A Humorous Sketch.

HOW SETH HAWKINS STOLE THE OLD LADY'S NIGHT-GOWN.

The Boston News gives us the following, as having occurred in one of the villages of the Old Bay State, within the recollection of the writer. We do not know when we have enjoyed so hearty a laugh, as on reading this incident in the life of Seth Hawkins:

Sunday night was the season which Seth chose to do his weekly devours, as Mrs. Hornby would say, and his road to neighbor Jone's whose daughter Sally was the object of his particular hope, lay across three long miles of territory, stumpy as an old woman's mouth, and as irreclaimable as a prodigal son gone away for the third time.

One all-sufficiently dark night unheeding wind and weather, as gallant and spruce a lover as ever straddled a stump, Seth, in best 'bib and tucker,' and dickey, and all that, started upon his accustomed weekly pilgrimage to the shrine of Sally Jones--a sweet girl by the way, as strawberries and cream are sweet.

Seth knew every land mark, if he could see it; but the night was very dark, and in a little while he became confused in his reckoning, and taking the light which gleamed from farmer Jones' cottage in the distance for a guide, he pushed boldly on, regardless of intermediate difficulties, surging occasionally to the right or left, as some obstruction arose in his path, until he ran stem on, as a sailor would say, to a huge stump, and rolled incontinently over the other side.

He gathered himself up as best he could, shook himself, to ascertain that no bones were broken, and then re-started on his mission of love, his ardor somewhat damped by feeling the cold night wind playing in fantastic jests around his body, denoting that the concussion had breached his 'oh-fie-for-shame,' and that the seven-and-six penny cassimeres were no more to be the particular delight of his eye, in contemplation of their artistic excellence.

He knew not the extent of the damage sustained, but soon gained the house, his first glance was over his person, to ascertain if decency would be violated by an unwonted display; but seeing nothing and trusting to the voluminous proportions of his coat for concealment, he felt re-assured, and took his seat in a proffered chair by the fire.

Whilst conversing with the farmer about the weather, and with the dame upon the matter of cheese, he glanced at Sally, and saw, with painful surprise, that she was looking anxiously, and somewhat strangely, towards a portion of his dress. She averted her eyes as she caught his glance; but again catching her eye upon him, he was induced to turn his eye in the same direction, and saw, good heavens! was it his shirt? oozing out of a six inch aperture in the inside of one of his inexpressible! He instantly changed his position, and from that moment was on nettles. Was he making more revelations by the change? He watched the first opportunity to push the garment in a little. Could he succeed in hiding it, it would relieve his embarrassment. Again he watched his chance, and again stowed away the linen. It seemed interminable, like the doctor's tape worm, and the more he worked at it, the more there seemed left.

In the meantime, his conversation took the hue of agony, and his answers bore as much relation to the questions asked, as the first line of the Songs of Solomon does to the melancholy burthen of "Old Marm Peting-ill."

At last, with one desperate thrust, the whole disappeared, and he cast a triumphant glace toward Sally. One look sufficed to show that she had comprehended the whole, and with the greatest effort was struggling to prevent a laugh. Meeting his glance, she could contain herself no longer, but screaming with accumulated fun, she fled from the room; and poor Seth, unable to endure this last turn of his agony, seized his hat, and dashed madly from the house, clearing the stumps like a racer in the dark and reaching home he hardly knew when or how.

As soon as he was gone, Mrs. Jones looked about for a clean night-gown that she had out for service on the back of the chair on which Seth had sat. She was positive she took it out, but where upon earth it was she couldn't conceive.

"Sally!" cried the old lady from the door, "have you seen my night-gown?"

Yes'm," echoed her voice, as if in the last stage of suffocation—"yes'm, Seth Hawkins wore it home!"

It was unfortunately the case, and poor Seth had stored it away in the crevasse of his pants! It was returned the next day, with an apology, and he subsequently married Sally: but many years afterwards, if any article of any description was missing, of apparel or otherwise, the first suggestion was that Seth Hawkins had stowed it away in his trowsers.

Seth Hawkins is now a prominent and influential merchant in the city of Boston, and often relates the story himself for the amusement of his young friends.

BOOK BUSINESS OF CINCINNATI.—According to the Cincinnati Columbian, the aggregate value of the book trade of that city is $1,000,000 per year. One house alone is represented as publishing annually about 700,000 volumes of school books alone, which are chiefly sold in the eastern cities. The entire number of bookstores in Cincinnati is thirty. The first power press was set up there in 1834, and the city now contains no less than 29.

CORRECT VIEW.—Mankind might do without physicians, if they would observe the laws of health; without lawyers, if they would keep their tempers; without soldiers, if they would observe the laws of Christianity; and without preachers, if each would take care of his own conscience; but there is no dispensing with the newspaper.

INDUSTRY.—Excellence is never granted to man, but as the reward of labor. It argues, indeed, no small strength of mind to persevere in the habits of industry without the pleasure of perceiving those advantages which, like the hand of a clock, whilst they make hourly approaches to their point, yet proceed so slowly as to escape observation.

This may certify that I have used one of the Strops prepared with HAYNES' MAGIC DIAMOND POWDER, and can attest in the most unequivocal manner, that there is nothing can be found that will produce the same effect in my opinion, and must say to others, try it, and you will find it superior to any hezetofore in use. I can truly say that I never knew what a sharp razor was before.

A very hard beard and tender face has compelled me to seek and test many contrivances designed to make shaving easy and pleasant, but with indifferent success, until I made use of the Magic DIAMOND POWDER, sold by Alfred Bennett, and Roussel's Shaving Cream. FEVER & AGUE

Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Intermittent & Remittent Fevers & all the various forms of Bilious Diseases

SPEEDILY & THOROUGHLY CURED

by Dr Osgood's India Cholagogue

IN presenting the public with a remedy for the treatment and cure of FEVER AND AGUE and other bilious diseases, no apology is needed. Vast numbers in the United States, who suffer from these affections in their varied forms, are compelled to seek relief from other sources than the immediate prescriptions of the regular physician. It becomes therefore an object of humanity, as well as of public interest, to bring before them a remedy prepared from much experience, and which may always be relied upon as SAFE, EFFECTUAL, and HARMLESS in its operations. Such is the true character of the INDIA CHOLAGOGUE, is amply attested by the universal success with which it has been employed.

☞ Extract from a communication of the Hon. WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE, of the U. S. Senate, late Governor of Michigan.

DETROIT, Oct. 21, 1840.

DOCTOR CHARLES OSGOOD,

Dear Sir,—I have read with much interest, your little TREATISE upon the "causes, treatment and cure" of the febrile diseases which have so extensively prevailed in our country during the last few months—an interest increased no doubt, by the fact that I have individually suffered so much from them. Though I feel myself very incompetent to judge safely upon a subject so entirely professional, yet your theory seems to me well reasoned, and your conclusions just, and I think withal, that your pamphlet is calculated to produce much practical good.

Speaking of the medicine he says:—It fully justified your flattering expectations, and as a safe, convenient, and popular remedy, my own experience, so far, induces me to believe that it will prove a great public benefit. I am pleased to learn that you have recently established several agencies for its disposition—though I regret that, with a view to a more general dissemination of it, you should have found it necessary to remove from your present residence among us.

With much respect I have the honor to be, sir,

Your obliged servant,

WILLIAM WOODBRIDGE.

☞ From Hon. STEPHEN V. R. TROWBRIDGE, of Michigan State Senate, to the Agent at Detroit.

BIRMINGHAM, OAKLAND Co., Dec. 13, 1841.

Sir—you wish me to inform you what I know of Dr. Osgood's India Cholagogue, or anti-bilious medicine. I do believe that if the virtue and efficacy of this medicine were generally known, the FEVER AND AGUE would disappear in Michigan.

I procured a bottle in the spring of 1841, and have good reason to believe that myself and family escaped the ague last season in consequence of its use.

Perhaps in no summer since the settlement of this fine peninsula, has the fever and ague been so prevalent as the last. I have recommended this medicine in numerous instances, and when the disease had become fixed and baffled the skill of physicians; and I have never known it fail. It has universally produced the most happy effects, and I bet lieve it has never been exceeded by any medicine in removing the bilious diseases of the climate.

Yours, respectfully,

STEPHEN V. R. TROWBRIDGE.

Its ingredients are freely made known to the public, and are those acknowledged to medical men as possessing rare medical virtues, which peculiar virtues are combined in the "CHERRY PECTORAL" in their greatest purity and efficacy, and when used, as will be seen from the following valuable testimony:

PROFESSOR CLEVELAND,

of Bowdoin College, Brunswick, Maine, writes:—"I have witnessed the effects of your Cherry Pectoral in my own family and in that of my friends, and it has given great satisfaction in cases both of adults and children."

DR. TOWNSEND'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA.

THIS Extract is put up in quart bottles. It is six times cheaper, pleasanter, and warranted superior to any sold. It cures diseases without vomiting, purging, sickness, or debilitating the patient, and is particularly adapted for a

FALL AND SPRING MEDICINE.

The great beauty and superiority of this Sarsaparilla over other remedies is, whilst it eradicates disease,

It invigorates the body.
Consumption cured.
Cleanse and Strengthen.
Consumption can be cured.

Bronchitis, Consumption, Liver Complaint, Colds, Coughs, Catarrh, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Soreness in the Chest, Hectic Flush, Night Sweats, Difficult and Profuse Expectoration, and Pain in the Side, &c., &c., have and can be cured.

Probably there never was a remedy that has been so successful in desperate cases of consumption as this; it cleanses and strengthens the system, and appears to heal the ulcers on the lungs, and patients gradually regain their usual health and strength.

CURIOUS CASE OF CONSUMPTION.

There is scarcely a day passes but there are a number of cases of consumption reported as cured by the use of Dr Townsen's Sarsaparilla. The following was recently received:

Dr. TOWNSEND—Dear Sir: For the last three years I have been afflicted with general debility, and network consumption of the last stage, and did not expect to ever gain my health at all. After going through a course of medicine under the care of some of the most distinguished regular physicians and members of the Board of Health in New York and elsewhere, and spending the most of my earnings in attempting to regain my health, and after reading in some paper of your Sarsaparilla I resolved to try it. After using six bottles I found it done me great good, and called to see you at your office; with your advice I kept on, and do most heartily thank you for your advice. I persevere in taking the Sarsaparilla, and have been able to attend to my usual labors for the last four months, and I hope by the blessings of God and your Sarsaparilla to continue my health. It helped me beyond the expectations of all who knew my case. CHARLES QUIMBY

SPITTING BLOOD.

Read the following, and say that consumption is in incurable if you can:

New York, April 23, 1847.

Dr. TOWNSEND: I verily believe that your Sarsaparilla has been the means, through Providence, of saving my life I have for several years had a bad cough. It became worse and worse. At last I raised large quantities of blood, had night sweats and was greatly debilitated and reduced, and did not expect to live. I have only used your Sarsaparilla but a short time, and there has a wonderful change been wrought in me. I am now able to walk all over the city.—I raise no blood, and my cough has left me. You can well imagine that I am thankful for these results. Your obedient servant. WM. RUSSELL, 65 Catharine st.

LOST HER SPEECH.

The annexed certificate tells a simple and truthful story of suffering and relief. There are thousands of similar cases in this city and Brooklyn, and yet there are thousands of parents let their children die for fear of being humbugged or to save a few shillings.

Brooklyn, Sept. 13, 1847.

Dr. TOWNSEND: I take pleasure in stating, for the benefit of those whom it may concern, that my daughter, two years and six months old, was afflicted with general debility and loss of speech. She was given up as past recovery by our family physicians, but fortunately I was recommended by a friend to try your Sarsaparilla. Before having used one bottle she recovered her speech and was enabled to walk alone, to the astonishment of all who were acquainted with the circumstances. She is now quite well, and in much better health than she has been for 18 months past. JOSEPH TAYLOR, 128 York st., Brooklyn.

TWO CHILDREN SAVED.

Very few families indeed—in fact we have not heard of one—that used Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla in time, but any children the past Summer, while those that did not, sickened and died. The certificate we publish below is conclusive evidence of its value, and is only another instance of its saving the lives of children:

Dr. TOWNSEND—Dear Sir: I had two children cured by your Sarsaparilla of the summer complaint and dysentary; one was only 15 month old and the other 3 years. They were very much reduced, and we expected they would die; they were given up by two respectable physicians. When the doctor informed us that we must lose them, we resolved to try your Sarsaparilla we had heard so much of, but had little confidence, there being so much stuff advertised that is worthless: but we are thankful that we did, for it undoubtedly saved the lives of both. I write this that others may be induced to use it. Yours, respectfully,

JOHN WILSON, Jr.

Myrtle-avenue, Brooklyn, Sept. 15, 1847.

TO THE LADIES.

GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE.

DR. TOWNSEND'S SARSAPARILLA is a sovereign and speedy cure for incipient consumption, and for the general prostration of the system—no matter whether the result of inherent cause or causes, produced by irregularity, illness or accident.

Nothing can be more surprising than its invigorating effects on the human frame. Persons all weakness and lassitude, from taking it at once become robust and full of energy under its influence. It immediately counteracts the nervousness of the female frame, which is the great cause barrenness.

It will not be expected of us, in cases of so delicate a nature, to exhibit certificates of cures performed, but we can assure the afflicted that hundreds of cases have been reported to us.

Dr. TOWNSEND: My wife being greatly distressed by weakness and general debility, and suffering continually by pain and with other difficulties, and having known cases where your medicine has effected great cures; and also hearing it recommended for such cases as I have described, I obtained a bottle of your Extract of Sarsaparilla and followed the directions you gave me. In a short period it removed her complaints and restored her to health. Being greatful for the benefits she received, I take pleasure in thus acknowledging it, and recommending it to the public.

DYSPEPSIA.

No fluid or medicine has ever been discovered which so nearly resembles the gastric juice or saliva in decomposing food and strengthening the organs of digestion as this preparation of Sarsaparilla. It positively cures every case of dyspepsia, however severe or chronic.

Bank Department, Albany, May 10, 1845.

Dr. Townsend—Sir: I have been afflicted for several years with dyspepsia in its worst form, attended with a soreness of stomach, loss of appetite, extreme heartburn, and a great aversion to all kinds of food, and for weeks, (what I could eat) I have been unable to retain but a small portion on my stomach. I tried the usual remedies, but they had but little or no effect in removing the complaint. I was induced, about two months since, to try your Extract of Sarsaparilla, and I must say with little confidence; but after using nearly two bottles, I found my appetite restored and the heartburn entirely removed; and I would earnestly recommend the use of it to those who have been afflicted as I have been. COLUMBIAN SERIES OF Arithmetics.

The Pupil's friend and Teacher's comfort.

THE COLUMBIAN CALCULATOR.—This work is already introduced into some of the best Acadamies and a large number of Schools, where its use has given decided and universal satisfaction, both to teacher and pupil. It is purely American in its character, based upon our own beautiful decimal system of currency. It contains more, the arrangements are better, and it is the easiest and cheapest work of the kind now in use; and it is so considered by hundreds of the most competent teachers and men of science in the Union, who have recommended it, It is the book, particularly and expressly prepared for our American Scholars: By Almon Ticknor.

THE YOUTH'S COLUMBIAN CALCULATOR.—This volume contains 91 pages, with about 900 examples for solution on the slate. It embraces the Fundamental Rules, Compound Rules, Simple and Compound Reduction, Single Rule of Three, Proportion, &c.

TICKNOR'S ARITHMETICAL TABLES, is destined for the use of younger classes in the Schools of the United States. A beautiful little book and pleasing to children, and the only one of the kind of any value.

There are Keys to both Arithmetics bound single or double, for the convenience of teachers, in which the solutions of the questions are given with much extra matter for the black board. These Keys are the most complete works of the kind ever published, and contain, in addition, about two hundred examples in Mensuration, &c., for the use of the Teacher. All that is wanted is to have the above books examined, and no teacher who is acquainted with the science of Arithmetic, will hesitate to pronounce them the best works that have ever been published in this or any other country.

Although issued but a few months, they have already been introduced into the Night Public Schools of New York City—in all the Schools public and private, except two, in the City of Reading. Also, in about twenty Acadamies in the State of Pennsylvania—in a large portion of the Schools in the City of Wilmington, in the City of Lancaster, and in the Boroughs of Harrisburg, York, Chambersburg, Lebanon, Doylestown, Pottsville, Orwigsburg, &c., &c.

OXYGENATED BITTERS,

A SOVEREIGN REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,

PHTHISIC,

AND

GENERAL DEBILITY.

GEORGE B. GREEN, PROPRIETOR.

Windsor, Vermont.

IS a sovereign remedy for DYSPEPSIA, in many of its forms, such as pain in the Stomach, Heartburn, habitual Costiveness, Acid Stomach, Headache, Loss of Appetite, Piles, Night Sweats, and even Consumption (Dyspeptic Phthisic,) and Asthma, or Phthisic attended with derangement of the Stomach (or Dyspeptic Asthma.) Difficult Breathing, which often results from imperfect digestion (or Dyspeptic Symptoms,) is relieved by these Bitters. In short, their use has been proved in the relief of almost all the symptoms that proceed from a debilitated or atonic condition of the Stomach; also in general debility arising from age or from the effects of Fever, particularly Fever and Ague. Females suffering under any uterine derangement arising from weakness, will find the "OXYGENATED BITTERS" an excellent remedy, and not surpassed by any medicine in use.

The history of this medicine is peculiar. It has made its way to public favor solely by the force of its own intrinsic merits. No artificial means have been used to give it notoriety and thrust it upon public attention. It has never before even been advertised, but having first shown its remarkable efficacy in the family of the proprietor, and by him afterwards administered to his afflicted friends and acquaintances with a like result, its reputation gradually extended until it is known in the most distant parts of the Union, as a medicine of unrivalled virtues in the cure of Dyspepsia in all its different forms, and also in the cure of Asthma or Phthisic. Its only herald and its only eulogy has been the story of its wonderful efficacy, as told from mouth to mouth or by letter from friend to friend. In every instance where these Bitters have been used, and the result made known to the proprietor, they have proved a remedy.

Numerous certificates, attesting the singular efficacy of the "OXYGENATED BITTERS," are in the possession of the proprietor; many of them signed by persons already widely known to the public.

GEO. B. GREEN, Proprietor.

WINDSOR, Vt., October 3, 1845.

From Hon. H. D. FOSTER, Member of Congress from Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON, D. C., JUNE 10, 1846.

Dear Sir,—I have been a dyspeptic sufferer for about ten years, and have resorted to various medicines for relief without success, until I made use of your "Oxygenated Bitters." I have used about two bottles, and find myself restored to perfect health The forms in which the disease showed itself, in my case, were great acidity of the stomach, loss of appetite, extreme faintness, severe constipation of the bowels, and violent headache. Feeling desirous that a knowledge of your valuable remedy may reach others similarly afflicted. I take great pleasure in recording my testimony to its curative power; and would also remark, that while on a visit at home a short time since, I administered a part of a bottle to a number of my afflicted friends, with great success. They are desirous that you should establish an agency at Pittsburg, or inform them where the medicine can be obtained. With an earnest desire for your prosperity and happiness, I subscribe myself, truly your friend H. D. FOSTER.

HORSE AND CATTLE MEDICINES.

Don't permit your Horses or cattle to die, when the means of cure are within the reach of all!

The undersigned has spent several years in the study of Veterinary practice in "London and Edinboro'," he has also availed himself of the researches of Leibig, and other celebrated men, who have contributed so much towards a judicious treatment of animals; the principles of our practice consists in the rejection of general bleeding and the total rejection of all medicines that experience has shown to be of a dangerous tendancy. BROWN'S

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER

PREPARED and sold only, at FREDERICK BROWN'S DRUG and CHEMICAL Store, N. E. corner of FIFTH and CHESNUT streets, Philadelphia. This Essence is warranted to possess in a concentrated form, all the valuable properties of Jamaica Ginger, and will be found on trial an excellent Family Medicine. It is particularly recommended as a tonic, to persons recovering from fever or other diseases, a few drops imparting to the stomach a glow and vigor, equal to a wine glass of brandy or other stimuland, without any of the debilitating effects, which are sure to follow the use of liquor of any kind: and it is therefore especially serviceable to children and females. To the aged, it will prove a great comfort; to the dyspeptic, and to those who are predisposed to gout or rheumatic affections, it gives great relief; and to the inebriate who wishes to reform, but whose stomach is constantly craving the noxious liquor, it is invaluable—giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation; and is consequently a great agent in the cause of temperance. ☞ Full directions accompanying each bottle.
