

The Press

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1864.

We can take no notice of anonymous communications... Voluntary correspondence is solicited from all parts of the world, and especially from our different cities and naval departments.

The Danish question has been settled after a fashion. The Kingdom of Denmark has been divided into two parts, the northern and southern parts.

The proceedings in the Chicago Convention prove the radical division in the party. It represents a struggle between two factions, which, whatever compromise may be in the end effected, are now as bitterly opposed to each other as either is to their common foe.

The question of sovereignty remains to be settled. It is not in the hands of the President, but in the hands of the people.

Now, let no one infer from this that when the nomination is made the party will be divided. The Convention is a party, and its divisions were inspired by devotion to principle.
