IE DECORATIONS FOR THE PRESIDENT'S OBSE -The work of decorating railway cars and aildings for the obsequies of President Linwas a huge task, and so much of it as fell to share was admirably performed by Mr. I. E. Iraven, the well-known dealer in curtains and ain goods, of No. 719 Chestnut street, in this The entire funeral train, consisting of seven enger cars, a baggage car, and two engines, elegantly draped by Mr. Walraven at Wash-b, and this train bore the honored remains Washington to Baltimore, thence to Harrisand from the State capital to Philadelphia. a these preparations werelgoing forward, Mr. iraven had a strong force of workmen busily end in draping the front of the State House, and terior of the Council Chambers, and in placing interior of the Council Chambers, and in plasing combre weeds of mourning upon the inner walls he venerable Hall of Independence. Every one o was fortunate enough to obtain admission to Hall will bear testimony to the artistic skill excellent taste displayed by Mr. Wairaven and assistants. The same gentlemen also decorated train of seven cars and two locomotives which the termining from the Kensington depot to New rk. The shortness of time allowed for the ac-builthment of 10 much work, and the excellent hment of so much work, and the excellent ner in which it was performed, render the per-ance alike creditable to the skill and energy of Walrayon and his assistants.
