of this firm, the former being burglar and powder proof, and Inclaiter without the necessity of keys.

ROBERT MORRIS.

President Commonwealth Bank.

H. C. Young, Cashier Commonwealth Bank. Having been in business for a period of more than twenty years, our long experience now enables us to place before the public our librRovED SALAMANDER SAFS of various kinds. We are confident, by the patroness bestowed upon us by a discerning public, that our Safes have always given entire satisfaction, and have not at any time been found wanting when tried. Our National and other hank Safes are now being used by a large number of both deserptions of Banks throughout the United States.

These Safes are made of the best materials that can be had; they are lined through with chilled from plates; in the bottom of the Safe there is placed an extra burglar proof, also made of chilled iron, with Hali's latest Patent Powder-Proof Lock. On the outside door of the Bank Safe is placed one of our Patent alphabetical or Changeable Bank Locks, capab'e of more than 5 6,00 changes. Banks that are now using this Lock have great confidence in it, both as rexards security and convenience, there being no changes to blow it out with power of the Safes have a large and Fire-proof as any other make in the United States. Merchants in want of a good Counting House Safe would do well to call and examine our fine stoke of filerantic Salamander Safes, of various sizes and patterns. These Safes have always been found what they are recentled to be—" Fire Proof." in every instance where they have been tried in accidental free they have always preserved their content in a periet condition; many thousands of dollars have been saved by parties having valuable papers, such as United States having valuable papers, such as United States in the preserved their content in a periet condition; many thousands of dollars have been saved by parties house Safes.
