HORTICULTURAL.

GROWING FRUIT UNDER GLASS.

The Boston Transcript, in an interesting article on the subject of Horticulture, in a description of the garden, green-house, and varities of fruit of Mr. Allen, of Salem, whose successful devetion to horticultural pursuits is well known, says: ty. It file the entire back wall of one of his houses, and is trained in the same way as the peach, the branches stretching right and left from the trunk some thirty or forty feet and is very vigorous. The variety is the the black fig of St. Michael. It is now in froit with the third crop for the season. Upwards of 3,000 figs, by count have been gathered the present season, and it is still yielding its delicious fruit in abundance. When fully ripe this fig bursts with its own richness The fruit is fine, and a good variety for forcing. There are several other varieties of figs growing in the houses, but none so prolific as the St. Michael.

"The growing of fruit under glass is quite extensive in Massachusetts, and a vast amount of wealth is invested in this delightful branch of industry. There is probably more fruit grown in this way in Massachusetts than in all the other States of the Union, and there is a ready demand for all that is grown. Our cultivators frequently have orders from the South and the West Indies for grapes, which command a high price. No grower has been more successful than Mr. Allen, and his establishment is such at the present time as to vield him a handsome return for his labors."

Man .- It is confidently asserted by a Berlin correspondent of the London Daily News, that the Emperor Nicholas has shown unequivocal symptoms of insanity. He relates the following as one of the latest freaks of the "ruler of two hemispheres."

"After receiving the dispatches which announced the occupation of Debreczin by Ceodajeff, the Czar was found dancing about his room in his shirt. It is said that he continged for three whole hours to exhibit in this extravagant way the joy with which the news of so quick a triumph had inspired him."

"It were a pity," writes Mrs. Trollope, or Captain Maryatt, "that the American Presidents do not display that delicacy of manner and highlh-finished deportment, in their social intercourse, which characterizes European sovereigns. Then we might regard them with eyes less prejudiced," &c., &c. E. g., a King dancing in his-....... What taste !

DR. TOWNSEN'S SARAFARILLA is a sycretign and speedy care for incipient consumption, and for the general prostration of the system—no matter whether the resolt of inherent came or causes, produced by irregularity, liness or accident.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons all weekness and has situde, from taking it at more become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the nervolessness of the female frame, which is the great cause harrenness.

It will not be expected of us, in cases of so delicate a matere, to exhibit certificates of cures performed, but we can asserte the afflicted that hundreds of cases have been reported to us.

Dr. Towsern: My wife being greatly distressed by weakness and general delaity, and suffering continually by pain and with other difficulties, and having known cases where your medicine has effected great cares; and also hearing it recommended for such cases as I have described, I obtained a bottle of your Extract of Sarsayarilla and followed the directions you gave me. In a short period it removed her complaints and restored her to health. Being greatful for the benefits she received, I take piensare in thus acknowledging it, and recommending it to the public.

The certificate we publish below is conclusive evidence of its value, and is only another instance of its saving the lives of children.

Dr. Townsend-Dear Sie: I had two children cured by your Sarsaparills of the summer complaint and dysentary; one was only 15 month old and tha other 3 years. They were very much reduced, and we expected they would die; they were given up by two respectable physicians. When the dector informed us that we must lose them, we reselved to try your Sarsaparils we had heard so much of, but had little confidence, there being so much sent advertised that is worthless: but we are thankful that we did, for it undoubtedly saved the lives of both.
