GARIBALDI ONCE A RYSIDENT OF CINCIN

MATI .- The Cincinnati Commercial says: It may not be uninteresting to our readers to know that Garibaldi, the leader of the insurrectionists of Rome, once kept a public house on Sixth street, between Plum and Western Row, in this city. His house was, for some time, one of the stopping places of the celebrated Charles Hammond, as editorials from his pen will show, as any man who has a file, or who read his paper may see .-He kept liquor, but his eatables and familiar, yet gentlemanly converse, formed the principal attractions for Bammond. Many a time, our old citizens inform us, did the veteran editor refer to Garibaldi as the prince of good eating and good company. From Garibaldi's industry and good management in this city, he made money, and when he left for Italy, he remarked that his $25,000 cash, that he had amassed, would make him as wealthy in Rome as Griffin Taylor and others of great wealth, &c , were considered here. At the time he left our city, quite a large meeting of respectable persons congregated at his house, and the proceedings of the meeting were published in the city papers of 1838 .-A grand supper was prepared and partaken of, toasts drank, &c. A friend of ours, from whom we obtain this information, remembers a remark of Garibaldi at the time. He said: Before long there will be a revolution in Europe, and I wish to have a hand in it."-By the late foreign news it will have been observed that his name has figured largely in the accounts from Rome. It will be seen by yesterday's telegraphic report that, although the French had entered the "Eternal City," Garibaldi had escaped with 10,000 men!

From many citizens we have the history of this somewhat celebrated revolutionist, while in our city. He seemed always to have a great hatred to monarchy. He will, perhaps, in his new position as leader, make some trouble and cause some blood to flow; but the powerful armies of France, Austria, Spain and Naples, must crush him, and he will die the death of what those powers consider a traitor, deserves. He may be too smart, as we say in common parlance, to be caught. If he escapes he will have no other refuge than the United States, in which he most probably learned his revolutionary principles, and perfected his ideas of self-government.

BREACH OF PROMISE. - In a trial for breach of promise of marriage, the Court laid down the following law: "If a man offers to marry a woman, or promises to do it, he is not bound to comply with it unless she agree to accept him. It takes two to make a marriage contract as well as any other bargain Where a man has a contract of marriage with a woman and merely puts it off, and she becomes impatient, she cannot drag him into Court and demand damages, unless she has formally offered to perform the contract on her part, and he honestly refused, and so puts it off, and she becomes impatient, she canunless she has formally offered to perform the contract on her part, and he dishonestly refused and so he puts an end to the contract; because perchance he would prefer the marriage to the suit, and he ought to have a chance to make a choice. It makes to the suit, and he ought to have a chance to make a choice. WE SEE IT stated that the terms of a divorce have been agreed upon by the counsel in the case of Pierce Butler vs Fanny Kemble Butler, satisfactory to both parties. The principal conditions are, that Mr. Butler is to allow Mrs. Butler $1,500 annually, he to retain possession of their children, (two daughters,) excepting two months in each year, which they are to spend with their mother. The arrangement was agreed to some months since-both preferring it to a further contest before the courts--and the daughters are of Books is classified according to the various Departments of Literature, so that visitors can find partments of Literature, so that visitors can find where she purposes taking up her residence.

PRONUNCIATION .- The words Allopathy and Homorpathy, with those derived from them, are in most instances erroneously pronounced. The following divisions show the true pronunciation the emphasis being on the italicised syllables :- Al-lop-athy, Ho-merop-arthy, and Hy-drop-a-thy. These words are now in common household use, and their correct pronunciation is therefore a matter of more than ordinary importance.

MR. WALKER .- A report has reached us, said to be well authenticated, that Hon. R. J. Walker has publicly declared his approval of the course and opinions of Mr. Benton-in other words, that he is in favor of the Wilmot Proviso, and the application of "Free Soil" doctrines to the new Territories. We are not prepared to believe this, but it comes to us from such a source as to justify the mentioning of it in our columns .- Vicksburg Sen-

New York, April 23, 1817.

Dr. Townsend: I verily believe that your Sarsaparilla has been the means, through Providence, of saving my life I have for several years had a bad cough. It became worse and worse. At last I raised large quantities of blood, had night awears and warse and was greatly debilitated and reduced, and did not expect to live. I have only used your Sarmaparilla but a short time, and there has a wonderful change been wrought in me. I am now able to walk all over the city.—I raise no blood, and my cough has left me. You can well imagine that I am thankful for those results. Your obedient servant.

LOST HER SPEECH.

The nunexed certificate tells a simple and truthful story of suffering and reide. There are th usunds of similar cases in this city and Brooklyn, and yet there are th usunds of of parents let their children die for feur of being humbugged or to save a few shillings.

Brooklyn, Sept. 13, 1847.

Dr. Tewnsend: I take pleasure in stating, for the benefit of these whom it may concern, that my daughter, two years and six m aths old, was affined with general debainty and I has of asceed. She was given up as past zero very by our family physician; but fortunately I was recommended by a friend to try your Sansquarilla. Bet rehaving used one bottle she recovered her speech and was enabled to walk abone, to the nat ansiment of all who were acquainted with the circumstances. She is now quite well, and in much better health than she has been for its months pass.

TWO CHILDREN SAVED.

TWO CHILDREN SAVED.

Very few families in-leed—in fact we have not heard of one—that need Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla in time. I at any children the past Summer, while these that did not, sickened and died. The cereificate we publish below is a minister evidence of its avaine, and is only another instance of its saving the lives of children.

Dr. Townsend—Dear Sir: I had two children cared by a separagrilla of the manner countries and display.

Dr. Townsend-Dear Sir: I had two children cured by y ar Sarasparilla of the summer complaint and dysentary; one was only 15 meath old and the other 3 years. They were very much reduced, and we expected they would die; they were given up by two respectable physicians. When the doctor informed as that we must be them, we reserved to try your Sarasparilla we had heard so much of, but had little confidence, there being so much stuff advertised that is worthless; but we are thankful that we did, for it undended yawed the lives of both. I write this that others may be induced to use it.

Yours, respectfully.

GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE.

Da. Townserb's Sansaraelle. It is a a swereign and speedy cure for incipient c assumption, and for the general prostration of the system—no matter whether the result of inherent cause or causes, produced by irregularity, illness or accident.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons all weakness and lassitude, from taking it at once become robust and full of energy under its utilizance. It immediately connectes the nervelessness of the female frame, which is the great cause larrenness.

GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE.

Is will not be expected of us, in cases of so delicate a nature, to exhibit certificates of cures performed, but we can assure the afflicted that hundreds of cuses have been reported to us.

Da. Townsenn: My wife being greatly distressed by weakings and general detaility, and suffering continually by pain and with other difficulties, and having known once where your medicine has effected great cures; and also bearing it recommended for such cases as I have described, lookained a bottle of your Extract of Sarsaparilia and followed the directions you gave me. In a short period it removed her complaints and restored her to handle. Being greatful for the benefits she received, I take pleasure in thus acknowledging it, and recommending it to the public.

AN INVALUABLE MEDICINE.—We have frequently heard the Celebrated German Bitters, manufactured by Le Hooffland, spoken of in terms of commendation, and we know deservedly so. It is a too common practice, in certain quarters, to paif all manner of useless trash, but in the above litters, bundred, are living witnesses of their great in-trainal physical worth. As a medicine of the Lever Complaint, famodice, Nervous Debidity and Dyspepsia, it has been 1 and invaluable, effecting cures and it is nightly erudicating discusses, when all other medicines have falled. We feel convinced, that in the use of the German Bitters, the patient does not be one debiatiated, but constantly gains strength and vigor to the frame—a fact worthy of great consideration. The Bitters are pleasant in taste and smell, and can be administed under any circumstances, to the most delicate stomach—Indeed, they can be used by all persons with the m is perfect safety.
