Policemen were sent to the scene from stations outside of the district where the disturbance occur-red. Evidently some of them were not prepared for the emergency, as a game of growl took place be-tween a sergeant and patrolman somewhat after this style: Sergeant. Why, you're drunk, and I will get the blame of it. Patrolman. Is it drunk, you say; and will you report me? Sergeant. If I don't others will, and then I will be blamed. ABBIVAL OF WOUNDED SOLDIERS. HAS OPENED HIS HAVE NOW IN STORE At an early hour yesterday morning about 500 sick and wounded soliders arrived at the Baltimore depot. They were conveyed to the different hospi-tals by the firemen. In their ambulances. thropists are busily at work just now in various por-tions of the world, isadesworing to build a great platform upon which all the differing religious de-nominations can unite in the intimate commu-nion of common belief and brotherhood. Se-teral experiments have been tied in Eng-veral experiments have been tied in Eng-veral experiments have been stilling y unsuccessful, many they have been stilling y unsuccessful, many of them ending in personal and unchristian colli-sions. Other experiments are now in development in this country, we believe, but do not promise any in this country, we believe, but do not promise any in this country, we believe, but do not promise any in this country. We believe, but do not promise any in and success. There seems to be too much of a split of ambtion actualing some of the innovators, split of and have the credit of the entire scheme of raternization. Others, while they are advocates of a "common belief," insist that the "common belief" shall be their belief. Hence a grand out-burst and general quarel. This state of things is now in existence in New York. It seems that certain of the Episoopal elergy of that city have, in their desire to promote "Oris-tian Union," fraternized with "the sects"-the Pres-byterian, Dutch Reformed, Methodist, and others. Every Sunday night, for a considerable time past, meetings have been held in the Firth-avenue Episco-pal Church (the Ohurch of the Ascension), at which Low Churchmen were represented by Bishop McII-vaine, of Chio, and Rev. Dr. Vinton ; Presbeterians by Rev. Dr. Ferris, and the rest of the denominations were delivered of a moderate character, although all tinctured by the peculiar tenets of the individual speaker, but that of Dr. Vinton as viewed soru pulously from a church stand-point, was received with much disfavor in his communon. ATTEMPTED ASSASSIMATION OF THE PORE-A CURIOUS STORY.-The Rome correspondent of the London Weekly Register, publishas the fol-lowing curious narrative, which we give just as we find it: "Yon will permt me to tell you something that is very astonishing. It may be that the matter is not a real truth, but so many of the Hins-trissimi here believe it, that it is hard for any one to put it down as a fiction. Volia: Not long ago, a tall and very well dressed, and most gentlemanly look-for see what he wanted, he said he came on a most im-portant errand to the Sovereign Pontiff, and that his commission was to announce it to the Pope in person, and without a third party being present. The efficient (who was a chamberlain) informed him that he demanded an unusual thing, and conse-quently that his request could not be entertained. The efficient who was a chamberlain, informed him what was at a nonunce it to the Pope in person, and without a third party being present. The efficient (who was a chamberlain) informed him that he demanded an unusual thing, and conse-quently that his request could not be entertained. The stranger made a new assurance of the political and religions importance of his message, and he did it so earnesity and so plausibly, that the chamber-lain consented to see the Pope himself, and tell him what was at hand. The commberlain, therefore, went to see the Pope. He found him alone on his knees in solemn devolion. Having waited a little he informed the Pontiff of what was going on, and the latter, still on his kneer, repiled, "H is no use for me to see a dead man." This answer was per fectly unintelligible to the chamberlain, but it caused him to think that he enercoached, and he withdrew. On entering the same of mome the left the stranger, he found the stranger dead on the left the stranger and a loaded pistol. Make your own comments." WHAT THE SPIRITUALISTS ARE DOING AMD

WHAT THE SPIRITUALISTS ARE DOING AND INTENDING .- The Spiritualists have just adjourned their Boston Convention, after a session of six days. One of the last acts was the passage of a series of resolutions which seem to be an embodiment of the principles, objects, and purposes of the denomination. We append some of the more important:

denomination. We append some of the more important: Whereas, The present systems of civil polity, ec-olesiasticism, trade, commerce, education, social life, science, and philosophy are radically defective in ignoring the elements and principles now being unfolded in the light of the congregated intelligence of the eternal world is therefore, Resolved, That the time has come, and the revo-litions now agitating our country, when Spiritual-ists, and all who can co-operate with them, should come into council to discuis the best methods of ac-tion or organization whereby these elements and principles may be effectually applied and carfied out to the reconstruction of Church, State, and so-cleiv in every department, and to the adoption of new systems, to take the place of the "old earth and cld heavens," destined to pass away. Resolved, That Spiritualism adopts and repub-lishes all that is true in the religion of the Indian, the Egyptian, the Hebrew, the Mohamedan, and the brotherhood of the race, the immortality of the soul, and the actuality of spirit-intercourse. Resolved, That science, not "theology," interprets the nature and constitution of the mind, the health and earty of the body, and fittingly translates the wealth and nature, the poverty of the ages, and the best methods for making reform sure, charity practi-cel, and civilization humane. Resolved, That the future, progress and larger usefalnees of Spiritualism cal, and civilization humane. Resolucd, That the inture, progress and larger naefulness of Spiritualism authorizes the construc-tion of the "science of life," which will comprehend all known truth, religious, moral, legal, social, do-mestio, and conjugal; and, as soon as may be, that its members organize such issues as will bring every department of society up for review and re-construction.

every department of society up for review and re-construction. Resolved, That modern Spiritualism, as under-stood and advocated by its representative minds, is the culmination of the Spiritualism of all ages; and, with a rational interpretation, accepts, for their moral and historical value, the religions re-cords of Judaism, of primitive Christianity, and of every age and nation, without adopting any of them as infailible and final authority. Resolved, That we recognize in works like those of Colenso, Renan, and other theological agitators, both in Europe and America, and in the improving tone of literature in every department, signs of en-couragement in the great cause of ecclesiastical freedom. Resolved, That individual conscience, under the guickening and illuminating influences of angel duckening and illuminating influences of angel intelligence, is the only reliable guide of faith and life; and Splritualists, therefore, ignore the autho-illy of sects and institutions, in seeking to erect arbitrary standards of creed and discipline.

The witness stated that he cut common tents by an appliance similar to that used at the arsenal, except in the case of a few tents, manufactured early in the war, which he had out on a frame, which measured exactly right. This frame he had list in the building where the tents were manufactured, which had been leased from him by John Weish. More rope was required of him, to supply defi-ciercies in the Cozens' tents than was needed, and witness believed it was used in supplying the short-or mings of other manufacturers. The Court de-clined permitting the witness testify as to the oba-ractor of the tents made by Cozens as certified to by the examisers at the Arsensi.
